HENDERSON BEING URGED TO RUN AGAIN

President Wires Speaker Asking Him to Reconsider Declination.

TURNS DEAF EAR TO HIS FRIENDS

Iowans In Washington Can Not Solve Mystery of Strange Move.

REASONS ARE FOUND IN PERSONAL PIQUE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 17.—The following telegram was received today by Speaker Henderson from President Roosevelt:

Oyster Bay, Sept. 17.

"Most earnestly ask that you reconsider your determination not to run.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Congressman J. M. Babcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, sent the following, dated New York, September 16:

"Am in receipt of telegram signed by you saying that you have this day declined nomination for congress. We cannot believe the telegram is genuine.

Hepburn and Hull are here and all enter our earnest protest against action of this kind by you. The Republican party that you have served so long and faithfully can not part with your services now."

Replying to these telegrams the speaker further explained his action adhering to his position. He gave positive assurance that there was no danger to the Third district, that Gov. Boies is a very weak candidate, that the Republican candidate will be elected, and that he will do what he can to insure his election.

After these assurances the speaker said he must decline to reconsider his withdrawal.

Other Messages Received.

Other telegrams of the same tenor were received from all the members of the national committee and national congressional committee, Senators Allison, Hanna, Spooner, Lodge, Fairbanks and others.

The Third district congressional committee will meet here tomorrow and act upon the speaker's declination. There is a question whether the committee can fill the vacancy or whether another convention will be necessary. This question will be decided at the meeting tomorrow.

DES MOINES, IA., Sept. 17.—This morning the following telegraphic reply was received from Speaker Henderson in response to a request that he reconsider his declination of the Republican nomination for congress:

DUBUQUE, IA., Sept. 16.

"Messrs Lafe Young and S. W. Rathbun, Des Moines, Ia.:

"Your joint telegram sincerely appreciated, but cannot reconsider, for after an age spent in fighting for my country, state and district, I cannot acquiesce in administering free trade poison to cure the trust evil which I abhor.

"D. B. HENDERSON."

Mystery to Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Speaker Henderson's sensational withdrawal is still the one topic of political discussion in Washington, and the reasons he assigned, together with his reiteration today, only add to the mystery.

Secretary Shaw came out with a new statement today, in which he said that as he understood it Gen. Henderson was not at variance with the Iowa platform, but disagreed with the Iowa interpretation. Meanwhile Director of the Mint Roberts, another strong Iowa friend of the speaker, said that neither this interpretation nor Gen. Henderson's letter itself revealed sufficient reason to justify his extraordinary action.

A calm reading of the speaker's letter in Washington shows that he does not disagree even with the Iowa Republicans or Republicans in general in the matter of "needed changes" in the tariff laws, as "changed conditions demand." Nor is it thought here that there is a wide difference between the speaker and the trust plank of the Iowa platform. At all events, it is said that Gen. Henderson stands practically with the administration in the matter of trust legislation.

Reasons Really Personal.

Below the surface reasons are still assigned in Washington for the speaker's action. It is said that there must be something personal involved for the general to retire from a hard contest in the face of the enemy. On this account his best friends are profoundly grieved. That he dreaded both a hard-fought contest in his district and a fight for renomination as speaker cannot be denied.

It is admitted here by Republicans familiar with the Iowa situation that if elected at all in the Third district this year it would have been only by a greatly reduced majority. In the year 1890, when the tariff was an issue in Iowa, Gen. Henderson was elected by the small margin of 198. He readily increased this, however, during successive terms and more rapidly after he became speaker until he now holds his seat by over 11,000 votes.

Then, too, it is admitted by the speaker's friends that he had a very unhappy winter during the last session of congress and was very much chagrined over the repeated overthrows of the house leadership. He lost prestige in the campaign for Cuban reciprocity because he came to Washington at the beginning of the session avowedly opposed to the president's plan and enlisted support against it.

Littlefield Begins Campaign.

Representative Charles E. Littlefield of the Second district of Maine, who has already been elected a member of the fifty-eighth congress, is the first to announce his candidacy for speaker of the house in view of Gen. Henderson's withdrawal. To a Washington friend who sent a telegram of inquiry Mr. Littlefield sent this reply tonight:

"If Gen. Henderson does not return I shall be a candidate for speaker. In that contingency anything my friends can do will be appreciated."

Mr. Littlefield's views in regard to trust legislation are known to be in accord with those of the president, and on this account his friends say that supporters of the administration will be inclined to look with favor on his candidacy.

CUT IN TARIFF WRONG REMEDY SAYS BABCOCK

Does Not Favor Putting Trust-Made Goods on Free List.

HE STANDS IN LINE WITH HENDERSON

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.

The attention of Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee was today called to a published report of the conference at Oyster Bay, in which it was stated that "the Babcock plan of putting trust made goods on the free list was not mentioned." Mr. Babcock dictated the following statement:

"I have never advocated putting trust made goods on the free list because they were manufactured by a combination or a trust, nor do I know of any Republican who has. We have always antagonized this proposition, which is of Democratic origin, and I want to call attention to an authorized interview on the Iowa platform which fully explains my position on this subject as published August 1, in which I said:

"'The tariff plank is in harmony with the Republican national platform of 1896, which says: "We are not pledged to any particular schedules. The question of rates is a practical question to be governed by the conditions of time and production." The result of the election of 1896 enabled the Republican party to repeal the obnoxious Wilson law and enact in its place the present Dingley tariff, and as I understand the Iowa platform, it means just what the national platform of 1896 says: "That when changes become necessary by the conditions of time and production, such changes should be made in harmony with the Republican policy of protection."

"'The Republican party has ever been ready to meet new conditions, and I believe it will handle this question courageously and in line with the Republican platform of 1896, under which the Dingley tariff law was enacted. The Iowa platform and the Democratic idea of tariff reform are as far apart as the heavens are from the earth. Any changes that the Republican party would make would be strictly upon protective lines, while the Democratic idea would be a tariff for revenue only, which means free trade.

"'The Democratic proposition to put all trust-made articles on the free list would be the worst blow that could be struck at labor in this country. It is not a question of who manufactures articles for export, whether an individual or a combine of individuals, but the question is the comparative cost of the manufacture of such articles in this country with the cost of similar articles in foreign countries. In this question the wages of labor is the all important factor. The Democratic idea if enacted into law would mean the closing of factories, followed by idleness very like the conditions that existed under the Wilson tariff law."

TO BLOCK WABASH.

Purchase of Property by Pennsylvania Railroad for Supposed Purpose of Hampering Its Rival.

WASHINGTON, PA., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is thought to have made another attempt to block the entrance of the Wabash into this place. Today deals were closed by D. S. Liggett and J. J. Chew, representing the Pennsylvania Company, in which the company secures a large tract of land about one mile west of town. The price paid was $25,000. The property lies directly south of the Washington fair grounds and in the route mapped out by Wabash engineers for the proposed line.

The Pennsylvania people claim the land was not purchased to block the Wabash, but to protect their own interests, as they intend to make many improvements in that locality.

FOILED ROBBER BLEW HIMSELF UP IN SHEER DISPAIR

Dropped His Bomb Because Skagway Bank Officials Dodged the Issue.

BUILDING WAS WRECKED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Skagway, Alaska, Sept. 17.—About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon an unknown man walked into the Canadian Bank of Commerce, a revolver in one hand and a dynamite bomb in the other, and demanded $20,000, threatening to blow all into eternity if his demand was not granted.

Cashier Pooley and Teller Wallace were the only men in the bank. Wallace ducked to get his gun and ran quickly to the back of the room, calling for Pooley to do the same.

"No you don't!" yelled the man, and dropped the bomb.

The clerks had just got out of the window. The bank was wrecked. The robber's head was smashed and one arm was torn off. People living above the bank were blown into the air.

Judge Price, formerly prosecuting attorney, who was entering the bank at the time, was hurt, but not seriously. The dynamiter died without regaining consciousness. The bank lost about $1,000, chiefly in gold dust, which was lying on the counter.

ROCKEFELLER LOSES SUMMER RESIDENCE

Boxwood Destroyed by Fire, But Most of Valuable Paintings Are Saved.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 17.—"Boxwood," the home of John D. Rockefeller, near Pocantic Hills, is a mass of ruins tonight, having been destroyed by fire. It is said an exploding kerosene lamp set fire to the roomy structure; by others it is said an electric light wire ignited the woodwork.

Only one member of the family, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was at home, and he took charge of the futile efforts to save the house. When all hope of this was dissipated he directetd the servants and the firemen in their work of removing the valuable furnishings and paintings from the lower floor to the lawn. In this he was assisted by his uncle, William Rockefeller, who was summoned from his home nearby.

The elder Mr. Rockefeller, with Mrs. Rockefeller and other members of the family, is traveling in the west.

Mr. Rockefeller purchased his country residence and the surrounding grounds of 500 acres in 1894 for $653,000. To this he added, in 1897, $50,000 worth of land in Sleepy Hollow. Then in April, 1900, he bought 207 acres, comprising the Kingsland faarm, for which he paid $200 an acre. Along the Hudson river for three miles the estate is bounded on the west, and Washington Irving's Sleepy Hollow is a part of the Rockefeller park, which is modeled after the immense estates in Engand.

STARS PORTEND EVIL.

Prof. Meyer Warns President Roosevelt, Gov. Odell and Mayor Low to Beware.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Signs in the stars portend evil for President Roosevelt, Gov. Odell and Mayor Low, according to Prof. Meyer, an astrologer of Hoboken.

In a letter to the Herald, Prof. Meyer says he deems it advisable to warn President Roosevelt to guard against danger for the four days beginning today. He has read the stars and found, he says, indications of great evil.

By a strange coincidence the professor finds that ill fortune is also in store for Gov. Odell and Mayor Low on the same days, and he warns them to guard themselves from danger.

SCHWAB TO BUILD MILL.

Will Establish Paper Plant at Williamsburg, Blair County.

HALLIDAYSBURG, PA., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Williamsburg, this county, the boyhood home of Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, will soon enjoy an industrial boom started by its distinguished son. Water rights have been obtained for a paper mill. Employment will be given to $500 men. The capital stock will be $200,000 and Mr. Schwab heads the list of subscribers.

CASTRO RETIRES BEFORE TROOPS OF OPPOSITION

AMERICAN MARINES LANDED AT COLON

Willemstad, Island of Curacoa, Sept. 17.—President Castro of Venezuela has retreated from Ocumare before the advance of the revolutionists. The government's situation is critical.

The president retreated from Ocumare to Charayave and then to Guyaba, about four hours' march from Caracas.

According to report, the president intends to move his army to a point near Valencia, join forces with the troops under Gen. Garrido and attack the revolutionary army commanded by Gen. Mendoza.

From all points are reported desertions of government soldiers to the ranks of the revolutionists, and the general impression in Venezuela is that the last important incident of the revolution is approaching.

PANAMA, COLOMBIA, Sept. 17.—Marines from the United States cruiser Cincinnati were stationed on the Panama railroad passenger train which left Colon for this city this morning. They were landed from the cruiser not long before the train started, 50 men going ashore. A small rapid-fire gun was also landed and was placed on a railroad truck protected by iron plates. More marines will be landed from the Ranger here tomorrow.

It is reported here that all passenger trains from both Colon and Panama will carry guards of American marines while matters are in the present critical condition.

Considerable excitement was caused in Colon this morning by the report that a lively skirmish had taken place between revolutionists and government troops near Monkey Hill, only two miles from Colon. It was stated that the insurgents were defeated after suffering great losses. Later advices from Colon declare that the supposed skirmish was a fight between two government patrols, which ran into each other and each mistook the other for insurgents.

Government troops found a small body of insurgents near Mindi statio nearly in the morning and scattered them. A colored woman in the vicinity was killed by a stray bullet.

The Royal mail steamer La Plata, which arrived at Colon this afternoon from Barranquilla, carried a large number of troops to reinforce the government army.

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.

Conemaugh Girl Was Taken Ill at New Castle and Declined to Divulge Her Identity.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—Miss Mabel Williams, daughter of John L. Williams of Conemaugh, Cambria county, died here last night among strangers, refusing to disclose her identity until a few moments before she died. She died at the home of Mrs. Della Talbitzer, 16 South street, where she had been staying since September 5. Mrs. Talbitzer says the girl came to her home and asked for boarding, saying she had been taken violently ill while going to spend her vacation with a girl friend and was unable to continue her trip.

Miss Williams paid her board a week in advance. She was attended by a local physician, who treated her for liver trouble. Miss Williams, who was a strikingly handsome brunette, was apparently recovering and intended to leave the Talbitzer home yesterday. The remains were sent to Conemaugh this morning.

Pardon Board Meets.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 17.—The board of pardons today recommended a pardon for Della Welsh, Allegheny, larceny. Pardons were refused James Artz, Lawrence, arson; William Fox, Fayette, arson; Charles O. Thomas, Clarion, burglary; William Meyers, Allegheny, burglary, and John Coslitt, Washington, manslaughter. A rehearing was granted in the case of Elizabeth Natcher, Allegheny, larceny.

INFORMATIONS MADE AGAINST HOUSEOWNERS

Supt. McAleese Proceeds Against Lessors and Agents.

MANY ARRESTS TO BE MADE TODAY

Fifty Speakeasies and Disorderly Houses Scheduled for Raids.

LAWYERS SAY OWNERS CAN BE CONVICTED

Police Superintendent McAleese had a conference with District Attorney Haymaker and City Attorney Blakeley yesterday afternoon in the district attorney's office. They examined 50 informations that had been made against keepers of disorderly houses and speakeasies and also against the real estate agents and owners who had leased the properties. The conference lasted two hours, and after the attorneys examined the evidence on which the information had been made they assured the police official of their validity and told him to go ahead with the arrests. Most of them are to be made today.

Superintendent McAleese and Inspector Fred Will went to the office of the district attorney and took the informations with them. They had been made before Police Magistrate McGarey during the last two weeks, and Superintendent McAleese was desirous to have the district and city attorneys examine them before he went ahead with his arrests.

There are several well-known real estate agents and property owners among the persons against whom informations have been made. They have leased properties in the downtown and hill district of the city. Many of the leases were so constructed that Supt. McAleese was somewhat in doubt about proceeding on them. These leases were written so as to make it appear that the houses were not to be used for illegal or immoral purposes. District Attorney Haymaker said this did not in the least exempt the property holder from conviction, as it was the duty of his collectors to know the character of his tenants. He was responsible for his agents and collectors.

The evidence in these cases was accumulated by Inspector Will, and in addition to having the copies of the leases, he has receipts for the rent, given by the property holder to the tenant. Both attorneys said they could secure conviction on the evidence shown to them.

POLICE BUSY OVER DEATH OF MR. FISH

Mrs. Margaret Pickel, Who Has Been Located In Boston, Expected to Clear Up Mystery.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Investigation into the facts surrounding the death of Nicholas Fish, the banker, which followed an altercation in a saloon Monday evening, is being pushed with great vigor today, with a view to having all possible light thrown upon the case at the inquest Friday.

According to Assistant District Attorney Garvan, Mrs. Margaret Pickel, a sister of Mrs. Casey, who is said to have been in the company of Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Philips when Fish was struck by Sharkey, has been located in Boston and arrangements are being made to have the woman in this city during the inquest. Mr. Garvan said that he believed her evidence would materially help to clear up the mystery.

At the home of Nicholas Fish it was said today that Mrs. Fish had recovered from the first shock of her husband's untimely death and is now resting quietly. She has been confined to her bed since yesterday morning.

LA SOUFRIERE AGAIN BEGINS HER ACTIVITY

Two Natives Visit Old Crater and Find Flames Rising from Three Places.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

KINGSTON, ST. VINCENT, B. W. I., Sept. 17.—Both craters of La Soufriere have been active since September 11.

The top of the mountain is usually covered with clouds, but being exceptionally clear of them this morning, two natives named Cummings and Adams ventured to ascend the volcano and reached the summit of the old crater. September 3 this crater contained water; it is now nearly filled with sand and has a funnel-shaped cavity in the center.

Cummings and Adams saw flames rising from three distinct places in the crater. They experienced a narrow escape. The heat on the mountain was almost intolerable.

The predictions made by American scientists with regard to later eruptions of La Soufriere are being signally fulfilled.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

TITUSVILLE, PA., Sept. 17.—Thomas McMahan, one of the alleged burglars who robbed Hugh Miles of a $1,000 government bond and several hundred dollars and jewelry Monday evening, near Fagundas, is in the local jail, having been brought here from his home in Oil City this morning.

McMahan was arrested in his bed at 2 a. m. and the missing bond, Mrs. Miles' gold watch and chain and the aged husband's revolver were found in the alleged burglar's house. The articles were identified here this forenoon by Miles.

Although the three robbers were masked, Miles is positive the prisoner is one of the gang that overpowered and robbed the aged couple.

READING, PA., Sept. 17.—The Republican city legislative convention nominated James B. Garbriel and Frank W. Mohr.

ALLEGHENY MAN REVOLUTIONIZES BLOCK SIGNALS

Has System That Includes Telephone and Does Away With Relays.

COMPANY WITH $1,600,000 CAPITAL

The block signal systems, in use on railroads all over the larger part of the United States, may be revolutionized in a few months by a system invented by George W. Cohen of Allegheny. Mr. Cohen's scheme includes the abolishing of all relays and allows the practical use of the telephone for signal purposes.

The Cohen Automatic Electric Block Signal Company was formed yesterday with a capital of $1,600,000 to manufacture the inventions of George W. Cohen of Allegheny. The meeting was held at the office of the New Jersey Corporation Guarantee & Trust Company in the Frick building.

A charter for the new company under the laws of New Jersey is expected to be issued within a week. The incorporators will be George W. Cohen, the inventor; John B. Wheeler, the paint manufacturer and dealer of Allegheny; George F. McNeale of the Standard Plate Glass Company of Butler and C. L. Stevens, the chair manufacturer of Pittsburgh.

It is said for the new system of railroad signals that it possesses points of great advantage over any others now in use. One of the most apparent is the use of a telephone system in connection with it, a telephone being located at the entrance to every block on the railroad, and the proper railroad officials being supplied with keys to the case, so that in an emergency the chief train dispatcher's office may be communicated with quickly.

No Relays Used.

According to Mr. Cohen, the especial advantage of the system is the absence of relays. "In all other systems a relay is used," he says. "This point and the automatic switch used in the construction of the signal are the new inventions upon which the patents were allowed. With the old relay system there is needless complication of machinery and half again as much power is needed to operate the signals. There is also the danger that the platinum points of the relay, corroding from the moisture of the air or becoming covered by dust, may put the signal out of repair.

"This system gives the danger signal not only when the train is all in the block, but so long as any part of it remains there. When a train breaks in a block and the front part goes ahead, leaving a car or more behind, the clear signal will not be shown at the entrance of the block. All fouled switches, open switches, broken rails and bridge or track washouts are shown."

It Has Been Tested.

The invention has been inspected in private both by the electrical experts of a number of railroads and by men engaged in the manufacture of railroad supplies. Several propositions have been made to Mr. Cohen for handling it. He has not yet completed his plans, nor settled upon the site for a factory.

His workshop at present is at No. 100 East Lacock street, where he has a complete lay-out of a railroad showing the operation of the signal. He has also applied for patents upon a new form of automatic switch still further improving the invention. By this switch he expects to be able to change a current of a small fraction of a volt into one of great power without the use of either a relay or "step-up."

In the completed company, which will be formed shortly after the papers of incorporation are received, Mr. Cohen will be president and general manager.

IDEAL ANARCHIST FORCED TO RESIGN

Was Secretary of Chicago Committee to Receive President Roosevelt on Western Tour.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Under the charge of being an anarchist Ephraim Phillip Rosenthal, secretary of the committee appointed to receive and entertain President Roosevelt during his visit to this city, has resigned. Max Rabinoff, another member of the committee, is likewise asserted to be a sympathizer of the "reds," but his resignation has not been tendered.

Somewhat sensational circumstances attended the investigation conducted by Chief of Police O'Neill and Detective Muchowski. Information reached the chief that these members of the committee were at least "ideal anarchists," and that one of them was closely identified with persons who sought bail for the release of Emma Goldman and Abraham Isaak, upon their arrest soon after the assassination of President McKinley.

Rosenthal this evening denied he held anarchistic views, or that he associated with those interested in Emma Goldman or Isaak. Mr. Rosenthal is manager of the Industrial Art League.

"Do you know Emma Goldman?" he was asked.

"Hundreds of people know Emma Goldman," was the answer, and when asked if he had assisted in finding sureties for her, when under arrest after the murder of President McKinley, he declined to reply.

Mr. Rosenthal, through a combination of circumstances, has frequently been mentioned as an "ideal anarchist" and a "philosophic anarchist." Max Rabinoff is an employe of a music house. He declared that as a member of the Industrial Art League he had investigated charges of anarchism preferred against Mr. Rosenthal and had convinced himself that they were not founded. In the meantime the police continue their investigation.

EMPLOYS SPECIALIST.

President Will Take on Western Tour Physician to Keep Speaking Tubes in Order.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Special.)—Dr. James J. Richardson, a throat specialist of this city, has been engaged to accompany President Roosevelt, when the latter goes on his western speaking tour.

Dr. Richardson is a native of Martinsburg, W. Va., and after graduating in this country, studied in the hospitals of Paris, Berlin and Edinburgh.

He will have a separate compartment in the special car of the president, and will take with him a special set of instruments to be used in treating the president's throat whenever it becomes apparent that it is growing weak.

CORRUPTION CANNOT PASS PENNYPACKER

Measures Must Come to Him Bearing Stamp of Honesty.

CANDIDATE MAKES CAMPAIGN PLEDGE

Enthusiastic Crowd Fills the Theater at Erie to Hear Republican Logic.

PROSPERITY BALL BEGINS LONG ROLL

By CHESTER D. POTTER,
Staff Correspondent.

Erie, Pa., Sept. 17.—"If I be elected governor of Pennsylvania, and there shall be submitted for my approval any bill, in the passage of which there exists grounds for the belief that there has been corrupt dealing, it will not become a law."

This was the emphatic statement of Judge Pennypacker, made tonight to the Republicans of Erie. He said it with all the fire, all the force, all the strenuous earnestness of a man who expects, and who may be depended upon to literally fulfill his official obligations to the public.

The Republican candidate for governor is meeting all issues as they arise. While he believes that Republican control of national affairs is of paramount importance, believes that the prosperity of the nation is dependent upon the incumbency of a Republican president, that its progress can only be advanced by a Republican congress, he is not anxious to evade any of the questions being raised by the Democrats in regard to Republican control of state affairs and will meet them each and all specifically in their turn.

Student of State History.

Judge Pennypacker has been regarded solely in the light of a jurist, as a Cincinnatus, a man of literary bent, one whose unblemished career, spotless integrity and blameless private life made him particularly acceptable as the Republican standard bearer. Those who have placed these limitations upon his availability will be undeceived. He is a student of politics, of political history, particularly so of the state he has so often defended, and there is nothing in its legislative or administrative annuals, for the last half century, with which he is unfamiliar. He is equipped with the knowledge with which to expose the sophistries of Democratic "reformers" and the contrasts and parallels he will present will be distasteful to those who prompt them.

Legislative affairs, particularly the matter of appropriations, were discussed tonight by Judge Pennypacker. His experience as one of the trustees of the University of Pennsylvania and of the Valley Forge commission, he said, had given him an intimacy with this phase of legislative life. In his experience he said there had been no evidence of fraud and in this connection he made the pledge which is given prominence in the beginning of this dispatch.

Will Discuss Ripper Bill.

I am reliably informed that the judge will meet all questions raised by his Democratic opponents, and it is probable that, in his Pittsburgh speech, he will give a point expression on the Pittsburgh ripper bill, the reform measure passed by the last legislature at the instance of a majority of the taxpayers and which failed of its objective through the action of Gov. Stone, who appointed a "machine" recorder to protect his fellows.

Amphitheater, balcony and gallery were filled when the speakers arrived for tonight's meeting. The opera house never contained a larger or more representative audience. Women were present in large numbers. Postmaster Isador Sobel called the meeting to order, introducing Assistant Attorney General Fred W. Fleitz, president of the State League of Republican Clubs, now in annual session here, who acted as chairman. Mr. Fleitz was most felicitous in his presentation of the speakers. He made a happy talk on the prosperity of the past six years, giving handsome tribues to McKinley and Roosevelt.

Congressman Arthur L. Bates was the first speaker. He thoroughly interested his listeners by an able exposition of national issues.

William M. Brown, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, made a fair, forceful address. He reiterated his statement that, in his opinion, ex-Gov. Pattison is an honest man, and in this category he included State Chairman William T. Creasy and George W. Guthrie, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor.

Only Wants Fair Play.

The certificate of honesty tendered by Mr. Brown was merely a preface to a demand for fair play from his political opponents. He cited the fact that George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh had been an adviser in every "ripper" or reform measure which had been presented at Harrisburg for the last 10 years, that Mr. Guthrie helped to frame the ripper charter bill now in force and that he went to Harrisburg and urged its passage in the session of 1901.

This being the case, he failed to see any consistency in the course of Mr. Guthrie, who together with his colleague, Gov. Pattison, now denounces a measure indorsed by a great majority of the citizens of Pittsburgh and which could not have enacted into a law without the aid of Democratic votes.

Judge Pennypacker followed. He was given three hearty cheers. He mentioned the compliments paid the ladies by Chairman Fleitz, Congressman Bates and Mr. Brown, thought them a pleasant diversion but, owning to the fact that Senator Penrose was still to be heard from he did not dare to enter the lists. The most respectful attention was accorded the judge. He spoke slowly and his every word distinctly reached every part of the great hall. He said in part:

Forgets the Real Issues.

Mr. President and Gentlemen—The distinguished gentleman who leads the Democratic ticket made an address at Reading a few days ago, accepting the nomination conferred upon him by the Erie convention and outlining the views upon which we may assume he proposes to appeal to the people for support. In some respects it was certainly a remarkable production. About the issues over which the American people are divided into two political organizations there is absolute silence.

Instead of discussing these matters, which are of vital interest to us all and affect the life and home of every man in Pennsylvania perhaps more closely than those of other American states, he indulges in a wail, a diatribe, a denunciation of the state which he proposes to govern, and its people. Standing upon a platform which declares that this is a disgraced state, he does not hesitate to accept its mendacities; and, in appealing to the forlorn the unhappy and the discontented, he hopes to win your favor and esteem. Without discrimination, and, discovering nothing which is worthy of condemnation, he withers and condemns alike all of our local and state legislative bodies.

Pattison Accuses All.

He says: "It is through the utilization of a debauched party organization and its subsidized representatives that city councils and legislatures have become the scene of iniquitous performances never conceived in other days." You are able to say from your own experience and what you see occurring about you whether or not this is a correct statement.

"Facts," he says, "might be cited in connection with appropriation bills almost beyond belief." He adds that the very best members are powerless unless they "consent in violence of their consciences to arrangements and deals which corrupt men who are nothing less than public pirates."

During the last 20 years the gentleman has himself been governor for eight years, or for more than one-third of the whole period. Where is the record of an appropriation he rejected because it appeared that it was the result of a corrupt deal? Would not this have been the appropriate time to set the seal of condemnation upon iniquity and prevent its growth for the future?

Speaking of the last legislature, he says: "There never was such a corrupt use of money, so much legislative debauchery, so little effort made to correct crying abuses and to purify the public service."

Here's a Different Opinion.

At its last meeting the president of the State Bar association made an address in which he said of the last session of the legislature:

"In no like period since the foundation of the commonwealth has the material and intellectual advancement of the whole people been stimulated and fostered by so many wise and beneficent laws."

It leave to you to decide between these widely divergent opinions.

One of the most dangerous tendencies of modern American life, apparently becoming every day more prevalent, is the disposition want only and recklessly to speak ill of those who are charged with the performance of public duties. Instead of the respect which in the days of our fathers was exhibited toward those selected by the people for office, it is the habit of our time to offer them only abuse. If we ever succeed in entirely destroying the confidence of the people in those who administer the government, we shall have reached the time when the government itself is ready to perish. It is a kind of slander which is closely akin to treason and leads directly on the road to anarchy and the overthrow of our cherished institutions. It is the breeding ground where grow the sentiments and impulses of creatures like Guiteau and Czolgosz.

No Fear of Comparison.

You who are Pennsylvanians have no reason to fear comparison with any other American commonwealth or with any other government on the face of the earth. Her affairs are administered not with perfection, but faithfully and well. She has no public debt, she taxes no farmer's land or herds of cattle, and she has over $12,000,000 in her treasury. Let us maintain for the present and future the standard she has ever borne aloft, and let us resolve, both as Republicans and Democrats, that no man, whether he was born among us or has come among us, who may be tempted by the hope of personal reward to soil her good name, shall thereby reap any advantage.

Senator Penrose made the last address and a song, "Start the Ball a-Rolling," to the air of "Marching Through Georgia," concluded the program.

Among other things Senator Penrose said:

Figures That Strike Home.

Here in this beautiful and thriving city, one of the commercial emporiums in the commerce of the great lakes stretching from New York to Minnesota, we can look around and see as many evidences of the great prosperity which has come to the people of the land under Republican policies as in any other section of Pennsylvania. The treasury statistics recently published show that the commerce of the great lakes is assuming enormous proportions. This commerce seems to be growing at the rate of over 30 per cent. per annum. Conspicuous gains have been made in the shipments of ore, minerals and coal. In seven months of the current year a registered tonnage more than twice the registered tonnage of both foreign and American vessels engaged in the foreign trade of the country for the same period of time was engaged in the commerce of the lakes. This enormous increase in the carrying trade on the great lakes is another illustration of the extraordinary commercial and industrial program which has been achieved under Republican administration.

How Labor Feels Change.

The president of the American Federation of Labor estimated that over 3,000,000 men were out of employment during the free trade period from 1893 to 1897. The same president in 1899 in his annual report referred to the revival of industry as a matter for general congratulation, and today declared that no man in the country need be out of employment. This is a lesson of two tariffs—the difference between free trade and protection.

The achievements of the Republican party have been glorious in war and have brought about unparalleled prosperity in peace. The Hawaiian islands have been annexed as a territory of the United States, and in them we possess the only coaling station in all the vast expanse of the Pacific. Porto Rico has been given a free and stable government and is rapidly advancing in prosperity and development. Other nations have had possessions and colonies, none have ever attempted to administer them in the Orient for the good of the people there or have endeavored to prepare them for a free government by themselves. If we have not done all for the Filipinos that Mr. Bryan would have us do, we have laid the foundation for an assured future.

Party Without an Issue.

The Democratic party is absolutely without an issue in the present campaign; they have tried to raise every conceivable issue without success. Torn by dissensions among themselves as to their peculiar free silver notions, they no longer force it as an issue with any degree of unanimity, and in the light of our splendid prosperity can no longer claim that it is the one panacea for all our ills. After the dreadful experience of commercial and industrial depression and disaster under Cleveland's administration, it will be a long time before they will again attempt to raise the issue of free trade. They have endeavored to attack the honor of the American army, but the American people have refuted the imputations. They would hold the Republican party responsible for the trusts, but again President Roosevelt has declared emphatically and without any doubt as to his meaning, his advocacy of full and adequate federal control of the trusts.

It is dreadful to contemplate the possibility of our glorious progress being interrupted, if not imperiled, by Democratic success.

The American people tried it once, and in the prosperous times of the Harrison administration gave ear to the Democratic demagogue, and suffered in consequence the dreadful disasters of the Cleveland administration. It is incredible that they will repeat the experiment.

The Day's Journey.

After a good night's rest at Lock Haven the Pennypacker party started at 8 o'clock this morning for Erie. There was a brief stop at Renova. A crowd was waiting and Judge Pennypacker and Senator Penrose were kept busy greeting friends until they were forced to break away. Dinner was taken at Kane. A large reception committee met the party.

It was nearly 5 o'clock when the train arrived at Erie. A crowd of 10,000 people greeted the distinguished visitors. The reception party included Senators Matson and Sisson, Clark Olds, president of the executive committee, J. D. Hay and the full membership of the county and city committees. The party was driven through the principal streets, preceded by bands and marching clubs. An ovation highly gratifying was tendered by the thousands who lined the pavements.

Judge Pennypacker was entertained at dinner by James McBrier and Senator Penrose by Clark S. Olds, chairman of the executive committee. At the Reed house a public reception was held at 7 o'clock.

Collector of the Port B. B. Brown, Mayor Hardwick, County Chairman Force, ex-County Chairman James D. Hay and ex-Postmaster James D. Hay, introduced the visitors to the candidates.

The committee on arrangements included: Executive—President Clark S. Olds, Vice President W. B. Flickinger, Secretary L. G. Sterrett, Treasurer S. S. Burton.

City—A. E. Sisson, J. D. Hays, J. W. Lloyd, Ed. Heuer, George W. Evans, U. P. Rossiter, B. B. Brown, Thomas H. Cole, Robert T. Walker, H. A. Clark, George H. Higgins, Samuel Jeffs, H. C. Lord, Charles G. Brevillier, James W. Stroul, Charles E. Strick, James M. Sherwin, Charles F. Miller, W. S. Royse, Marvin Griswold, Mat Griswold, Jr., A. P. Howard, F. S. Phelps, D. D. Reed, W. S. Nason, Henry Zimmerly, M. W. Shreve, W. E. Long, James W. Allison, Arthur C. Dunn, George B. Taylor, Paul Benson, A. W. Tuttle, Matthew Griswold, Sr., F. L. Cleveland, J. C. Grove, J. W. Hardwick, W. State League of Clubs.

Pittsburgh is not largely represented at the annual convention of the State League of Republican clubs. Six clubs are registered, the Americus, Tariff, Home Market, Alexander Hamilton and the Eighth Ward Republican club of Pittsburgh, and the Allegheny Republican club. National officers were slated today and they will be elected tomorrow. From Allegheny county the vice presidents will be R. H. Lindsay and Dr. A. J. Barchfield. The delegates-at-large from Pittsburgh will be A. J. Edwards, alternate, H. W. Diehl. From Allegheny City, W. A. Arbogast and Samuel Rheams.

The Pittsburgh delegates are William Herman, Frank D. Saupp, Jr., George W. Wilson and Emil Spahr. Alternates, William R. Glass, Frank Bonini, J. C. Irwin and Jacob Rinn. Alegheny City delegates are: Senator Charles Muehlbronner, Isadore Bowers, John Sauers, and Jacob Drumm. The alternates are: R. Smith, Perry Childs, Charles McDermitt and Henry Moore. Less than a half dozen delegates from Allegheny county are present and the fact that most of them are "machine workers" is the excuse offered for their absence. It is said that the Citizens party makes their presence at home essential.

Much has been written of the "Prosperity Ball," designed by Joseph Huston, architect of the state capitol. Let it be said that the ball is a physical and political reality. It is also a high and round ball, some 20 feet in circumference, and upon its surface is face of Mother Earth. The United States is featured and the story of progress is told.

It is the intention, the initiative of which was taken today, that the ball shall be rolled from Erie—in the most northwesterly corner of the state—to the city of Philadelphia, in the extreme southwest. Republican county organizations are expected to supply the motive power. The ball was put in motion tonight. Two thousand lusty Republicans watched it roll tonight to the opera house, and at the hour of eight started on its long journey eastward.

The convention program for tomorrow includes a boat ride for delegates and visitors, an opportunity to attend the Edinboro fair, a reception and ball in the evening. Friday there will be an excursion to Niagara Falls.

The Pennypacker party will leave for Pittsburgh at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

BOY KILLED BY CAR.

Nine-Year-Old Lad Killed at Penn Avenue and Fortieth Street.

Martin, the 9-year-old son of Mrs. Sarah Ellen Perry of No. 3929 Howley avenue, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon by being run over by a traction car at Penn avenue and Fortieth street.

The accident happened about 3:15. Young Perry was playing with several other boys when a special car, hauling two summer cars to the barn, came along the street.

The boys saw an opportunity to get a free ride and all of them ran to board the empty cars. Young Perry, with the others, took a short ride and then he either jumped or fell off and was thrown beneath the wheels and his arms and legs crushed off.

The motorman was not aware of the accident and did not know the car had passed over the boy until he was stopped and told by some one. The boy died almost instantly, being dead when reached.

SAVE MONEY ON THAT PIANO

It is so seldom that anyone has such an opportunity to buy a high-class piano that the present low prices at Hamilton's are attracting widespread attention. If this were an ordinary offering, or one that involved instruments of unknown make, little attention would be given it. But when you stop to consider the high character of the instruments sold at Hamilton's and the reputation of this old reliable house, you readily comprehend why so many conservative persons are availing themselves of this opportunity.

The reason for this reduction in prices is just this: The busy season is only a few weeks away, and when it comes everybody about the establishment will be so much occupied that it will be impossible to select an instrument with as much care as at present. Therefore those who come NOW not only have more time in which to make their selections, but they also have the further advantage of saving a considerable amount on their purchases. If you wish to know how much can be saved, come in as soon as convenient and pick out the instrument that seems to suit your fancy best. You will find the price lower than you would expect to pay for such a piano.

Perhaps you have an instrument that has proved unsatisfactory, or which has been used so long that it cannot come up to the standard which you wish to maintain. In either case your old instrument will be accepted at its full value, in part payment on a new one. This is an inducement which you will do well to consider carefully.

Be sure to write if you cannot call.

WHOLE FACULTY BEING CLAIMED FOR PATTISON

Dickinson College Professors Call on Candidate and Promise Their Votes.

DR. REED KEEPS SILENT ON QUESTION.

Admits He is on Fence, Politically—Some Frosty Spots Struck by Democratic Campaign Special—Harrisburg at Night.

By WALTER J. CHRISTY,
Staff Correspondent.

Harrisburg, Sept. 17.—The Democrats are tonight claiming that the entire faculty of Dickinson college, Carlisle, from President George Edward Reed down, will support ex-Gov. Robert E. Pattison and his colleagues. In an interview Dr. Reed says that he has not committed himself. He adds that he will probably resign as state librarian.

Until Carlisle was reached in the tour of the Cumberland valley nothing had happened to give Pattison and his party especial cause for joy. The meeting at Newville an hour before had been a frost, therefore much noise is being made about the capture of the college professors. They are all Union party men. The fact that Pattison is a Methodist and also a trustee of the college had much to do with the declaration in his favor. Republican leaders in Cumberland are of the opinion that the action of the professors will not cause the change of many votes from Pennypacker to Pattison. The county is usually rather close.

Ministers Among Callers.

Pattison reached Carlisle soon after noon and among his early callers were the following men under the leadership of Frysinger Evans, member of the Union party state committee in the Thirty-second district: Profs. J. H. Morgan, M. W. Prince, B. O. McIntyre, M. G. Filler, W. W. Landis, T. C. Prince and J. L. Sigmund, Dickinson college; the Rev. B. H. Mosser, pastor Methodist Episcopal church, Carlisle; the Rev. William Eveland, pastor Methodist Episcopal church, Chambersburg; Dr. J. G. Eickel, carlisle, and J. B. Kauffman, New Cumberland. The men all claim to be Republicans. They told Pattison they would vote for him this fall. Soon after they had gone Dr. Reed called. He had a talk with Pattison and Guthrie. The Democrats were happy after he had gone.

Dr. Reed says he visited Pattison simply to pay his respects. The ex-governor is one of the trustees of Dickinson college and has long been a close friend of the doctor. When asked for a verification of the report that he had declared for Pattison, Reed replied:

Hanging on the Fence.

"So far I have not committed myself to Pattison and do not know just what I will do. In my opinion, Pattison will get a large vote in Cumberland county, but I am not prepared to say that he will carry the county. I do not attempt to control the political opinions of the faculty of Dickinson college.

"I have always been a Republican; a stalwart Republican. I intende to be a Republican in the future, for I believe in the principles of the party, but like many Republicans throughout Pennsylvania, I was displeased with the action of the last state convention. Originally I did not favor the nomination of John P. Elkin, as I did not consider him the strongest candidate. When he went out into the field and made a fair fight and showed that the people were with him, I thought he should have been nominated.

"I am not paying much attention to politics this fall. I do not expect to make a speech. It is my intention to resign my present state position, but not for political reasons. I may serve until the first of the year, but would not for a minute consider asking for a re-appointment."

Declines to Be Pumped.

Dr. Reed avoided saying whether or not he would support Judge Pennypacker so this question was asked:

"Will you commit yourself to Pennypacker?"

"The Lord only knows. That is the best answer I can give at this time."

Dr. Reed went on the stump for William A. Stone four years ago. He was later appointed state librarian. His term will not expire until next February. Reed would like to have had the Republican nomination for governor, although he was never an active candidate. Gov. Stone is out of the city tonight.

The spellbinder addressed a good sized meeting here tonight, when the party arrived from Mechanicsburg. Mayor Vance McCormick met the nominees and there was a sort of street parade, the first red fire of the campaign being burned. B. F. Meyers presided at the gathering and the candidates and State Chairman W. T. Creasy made speeches.

There were four meetings in Cumberland county today. The spellbinders reached Shippensburg shortly after 8 o'clock. A platform had been erected in the main street and several hundred people crowded around it.

Good for the Youngsters.

The principal of the school is a Democrat, and he gave the pupils a half-holiday to help swell the crowd. Prof. Joseph Barton of the Shippensburg Normal school presided. Pattison and Guthrie made speeches, but did not introduce any new subject.

The tour through Cumberland was under the supervision of Representative Robert Meyers and E. S. Manning and a number of Cumberland county Democrats.

The second stop was at Neville, where less than 100 people were present. Ex-Representative Robert McCachran hopped on a store box and called the stragglers to order. Pattison was the first speaker. The size of the audience did not appear to discourage him, for he gave almost his full speech.

Guthrie was not so lengthy. L. F. Lybarger, a new recruit from Union county, made the closing address. He tried to make his voice carry into the adjoining township. He was out of business for the balance of the day, and Cumberland Democrats probably have something to be thankful for.

The Newville committee blamed the frost on the Presbyterians and a funeral. There was an installation of a Presbyterian preacher and a funeral in Newville this morning at the hour Pattison spoke. The residents appeared to prefer the home entertainment.

Open Door Policy.

At Carlisle business did not suspend when the Democratic special arrived. Aside from a stir about the station, there was nothing to indicate that the old town was specially aroused. The meeting was held in the court house and the room was filled. Senator W. E. Miller called the gathering to order and then surrendered the chairmanship to Adam Kellar.

Pattison told the people that if he had an opportunity to live over the eight years in the executive chair he would not change one act of that administration.

"If elected, I will do over again just what I did before."

It is questionable whether this utterance will make him votes in some parts of the state. Perhaps it was only intended for Carlisle.

Pattison attacks the enactment of the Pittsburgh ripper. On this subject Guthrie, who favored the legislation, is eloquently silent. Pattison appears to be especially displeased because the Union party convention in Philadelphia was controlled by friends of Pennypacker. In every speech he attacks the Pennypacker adherents and calls them ruffians.

Guthrie Talks of Fraud.

Guthrie devoted himself today to the last legislature, ballot reform and kindred subjects. He said at Carlisle:

"In the large cities of the commonwealth there is an illegal registration that gives the machine a reservoir fraud upon which they can draw at will on election day."

In Mr. Guthrie's home county the padding of registry lists has been usually confined to the Democratic wards.

The final meeting in Cumberland county was held in Mechanicsburg. Several hundred men and women listened to short speeches from the candidates. Pattison carried the county 12 years ago by about 1,100. The Republicans think they can give Pennypacker a plurality this year.

Tomorrow Centre Hall, the scene of Judge Pennypacker's triumph, will be visited. Orders have been sent out to make a showing.

NEW ATTRACTION IN MUSIC AT THE EXPO

Faddette's Organization Is a Novelty. The Orchestra of 50 Women Plays Very Well.

Faddette's women's orchestra began a week's engagement at the Pittsburgh exposition yesterday. It is an organization of 50 women, the majority of them young, and somebody has bestowed upon them the nom de plume "Lovely Girls'" orchestra. Some of them are Caroline B. Nichols, directress, can justly lay claim to high credit for her efforts to place womens' musical ensemble upon a plane of highest excellence. At the evening concerts the scene presented by the appearance of the 50 women in evening dress was a novel and pleasing one.

Three of the numbers on yesterday's program deserve special mention because of the clever rendition they were given. "The Little Sandman," Ellenberg, was played with daintiness and grace; the popular "Cavatina," Raff, was well played by the strings, while the "Merry Wives of Windsor" overture, with its lovely melodies, was the third number.

Mildred Rogers, the soloist, has a mezzo-soprano voice of deep quality, and was cordially received. This afternoon's programs follow:

THE GREATEST SHOW AT PITTSBURGH'S EXPOSITION

The Magnificent Exhibit of the H. J. Heinz Company.

A Work of Neatness and Beauty.

The visitor to Greater Pittsburgh's New Exposition this year is overawed with a scene unparalleled for interest, grace and beauty. The scene comprises the exhibit of the H. J. Heinz Company. It is located in the foyer of the main hall and occupies an area of 45x85 feet. Approaching it the eyes of the visitor are drawn toward the handsomely arranged displays of the famous varieties of the "fifty-seven" productions of the H. J. Heinz Company. Countless bottles and jars containing these various brands of condiments and delicacies are arranged in pyramids on the circular and semi-circular stands of the exhibit. The ceiling and walls are adorned with rich and fascinating paintings. The famous "fifty-seven varieties" are displayed on ten different stands. The center stand, which is especially noted for its artistic beauty, being erected around a gilded pillar of massive design, contains the samples of baked beans, preserves and steaming tomato soup. These are served free to all visitors. The stand to the right shows cans of baked beans. To the left are the stands bearing the catsup and tomato products. At each of these stands an efficient and most courteous set of pleasing young ladies are in constant attendance. Their duty of serving the public with samples of the luscious and appetizing productions, and explaining the various courses of preparations, is executed in a very commendable manner. To the lady of the home or the girl in her 'teens, this exhibit is most interesting and satisfying.

No matter at what period or hour of the afternoon or evening one gazes upon this exhibition of tempting viands, it cannot avoid conveying to the mind a scene actually as interesting and realistic as is ever portrayed by the busy beehive or honeycomb. Throng upon throng—circle upon circle of men, women and children, gather around the different stands, awaiting to be served with a sample dish of the delicacies which have made the H. J. Heinz Company world famous. All and each of them, with countenances virtually gleaming with joy and satisfaction, withdraw to enter upon their course of further sightseeing. The scene presented at this exhibit at times becomes overwhelmingly impressive. By way of common comparison it equals the happy, gleeful gathering of an old-time harvest home picnic. Above and over all, there hangs the vivid shade of full content, imbued with the verdure of summer's rich and golden harvest.

On the northwestern elevation of the exhibit there stands a perfect miniature model of the building in which the H. J. Heinz Company began their operations in the year 1869. This model structure is one-fifth the size of the original building, which still stands in the borough of Sharpsburg. In contrast with the gigantic plant of the present day, this miniature model tells a great story. The ladies' parlor and medal room are situated on the southerly exposure toward the left of the approach. Both of these antechambers in neatness of design are on par with the general make-up of the whole exhibit.

The ceiling, as well as the walls, which envelop the exhibit, beam with works of real art. The master hand guiding the limner's pencil has transferred thereon illustrations of charming reality. Among these are the branch houses and farm lands where many of the fifty-seven productions are put up and grown. The other illustrations show the main plant, a pickle farm, the Heinz pier at Atlantic City, the glass factory at Sharpsburg, the process of sterilizing, the Heinz blue ribbon team of draft horses, a tomato field at Muscatine, Ia., and an apple orchard in New York state. Another shows one of the salesmen visiting his trade in Cape Town, South Africa. Upon viewing these excellent paintings one cannot help to recall the lines of a famous poet:

"Ye fields where summer spreads profusion round,
Ye blending swains that dress the flowery vale,
For me your tributary stores combine,
Creation's heir, the world—the world is mine."

In short, the exhibit of the H. J. Heinz Company is an exposition in itself, and as such adds much credit to Pittsburgh's great show.

People from outside points and those wishing to peer into the closer details of every department of the greatest manufactory of its kind in the world are invited to call and be conducted through the mammoth plant of the H. J. Heinz Company, Main street, North Side, Pittsburgh.

It is to be regretted, indeed, that space does not permit a detailed description of the whole history of the H. J. Heinz Company. Such a story would surpass even the dream of Utopia. A minute outline of its various epochs must suffice here. In vivid contrast of the very humble beginning back in the year 1869 there now stands the enormous plant on the North Side, running from the railroad to the Allegheny river, covering almost two entire city blocks. In addition to this the Heinz Company has 55 branch houses and agencies located in the principal cities of population throughout the whole civilized world. An army of 406 traveling salesmen are constantly employed to talk up the quality of the famous fifty-seven in every town. Besides the main factory the company has also 10 branch factories scattered about the United States. The floor space of the main branch factories cover an area of 40 acres. The crop of vegetables derived from 20,000 acres of land is quite insufficient to maintain the capacity of all the plants. The quality of the Heinz productions is amply attested by the 54 medals awarded by the various expositions of the world. Two of these medals were received at the Paris exposition of 1900. They speak volumes for and in behalf of the celebrated H. J. Heinz Company's productions.

But how came this unbounded range of success and general prosperity? The answer is quite evident. The underlying reason of it all rested solely on the relative quality of the goods!

Two Postoffices Robbed.

ELLWOOD, PA., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The postoffices at Ellwood and Wampum were robbed early this morning of several hundred dollars' worth of stamps. The safe at both places were dynamited by three men, who escaped on a Pittsburg & Western train to Allegheny. The robbers failed to secure $900 here, which was in a steel burglar proof compartment of the safe, which they could not open.

THREE STATES SPEAK PLAINLY FOR ROOSEVELT

Connecticut, New Hampshire and Alabama Urge His Renomination.

TROUBLE STARTED AT BIRMINGHAM

Opposition Endeavored to Stop the Indorsement of the President, but When Put to a Vote the Substitute Was Downed.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 17.—Abram Chamberlain of Meriden, the present state comptroller, was today nominated by the Connecticut Republican convention as candidate for governor to succeed Gov. George P. McLain, who, on account of ill-health, had declined to be a candidate for another term. Resolutions indorsing the administration of President Roosevelt and favoring his nomination for the presidency in 1904 was adopted:

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 17.—Following the action of the party in Vermont, the Republicans of New Hampshire, in state convention today, warmly debated the question of making changes in the prohibitory law. Those in favor of a change carried the day. The contest for governor was won by Nahum J. Batchelder of Andover, who is prominently identified with the Patrons of Husbandry. The platform adopted indorses the administration on all points and favors the renomination of President Roosevelt. Illegal combines are condemned and one plank opposes the indiscriminate destruction of forests.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Sept. 17.—The Republicans of Alabama today nominated the following ticket: Governor, J. A. W. Smith of Birmingham; lieutenant-governor, Charles P. Lane of Huntsville; attorney general, W. H. Armbrocht of Mobile; secretary of state, J. H. Carter of Cullman; auditor, T. B. McNair of Marshall county; treasurer, H. Lee Brown of Conuef county; superintendent of education, J. C. Fonville of Crenshaw county; commissioner of agriculture, T. B. Morton of Fayette.

J. A. W. Smith, the nominee for governor, is a son of the late Hon. V. N. Smith, who was Republican governor of Alabama during the reconstruction period, and is a prominent lawyer of this city.

The platform indorses the wisdom of the Dingley tariff law and urges a continuance of that policy. Republican legislation to build an interoceanic canal is approved. The platform then expresses confidence in the administration of President Roosevelt and says:

> We express our faith in his thoroughly American and patriotic ideas, and we believe that his leadership establishes confidence both in the success of the Republican principles and the continued prosperity and progress of the country, and we, therefore, favor his renomination to the great office he fills with patriotism and ability.

After the reading of the platform J. A. W. Smith of Birmingham offered a substitute, the same as the original report except that it omitted all reference to an indorsement of President Roosevelt for renomination. The substitute was vigorously debated and the convention was thrown into turmoil. Some of the speakers upheld the substitute, declaring that it was too early to speak out on the campaign of 1904, while others charged that an effort was being made to knife the Republican president. Finally the roll was called and the substitute was defeated, 158 to 146.

MOVE FOR ARBITRATION.

State Convention of Junior Order Appoints Committee to Settle Differences in Organization.

The state convention of the Junior Order United American Mechanics ended at 5 p. m. yesterday and the convention adjourned to meet in Bethlehem, Pa., on the second Tuesday in September next.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the installation of officers. Deputy State Councillor Robert Ogle of Baltimore, conducted the installation ceremony.

An arbitration committee was appointed, to which will be referred all differences that may arise, in or out of the order, affecting mechanics. The committee is composed of men high in the order and in state affairs. Ex-State Senator Perry A. Gibson of Erie is its chairman, the other members being Cyrus S. Weiss of Wilksbarre, George C. Sndyer and A. M. De Haven of Philadelphia and George M. Huber of Lancaster.

There was a spirited contest for national representatives from the middle and western districts. For the other officers little interest was manifested. The ballot resulted as follows:

State councilor, John C. Bash of No. 62; state vice councilor, George W. Arnold of No. 6; state council secretary, Edward S. Deemer of No. 35; state council treasurer, John W. Calver of No. 3; national representatives, eastern district, Alexander M. De Haven of No. 866; Doran Green of No. 21, Stanley O'Large of No. 86; middle district, Marvin T. Tuthill of No. 1022, John Rhodes of No. 746; western district, George A. Bauer of No. 157, Robert J. McKean of No. 79.

PRESIDENT BUSY ON HIS SPEECHES

NOW PREPARING FOR TRIP TO NORTHWEST.

More Secret Service Men Will Be With Him for His Protection. Gen. Wheeler Takes Lunch.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Sept. 17.—President Roosevelt is busy with preparations for his trip to the northwest, which begins on Friday, and up to midnight tonight he was dictating speeches to William Loeb, Jr., his assistant secretary.

Senator Hanna, it is said, yesterday cautioned the president to be careful of himself on the journey, and as a consequence more secret service men than usual have already left Oyster Bay and Washington to go over the route the president intends to take.

President Roosevelt has expressed his annoyance over the stand taken by D. B. Henderson, speaker of the house of representatives, in declining to accept a renomination. He considers that the speaker's action was uncalled for and unreasonable. Leslie Shaw, secretary of the treasury, it is rumored, had known for some time that Speaker Henderson intended to withdraw, but had given no intimation of his knowledge to the president.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler had luncheon at Sagamore Hill today.

Gen. Wheeler recently returned from France, where he witnessed the maneuvers of the French army. He was very much impressed with the French cavalry, and says that without doubt the French artillery is the best in the world—better even than our own.

Congressman Pearre of Maryland called on the president today. He declined to state the object of his visit.

The Rev. Lyman Abbott of New York and Prof. J. W. Jenks of Cornell university will be the president's guests at luncheon tomorrow. Prof. Jenks was commissioned by the industrial commission to travel in Europe and make a study of the trust question. He also studied economic conditions in the Philippines.

Mr. Kelly Still Improves.

STOCKBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The condition of George A. Kelly was very encouraging. After a restful night, he appeared brighter than usual. It was the best day he has had during his illness.

AMERICA FILES STRONG PROTEST ON JEW BAITING

Roumania Is Forcing Thousands of Immigrants Into the United States.

POWERS OF EUROPE HELD RESPONSIBLE

Treaty of Berlin Following the Turko-Russian War Guarantees Equal Rights to All—Appeal for Justice Made.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17.—With the double purpose of protecting the long suffering Jews of the Balkan states and of averting the very present peril of the immigration into the United States of a horde of paupers, Secretary Hay has adopted the unusual course of appealing to the powers of Europe to force one of their children to observe the obligations of humanity in case of the Jews. The appeal takes the form of a state paper, remarkable in several respects, which has been dispatched in identical form to every ambassador and minister of the United States residing in one of the countries of Europe which were parties to the famous treaty at Berlin of 1878, namely, Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, Italy, Austria and Turkey, marking the termination of the Turko-Russian war and the creation by the direct act of the powers of the independent Balkan states.

Because the powers are thus responsible for the existence of Roumania, the culprit in this case, the secretary of state has directed the note to them in the hope that they will bring this government to a sense of its duties toward civilization at large as well as to cause it to ameliorate the frightful condition of the Roumanian Jews. In the course of the document Secretary Hay says:

Welcomes Voluntary Immigration.

The United States welcomes now, as it has welcomed from the foundation of its government the voluntary immigration of all aliens coming hither under conditions fitting them to become merged in the body politic of this land. Our laws provide the means for them to become incorporated indistinguishably in the mass of citizens, and prescribe their absolute equality with the native born, guaranteeing to them equal civil rights at home and equal protection abroad. The conditions are few, looking to their coming as free agents, so circumstanced physically and morally as to supply the healthful and intelligent material of free citizenhood. The voluntary character of their coming is essential, hence we shut out all immigration assisted or constrained by foreign agencies. The purpose of our generous treatment of the alien immigrant is to benefit us and him alike—not to afford to another state a field upon which to cast its own objectionable elements.

The condition of a large class of the inhabitants of Roumania has for many years been a source of grave concern to the United States. I refer to the Roumanian Jews, numbering some 400,000. Long ago, while the Danubian principalities labored under oppressive conditions which only war and a general action of the European powers sufficed to end, the persecution of the indigenous Jews under Turkish rule called forth in 1872 the strong remonstrance of the United States.

Berlin Treaty Is Ignored.

The treaty of Berlin was hailed as a cure for the wrong, in view of the express provisions of its forty-fourth article, prescribing that "In Roumania the difference of religious creeds and confessions shall not be alleged against any person as a ground for exclusion or incapacity in matters relating to the enjoyment of civil and political rights, admission to public employments, functions and honors, or the exercise of the various professions and industries in any locality whatsoever," and stipulating freedom in the exercise of all forms of worship to Roumanian dependents and foreigners alike, as well as guaranteeing that all foreigners in Roumania shall be treated, without distinction of creed, on a footing of perfect equality.

With the lapse of time these just prescriptions have been rendered nugatory in great part, as regards the native Jews, by the legislation and municipal regulations of Roumania. The political disabilities of the Jews in Roumania, their exclusion from the public service and the learned professions, the limitations of their civil rights and the imposition upon them of exceptional taxes, involving as they do wrongs repugnant to the moral sense of liberal modern peoples, are not so directly in point for my present purpose as the public acts which attack the inherent rights of man as a breadwinner in the ways of agriculture and trade. The Jews are prohibited from owning land, or even from cultivating it as common laborers.

Forced Into the Cities.

They are debarred from residing in the rural districts. Many branches of petty trade and manual production are closed to them in the overcrowded cities, where they are forced to dwell and engage, against fearful odds, in the desperate struggle for existence. Even as ordinary artisans or hired laborers they may only find employment in the proportion of one "unprotected alien" to two "Roumanians" under any one employer. In short, by the cumulative effect of successive restrictions, the Jews of Roumania have become reduced to a state of wretched misery.

Human beings so circumstanced have virtually no alternative but submissive suffering or flight to some land less unfavorable to them. Removal under such conditions is not and cannot be the healthy, intelligent emigration of a free and self-reliant being. It must be, in most cases, the mere transplantation of an artificially produced diseased growth to a new place.

The teachings of history and the experience of our own nation show that the Jews possess in a high degree the mental and moral qualifications of conscientious citizenhood. No class of immigrants is more welcome to our shores, when coming equipped in mind and body for entrance upon the struggle for bread, and inspired with the high purpose to give the best service of heart and brain to the land they adopt of their own free will. But when they come as outcasts, made doubly paupers by physical and moral oppression in their native land, and thrown upon the long suffering generosity of a more favored community, their migration lacks the essential conditions which make alien immigration either acceptable or beneficial.

America Their Only Goal.

So well is this appreciated on the continent that, even in the countries where anti-Semitism has no foothold, it is difficult for these fleeing Jews to obtain any lodgment. America is their only goal.

The right of remonstrance against the acts of the Roumanian government is clearly established in favor of this government. Whether consciously and of purpose or not, these helpless people, burdened and spurned by their native land, are forced by the sovereign power of Roumania upon the charity of the United States. This government cannot be a tacit party to such an international wrong. It is constrained to protest against the treatment to which the Jews of Roumania are subjected, not alone because it has unimpeachable ground to remonstrate against the resultant injury to itself, but in the name of humanity. The United States may not authoritatively appeal to the stipulations of the treaty of Berlin, to which it was not and cannot become a signatory, but it does earnestly appeal to the principles consigned therein, because they are the principles of international law and eternal justice, advocating the broad toleration which that solemn compact enjoins and standing ready to lend its moral support to the fulfillment thereof by its co-signatories, for the act of Roumania itself has effectively joined the United States to them as an interested party in this regard.

MOTION IS DENIED.

Northern Pacific Attorneys Cannot See Books of H. Content & Co.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Judge Lacombe in the United States circuit court today denied the motion made by attorneys representing the Northern Pacific Railway Company in the action brought by Peter Power, for an order granting them the right to inspect the books of H. Content & Co., the brokers of Camille Weidenfeld.

In the examinations before Special Examiner Mabey it was sworn to by several witnesses that Content & Co. were the brokers who purchased the 100 shares of Northern Pacific stock upon which Lawyer Lamb swore Peter Power qualified as a stockholder.

ANDERSON WON OPEN GOLF PLAY

MADE FAST SCORE OF 299 FOR 76 HOLES.

Now Western as Well as National Champion—Edgewood Forfeited to Pittsburgh.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 17.—Willie Anderson of Pittsfield, Mass., won the western open golf championship on the links of the Euclid Golf club today. He is the present national champion. He played the greatest golf ever seen in this vicinity. He made a score of 299 for the 76 holes on a 6,000-yard course. The record is likely to stand for some time. Willie Smith of Chicago and W. H. Way of Cleveland were tied for second place with a score of 304. Way lost the second place by a bad putt on the 18th green. Anderson wins $150; $175 is divided between Way and Smith. Gardner gets $50 and Auchterlonie $25. Boardman, the leading amateur, receives a silver medal.

Could Not Get Team Together.

The Edgewood Golf club team forfeited its schedule match of the Western Pennsylvania championship competition to the Pittsburgh Golf club yesterday by a score of 36 to 0. It was impossible for Edgewood to get a team together, and on account of Pittsburgh's heavy fall schedule, the contest could not be postponed. F. X. Barr, J. D. Duff and G. W. Wurzell of the Edgewood team are all out of the city while two of the other members could not be present on account of business.

The Louis T. Brown golf trophy, one of the handsomest cups played for during the present season, is now the property of W. G. Carr, according to the decision of the greens committee of the Country club. A total of seven points was necessary to take the cup and with a first place and second to his credit Carr had a total of five previous to his trying in the last contest with George Buchan, for first.

Record Was Imperfect.

As second counts for two he was sure of the cup, but his second place score of earlier in the season had not been recorded properly. The decision of the committee now gives him the cup. G. P. Elkins was a close second with a total of six points.

A handsome new cup has now been offered by Wilbur Schenk and will be played for the first time on Saturday. Three points are the score for each first two for second and one for third, but the highest total for six contests will take the cup. In addition to this play on Saturday there will be the final contest for the A. M. Jenkinson cup qualified for last Saturday and a golf ball sweepstake with entrance fee of two balls. The semifinal matches for the Jenkinson cup are to be played for today and Friday. In the first round concluded yesterday L. C. Phipps defeated C. O. Holmes by one up; J. M. Jenkinson defeated J. G. Anderson, 3 up and 2 to play. J. N. Anderson won from H. A. Marlin by 3 up and 2 to play and D. McK. Lloyd defeated Nelson Young 4 up and 2 to play.

LARKIN INVITED TO INSPECT RESERVOIR

Says He Was Refused Pivilege Once and Work He Wanted to See Is Covered Up.

Controller John B. Larkin will be invited by Director J. Guy McCandless to inspect the bottom of Highland reservoir No. 2 before the water is turned in on September 27. Director McCandless says he will be glad to have the controller make any inspection he sees fit. Controller Larkin says he has no desire to make any such inspection now. He desired to make an inspection at one time and it was refused. He says that the court can settle the matter now.

Director McCandless was asked yesterday whether he would extend this courtesy to the controller. "I shall certainly invite the controller to make an inspection," said Director McCandless. "He is welcome to make any inspection himself that he sees fit, or he can make one through his engineers. I do not care which one he makes, as I am confident that the reservoir now will stand any test."

"I do not care anything about making an inspection now," said Controller Larkin yesterday, after being informed that he would be invited. "I desired to make an inspection at one time, but I do not care anything about it now. At that time my engineer was denied admittance. The work I wished to inspect at that time has been covered up by this time. The court has the question now, and we will let it rest there."

The bottom of the reservoir is now completed, and water can be turned on at any time that is desired. Director McCandless several days ago fixed September 27 as the date for an inspection by city officials and members of councils.

Work on the upper slopes will go on until November, when it is believed that the entire reservoir will be completed. The contractors on the work are Keeling & Ridge, who are finishing the contract for the Mercantile Trust Company, bondsmen for the Jonathan Clark's Sons Company, who threw up the contract and sued the city. The contract was let in 1897, and it was to have been finished in one year. Practically all the work has been done during the past nine months.

WAGE SETTLEMENT IS EXPECTED TODAY

Window Glass Workers Prepare Scale Dissolution of Indepenedent Co. Simplifies Situation.

Labor circles were very much interested yesterday in the statement that the Independent Glass Company had been dissolved. This organization was known as the disturbing element in the window glass trade during the last fire. Its affairs will now be wound up and the offices in the Empire building will be abandoned within a short time.

Now that the Independent Glass Company has become defunct the market will be controlled by the American Federation combines during the present fire. If the independents on the outside attempt to cut prices the American Window Glass Company, which holds the balance of trade, will undercut them and still have a fair profit, as it now controls the market.

The wage committee of the old organization of workers, of which Simon Burns is president, met yesterday at the headquarters in the Fidelity, Title and Trust building in Fourth avenue. The committee was trying to complete the new scale. It is thought that an advance of about 10 per cent will be asked. The committee will hold a conference with the representatives of the American Federation companies this morning, when it is expected that a satisfactory settlement will be made.

PENROSE NAMES A BRILLIANT MAN TO SPEAK FOR HIM

Philadelphia Senator Is Unable to Keep His Pittsburgh Engagement.

CHARLES EMORY SMITH TAKES HIS PLACE

Long List of Vice Presidents Named for Tomorrow Evening's Mass Meeting—The Coming of Pattison.

Senator Boies Penrose will not be able to speak at the big Republican mass meeting to be held at Old City hall tomorrow night, but the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, the former postmaster general, will appear in his place and deliver a speech. It was only yesterday that Senator Penrose found it would be impossible for him to keep his Pittsburgh engagement, and he at once concluded arrangements with Mr. Smith to speak in his place. As all Republicans know, the ex-postmaster general is one of the most brilliant, forceful orators the Republican party has, and a treat is assured all who are fortunate enough to hear him tomorrow evening.

Great List of Vice Presidents.

County Chairman Andrew C. Robertson yesterday gave out a typewritten list of prominent Pittsburghers named by him as vice presidents of the meeting. Mr. Robertson said there were 2,100 names on the list, and that it had taken a stenographer and another man to call off the names, two days to prepare it. The vice presidents alone will fill Old City hall if they should happen to be present, and as for putting them on the stage, that will be out of the question. Chairman Robertson says he is not responsible for the idea that bore this fruitage of more than 2,000 names, and nobody could learn who deserved the "credit" of thinking it out.

An order has been issued by M. G. Leslie, major of the Americus Republican club, directing the members to assemble at the club house, Penn avenue and Fourth street, tomorrow evening at 7:15 o'clock to act as escort for the Republican candidates and speakers. It is announced that this will probably be the only parade the club will make during the campaign.

Speakers at the Fusion Meeting.

Final preparations for the opening mass meeting of the Fusionists, to be held in Old City hall Saturday evening, were completed yesterday at a joint meeting of the committees on meetings, speakers and organization, held at the Citizens party's headquarters in Third avenue.

Chairman Charles S. Crawford of the committee on speaks announced the names of the following as the speakers at the meeting: City Controller John B. Larkin, Select Councilman R. H. Douglas, Attorney William B. Rodgers, Attorney William J. Brennen and the congressional candidates, George Shiras III., James W. Brown and H. Kirke Porter. The Welsh singers from the anthracite coal regions will sing campaign songs.

The Citizens party's headquarters in the Fourteenth ward will be formally opened tonight with a reception to the candidates. W. J. Moore is the chairman and D. A. Jones is the secretary. The headquarters at No. 3804 Forbes street will be open day and night during the campaign.

A meeting will be held tonight at the Schiller Glocke hall, at South Twenty-sixth and Jane streets, at which several Fusion candidates will make speeches.

The Citizens party's headquarters in the Nineteenth ward, in Penn avenue, near Highland avenue, will be opened tomorrow night with a reception to the candidates.

The campaign for the Fusion ticket will be opened in the Lawrenceville district at Keen's auditorium, in Butler street, tomorrow night. A male quartet and a glee club will furnish the music. H. Kirke Porter, George H. Stengel, J. J. Miller, John B. Yellig and W. U. Willett will speak.

Democrats Arranging for Pattison.

The Democratic county organization yesterday began the making of preparations for a meeting on Saturday, September 27, at Old City hall, when R. E. Pattison and George W. Guthrie, the Democratic candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, will speak. The special committee appointed to take care of the meeting is composed of T. B. Alcorn, chairman of the county committee; S. J. Graham, chairman of the campaign committee, and J. E. O'Donnell, chairman of the committee on meetings and speakers. The three committeemen partly agreed on a list of committees on reception, escort and other sub-committees, but made no names public. The list will be laid before the committee on meetings and speakers, which will meet at the Democratic headquarters at 3 p. m. today.

It is probable that only one local speaker, possibly one of the Democratic candidates on the Fusion county ticket, will speak, besides Messrs. Pattison and Guthrie. Mr. Pattison usually speaks nearly an hour and a half, and as the local Democrats want to listen to Mr. Guthrie for at least three-quarters of an hour, there will not be much time for other speakers.

Quay Appoints Conferees.

Senator Quay, as chairman of the Republican state committee, yesterday appointed two additional conferees in the contest in the Fortieth senatorial district, composed of Fayette and Greene counties. They are S. M. Graham of Fayette and R. F. Downey of Greene. The candidates are Capt. J. P. Teagarden of Greene and W. E. Crow of Fayette. If the eight conferees fail to agree today Senator Quay will appoint an umpire or referee, who will have the casting vote.

It is probable that the two candidates will not allow the deadlock to continue long enough to require the services of the umpire. Capt. Teagarden and Mr. Crow were both in Pittsburgh on the day the congressional deadlock in the Twenty-third district was dissolved by the nomination of A. F. Cooper of Fayette county. Teagarden and Crow are said to have agreed that a nomination shall be made to day, so that the conferees of one or the other must give way. If Crow should be selected, then Greene county will have emerged from the senatorial and congressional contest without a successful candidate.

Consuelo Sails for England.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The duchess of Marlborough sailed for England on the steamship Teutonic today.

A genuine amazing surprise! This was the general verdict on the superb playing yesterday of the "Lovely Girls" at the New Exposition. This is a high class orchestra, mark that!

Brilliant Mamie Reuck-Wilczek and her co-violinists produce the most crystalline and beautiful tones imaginable. Hear them at the New Exposition tonight, but come early for a seat.

STENOGRAPHERS TO RENT RESTAURANT

TALK OF EATING HOUSE ON CO-OPERATIVE PLAN.

Women Say That They Cannot Get a Decent Meal Cheaply. Frick Building Suggested.

One of the most unique schemes yet broached in this city is that of the women stenographers now in course of formation. They propose to start a restaurant on the co-operative plan and many of them have already taken stock in the venture.

The scheme was first proposed by Miss M. Magee, who has an office in the Kuhn law building in Diamond stret. She has talked the matter over with a number of her co-workers and they have agreed that such a restaurant is one of the needs of the city. If they can get quarters in the Frick building, a first class restaurant will be opened, exclusively for the women stenographers of this city.

"It is rather early to say thinything about our plans," said Miss Magee yesterday. "We have simply talked the matter over, and will arrange for an organization later. I had hoped that this would not get into the newspapers until all our arrangements were completed. It is almost impossible to get a decent meal in any of the restaurants or eating houses of this city, and I have been carrying my lunch, as have many others of us, and munching it in our offices. After it has been packed for hours it is cold and hard and not palatable.

"I really cannot say just what the result of our attempt to organize will be. We expect to open a restaurant on the co-operative plan, and if we can secure a suitable place in the Frick building may launch our scheme there. The restaurant will be exclusively for women stenographers and typewriters, and no dish will cost more than 5 cents. There are about 5,000 stenographers and typewriters in the city, of whom about 100 are professionals. I think the majority of them will fall in with our plans and that the organization will be successful."

It is understood that many of the professional stenographers of the city have already subscribed to the stock of the proposed new concern. They say that a decent meal can not be procured now at reasonable rates in Pittsburgh, and that if such a restaurant is opened the service will be exactly what they have long wanted.

These surely are the "Weeping Strings!" You will say this once you hear the superb violins of the "Lovely Girls" now playing at the New Exposition.

Weather--Showers. JOSEPH HORNE CO. Thursday, Sept. 18, 1902.

The freedom of the store is offered excursionists today. And this freedom is only another way of asking you to come and get the most enjoyment you can from viewing the maze of new things ready for Autumn.

The Opening Days for New Millinery are opportune for the thousands of feminine visitors that will be in town to-day—many of them extending their visit through the week.

Beautiful fancies in Hats and Toques from Paris are on exhibit, as well as the best efforts of our own milliners.

The first view was had yesterday, and the rest of this week will be sight-seeing time in the Millinery department.

Let the girls and boys come, too. Lots of new ideas they will like.

New and Effective Curtain Stuffs from Abroad.

We have just taken from the Custom House some fine high-grade Scotch Madras —in pure white and ecru--finest of materials for curtains.

Two widths, 52 and 70 inches, and both match.

52 inch, 50c and 75c a yard.

70 inch, 60c, 75c and 95c a yard.

Another fine stuff, in the same importation, is French Etamine. Three exclusive patterns, very, very stylish. And it is such a splendid wearing material.

42 inches wide, 70c a yard.

For the windows, the always popular Nottingham Curtains in new assortments. Some very effective all-over patterns that you are sure to like.

$3.50, $4, $5, $6, $7 and $8 a pair.

For Pillow Covers, the Fourth Floor Curtain and Drapery Department, where the above new things are to be found, has some new ideas in Scandinavian pieces and French Mouchoir Squares, which are quite the handsomest squares we have seen for a long while, 30c each.

New Things in the Jewelry Department.

Among the multiplicity of pretty things collected by us in Europe this Summer is a collection of Real Dutch Silver.

There are articles for the curio cabinet, the toilet table and the writing desk, and each piece is a novelty wrought out of pure silver by hand. No two alike—no duplicates to be had.

$2 to $37.50 each.

Other new things just over from Europe are

Real gun metal Chains, very plain, 30 inches long, for $1 each.

Real gun metal Chains, 30 inches long, set with faceted crystals, for $1.50 each.

A year ago they were just double this price.

Empire Bric-a-Brac.

In mentioning this new novelty we must tell you it is on sale in the Silverware Department, main floor.

The ware consists of glass pieces richly ornamented with bronze mountings in style of the Empire, exact reproductions of the time of Napoleon I.

Such elegant novelties as Handkerchief Boxes, Glove Boxes and Jewel Cases.

Ladies' Umbrellas, $1.75.

A fine special for ladies. The umbrellas are of the grade that sells always for $2.50.

No matter how we got these to sell for $1.75. We have two hundred of them, and that's the price you can buy them for.

26-inch best Gloria, natural wood handles trimmed with sterling silver.

And that is not all. Along with the lot we got some Umbrellas with those popular Dresden ivory and pearl handles.

Take which pleases your fancy most for $1.75 each.

Paris Fans for Wedding Gifts

The point is that no two fans are alike. Each year in Paris we personally select our stock, and we never accept duplicates.

The Pittsburg Custom House has just delivered to us our collection for the season of 1902-3, and we can say as a whole it is the most beautiful exhibit we have ever made—copies of old antiques with exquisitely carved sticks in ivory and bone, mounted with kid, parchment and silk, and painted by artists of reputation.

And there are exquisite Fans of real lace, and in spangled effects, works of art, mounted on shell, horn, pearl, ivory and bone sticks.

These fine Fans range in price from $10 up to $100.00.

All our fine Fans are delivered in handsome satin-lined boxes, covered with silk tapestry, for which there is no charge.

Of course we have an equally strong line of cheaper Fans, exclusive styles not to be found elsewhere. The price range is from $1 to $10.

Some Bargains in Oriental Rugs.

Today we will put on sale a lot of Guendjeh Persian Rugs, for the remarkable price mentioned below:

7 feet 2 inches by 6 feet 1 inch—worth $42......
8 feet 9 inches by 6 feet 2 inches—worth $42....
7 feet 9 inches by 6 feet 2 inches—worth $39....
7 feet 9 inches by 5 feet 2 inches—worth $39....
7 feet 3 inches by 5 feet 5 inches—worth $38....
8 feet 2 inches by 5 feet 7 inches—worth $39....

Selection at $25

There are just 33 of these Oriental beauties, and among them are pretty greens and blues. We may say that such sizes are not picked up every day.

Inexperienced dealers call these rugs Kazaks, but we call them what they are—Guendjehs. Very few can distinguish them from Kazaks, but we will take pleasure in explaining the difference.

And we herewith announce another line of Oriental Rugs for an under price—50 PERSIAN MOSSOUL RUGS, small all-over effects, nice luster and finish, very silky —a splendid rug for the hall. Some are long enough to be used as runners.

Sizes average as follows, and the round price will be—

10 feet 2 inches by 4 feet
9 feet 10 inches by 4 feet 9 inches..............
9 feet 9 inches by 3 feet 11 inches..............
9 feet 11 inches by 3 feet 11 inches..............
8 feet 8 inches by 3 feet 4 inches..............
9 feet 2 inches by 3 feet 8 inches..............

Worth from $35 to $45, Choose at $22 each.

The Handsome Black Robes of Net.

Silk lace net, at that.

We are charging for them only $22.50, although they would readily sell for $35.

But we have so often told you that this is a store of less prices that we choose to further emphasize this fact by naming a close price for the new robes.

Some pretty and effective appliqued designs are used to embellish the robes.

School Clothes for Boys.

We wouldn't give a fig for the school boy who isn't up to all manner of innocent jokes, and ready for any kind of sport calculated to knock out his breeches in a hurry.

But we have a suit, the trousers of which will stand many a hard knock before he can get them in tatters.

It's the most deceptive suit the boy ever tackled. One of those clean-cut suits that look so nice and neat, and yet for all the world just like some delicate looking boys you meet with—any amount of strength when it becomes necessary.

It is our favorite special suit—double-breasted—and sells for $5.

It comes in many patterns of solid colors of cheviot, and in solid colors, fancy stripes and mixtures of Scotch tweeds. To make the trousers stand the wear and tear of boyish sports the seat and knees are doubled.

From $6 to $12.50 we have hundreds of new Fall Suits, knee-pant style, with 2-button double-breasted, 3-button double-breasted, Norfolk and single-breasted Coats, with vests. Every boyish material.

SPECIAL—We have 25 light weight Overcoats for little boys—3 to 7. Blue, tan, red and gray. The former prices were $5, $6 and $7. Will sell them for $3 each.

We also have a lot of boys' Coats and Vests for 14 and 15 years. They are from suits that sold for $6. Dark mixed cheviot. We'll take $2.50 each for them.

Women's Finest Underwear.

The finest ribbed underwear that women can buy comes from Switzerland.

We carry complete lines of seasonable weights always.

Our new lines are ready, and women will find Swiss Ribbed Corset Covers, Drawers and Union Suits of silk, cotton, wool or any mixture with wool.

There are the finest, as well as the medium grades of low-necked Vests trimmed with the duchesse yoke, or with such laces as Irish, Valenciennes, Cluny and Torchon.

Then we have those fine Italian Silk Vests finished with silk embroidery or with lace edge.

This fine Swiss Underwear is not so expensive as some women imagine. To be sure, if a woman feels like paying $25 for a Vest, we have that kind, but in the main prices are exceptionally low considering quality.

Vests are priced from $1.50 to $25.

Drawers from $1.50 to $7.

Corset Covers from 65c to $3.50.

Union Suits, $2.50 to $12.50.

And the good Underwear made in this country is here in just as full variety. Vests 35c to $1.50. Drawers, 50c to $1.50.

New Hat Veils.

Don't go to the Millinery Department for them—they are in the section of the main floor where veilings and face veils are sold.

Made of chiffon, neatly hemstitched, with pretty contrasting chenille dots overspreading the surface. All colors.

Besides, there are plain chiffon Hat Veils with hemstitched edge.

Either kind is one and one-fourth yards long and sells for 50c.

Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs 5c.

Once more for fear you doubt your eyes —Pure Irish Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs—one-fourth inch hems—for 5c each. Six thousand to sell at that price.

And here is something just as remarkable: Just received from Belfast a lot of Women's Pure Irish Linen Handkerchiefs, on which in open work are neat hand-embroidered initials. We say for them 12½c each, although the cloth alone is worth that much.

Black Chantilly Lace.

As handsome garnituring lace as the most particular woman could desire.

We have a new lot selling for 10c, 15c and 20c a yard.

Another demonstration of the less prices of this store. They are worth 25c to 50c.

FINEST TROLLEY CARS EVER BUILT ARE TO BE USED

WILL HELP RELIEVE THE CONGESTION

Some Features That Are Great Improvements—Annual Meeting of the Trolley Employes' Relief Association Held.

With a party of officials on board who desired to test it on different divisions where the grades are steep and the curves sharp, the first of the 100 new long box cars ordered by the Pittsburgh Railways Company last winter was run over down-town streets yesterday. These new cars are four feet longer than the present long box cars which were built for the Southern Traction Company.

The new type of car is not only the longest ever seen in Pittsburgh, but it is the finest car ever built for regular passenger traffic. Nineteen of the cars have arrived at Homewood. They will be put into service as soon as trucks and motors have been received. The car run out yesterday had trucks and motors belonging to a Southern Traction car.

The new trucks and motors are expected to arrive this week and the new cars will be put into service before October 1. The cars are 43 feet long, and will comfortably seat 44 people. The standard Consolidated car seats 28. New cars have double doors and folding vestibule doors on the sides of the cabs. The platforms are long and roomy and allow quick and easy access or exit. Each car will have the quadruple equipment—four 50 horse power motors.

Will Help Relieve Congestion.

The cars are painted the standard color, dark red. The destination sign instead of being on the roof, will be just above the center window of the motorman's cab. Behind it will be two incandescent lamps for illumination at night. The new cars will go a great way to relieve the street car congestion on certain lines.

All the old "rattle-trap" cars, like the yellow cars on the Millvale route, and the old-timers on the Hill Top division are being taken off as fast as possible and replaced by rebuilt standard cars of a uniform size, color and equipment. Those that cannot be sold are being wrecked and destroyed. All the yellow cars on the Monongahela division are being repainted the uniform color. During the summer the Homewood shops worked day and night repairing and repainting all the box or closed cars that are now taking the places of open cars. With the 100 new long cars and all the rebuilt equipment the trolley officials hope to handle the constantly increasing traffic this winter better than ever before.

The board of managers of the Consolidated Traction Company Employes' Relief association will give its fifth annual trolley party tonight. President J. D. Callery has given the men the use of the private cars, Pittsburgh and Duquesne. The men and their guests, who comprise the officials of the company, will leave the Homewood barn at 7 o'clock. An informal meeting of the members of the relief committees and their guests will be held after the trolley ride at the East End hotel, Penn and Putnam streets.

Relief Association Officials.

At the 11th annual meeting of the association last night, the following were elected officers:

President, W. J. Lees; vice president, John Murphy; secretary, William G. Gish; treasurer, C. J. Braun, Jr.; representatives from general offices, S. L. Tone, C. S. Mitchell, George W. Allen. The following relief committees were appointed: Troy Hill depot, A. Eber, J. M. Harris, M. R. McQuaide; Oakland depot, L. Carnahan, William Feldman, J. E. Collier, R. L. Ingram; Homewood depot, R. C. Wurmb, J. Steeb, Jr., W. E. Myers, E. H. Dibert, S. V. Reeves, W. H. Billings, U. S. G. Steele, F. J. Denman, L. J. Selzer; Homewood shops, David Emerich; Highland depot, H. F. McCaslin, S. J. Peoples, Joseph Shea, G. A. Richenmiller, W. A. Sepp, Daniel Mahoney, William McCoskey; Herron avenue depot, J. B. Galbreath, W. B. Ewing, Gus Oinhausen, J. J. Thorpe; Twentieth street power station, Daniel Berry; Butler street depot, W. H. Emerich, P. W. Judge, Bartley Stack, J. M. Loftus and J. L. Sauers.

Secretary Gish of the association reported that $11,964 had been paid out in sick benefits during the past eight months, and $2,100 to members' families in death benefits. There was an increase in sick and death benefits amounting to $57 67 per day. Since the inception of the association is has paid to members $68,646 25 as sick benefits and $13,387 50 to members' families as death benefits. The total benefits paid to date is $82,033 75. Treasurer Braun reported an available balance of $6,940 63.

M. J. Clarke of the claim department yesterday received from M. K. McMullin the one share of stock of the Philadelphia Company, given as a prize to the employe having the largest family at the recent outing of employes. Mr. Clark was there with 12.

MISSIONARIES IN DANGER.

Unable to Leave Their Buildings Except Under Military Escort. Boxers Kill Converts.

PEKING, Sept. 17.—United States Minister Conger has presented to the Chinese foreign office a letter from Dr. Canright, the American missionary of Cheng-Tu-Fu, describing the massacre of native Christians there in July. Dr. Cantright says that 11 converts were killed by Boxers and that the local officials refused to take measures against the Boxers.

The missionaries were then guarded by troops and were unable to leave the mission buildings except when escorted by soldiers.

Dr. Canright's recent telegrams say the situation is worse. The native papers declare the trouble is due to the collection of excessive indemnities for Christians on account of troubles of 1900 and owing to the Christians' arrogant attitude under foreign protection.

"Since Early Womanhood I was Fretful, Nervous and Irritable —— Pe-ru-na Made Me Well."

Pe-ru-na Makes Healthy, Happy Women.

MISS HATTIE GRACE, 234 W. Forty-sixth street, N. Y., writes: "Peruna has changed me from a fretful, irritable, nervous woman into a healthy and a happy one. Nothing seems to worry and fret me any more. Since early womanhood I suffered with bearing-down pains and nervousness.

I was thin and worried, but Peruna restored me. Those who knew me before cannot understand the change, but I can sum it up in the blessed word, Peruna."—Hattie Grace.

Nervousness is a vague term which covers all of those ailments which result from a bloodless condition of the nerve centers. Systemic catarrh is very frequently the cause of this condition. Mucous membrane in the body is slightly dranged by systemic catarrh. This leads to a complete demoralization of the digestive and assimilative organs, and a bloodless condition of the nerve centers ensue. Nervousness is the result; fretfulness, irritability, worry, complaining—all of these mental conditions result from starved nerve centers.

The only cure is to remove the catarrhal condition of the mucous membrane. Peruna is the remedy that will do this. Peruna is not a nervine nor a quieting medicine. Peruna cures just the condition—catarrh.

Peruna cures catarrh of the internal organs, and the nervousness disappears. The more nervines one takes for nervousness the more nervous he is. There is always a cause for nervousness. This cause should be discovered and remedied. Nervines are unnecessary. Peruna has cured more cases of nervousness than any other medicine in existence, simply because it cures the conditions upon which nervousness depends.

A Letter From a U. S. Senator's Wife:

Mrs. Verona E. Roach, wife of Senator Roach of North Dakota, writes from Larimore, N. D.:

"I can cheerfully recommend your excellent remedy, Peruna. Indeed I know of no other remedy as good as yours. It is a grand tonic."—Verona E. Roach.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

MURDER IS DEVELOPED BY INVESTIGATION

Carson Shepherd, It Would Appear, Was Beaten to Death.

TRAGEDY ON RAILS NEAR ELIZABETH

What Was at First Supposed to Be an Accident Is Shown Under Searchlight of Coroner's Office to Have Been a Crime.

Coroner McGeary has another murder mystery. It was learned yesterday morning at the inquest into the death of Carson Shepherd, 26 years old and colored, of Coleridge street, this city, whose body was found on the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad, near the East Elizabeth station, on August 31, that the man was not killed by a train, but came to his end by foul play. Coroner McGeary postponed the hearing until Monday and an investigation will be made to find the murderers of Shepherd.

Shepherd is known to have quarreled with a number of his friends with whom he was camping near East Elizabeth. He was badly beaten and bruised at that time, but made his escape from the camp. In his flight it is supposed he fell dead on the tracks of his injuries.

Shepherd was a teamster and married. During August he went into camp near East Elizabetth with a number of friends. On the morning he was found dead on the tracks it was at first thought that he had been struck by a train and killed.

Coroner McGeary summoned the crews of engines Nos. 1283 and 1286, which were the only ones that passed the point where Shepherd's body was found about the time the accident was supposed to have occured. All the trainmen testified that their engines did not strike anyone and that they did not see the man on the tracks.

John Gallagher, who operates the E. J. tower, testified that he saw Shepherd pass the tower about 20 minutes before his body was found; that he was bleeding about the head, and that his clothing was badly torn and covered with dust. He said that Shepherd was staggering and apparently suffering great pain. There was another man with him and they were having words with each other. Both seemed to be hurrying away. Gallagher thought their appearance strange, but paid no further attention to the matter. About 20 minutes later a man came to the tower and said there was a colored man laying on the tracks just around the curve.

Gallagher found Shepherd, secured help and had the remains taken to the station. Wyatt Yourse, a brother-in-law of the dead man, arrived at the station about the same time that Shepherd's remains were brought there.

Deputy Coroner Huchel said last night that he had learned that Shepherd and his companions had a fierce fight at the camp and Shepherd was badly injured about the head. Deputy Coroner Kerr will go to Elizabeth this morning and investigate the case further.

FIRST FUR ROBBERY THIS SEASON REPORTED.

The advance agents of cold weather have arrived. While the katydids were singing and the "last rose of summer" was noding in sweet repose a woman's mink muff and collarette were stolen last night in a Braddock street car. Mrs. Louisa Dewalt of Wilkinsburg, who lost the furs, was a passenger on an open summer car and carried her muff and collarette as protection against chilling draughts. She reported her loss to the Braddock police and they are looking for the thief.

ENGINEER RAN TRAIN THROUGH STRIKERS' MOB

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

POTTSVILLE, PA., Sept. 17.—A mob of several hundred persons intercepted a supply train which was being run over the Philadelphia & Reading railroad into the North Mahanoy colliery today. When the engineer saw the crowd he put on steam and ran the train through regardless of obstacles.

The exodus of anthracite mine workers continues from the Schuylkill region because the strikers have given up hope of an early settlement. Today 40 certified miners left for Wise county, Va., where they will be employed in the soft coal mines. It is estimated that 2,000 mine workers have gone to the Irwin, Madison, Latrobe and Greensburg bituminous coal fields and upward of 7,000 are said to have secured employment in the Pittsburgh district.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Sept. 17.—Inactivity at President Mitchell's headquarters and apparent activity in coal operators' circles covers the situation in this section of the strike region today. President Mitchell still insists that his followers are remaining firm and that there will be no break in the ranks of the miners.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 17.—The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, whose biennial convention is now being held in this city, today decided to contribute $10,000 to aid the anthracite coal strikers in Pennsylvania. The money will be sent to Secretary Wilson at Indianapolis.

Schools Closed By Smallpox.

GREENSBURG, PA., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The board of school directors of this town has to close all the schools, owing to the prevaliance of smallpox and the fact that one of the victims of the disease had been attending the sessions. Every room all the buildings will be thoroughly disinfected and it is expected that by Monday school can be reopened. Two new cases have been reported.

FOURTEEN PAGES.

Asks for Plain Justice.

Secretary Hay's communication to the governments of Europe, calling their attention to conditions in Roumania, is timely. By the treaty of Berlin the powers guaranteed the civil and religious liberty of all the people of that state. Those liberties are notoriously denied to the Jews in Roumania, numbering about 400,000, and their condition is rendered well-nigh intolerable. It is true that some of the signatory powers are guilty of gross maltreatment of the Jews within their own territories, but that barbarity does not excuse them from fulfilling their pledges in respect to Roumania.

Wherever the Jews have established themselves they have proven good citizens according to their opportunities. They have reached their highest development in this country and England because they have not been ostracised or persecuted. But on the continent of Europe they have invariably risen to the highest average of the people of the several countries in industry, thrift, intelligence and obedience to the ordinary laws of the land. They have never defied any statutes except those unjustly aimed at their religion.

For these reasons Secretary Hay's letter does no more than remind the powers of a plain duty; it asks nothing but justice; it pleads for no more than common humanity. The United States has always carefully refrained from interference with the domestic affairs of Europe, but if the powers cannot be induced to perform their agreed upon duty there is just a possibility that the United States might follow the precedent set in the case of the Mediterranean pirates.

Lesson Is Complete.

Those people who composed the Butler mob of a few nights ago can now see the futility of their rage. Their intended victim is in the penitentiary, where he must stay for years, suffering the stings of whatever conscience he may have in addition to being restrained of his liberty. The punishment followed swiftly enough upon his crime, and while some may hold it is not severe enough, it is certainly to be preferred to summary vengeance. Every rioter should thank the sheriff and his assistants for having prevented him from becoming a murderer. It is a serious offense to attack a jail, as some of them are likely to learn, but at least they have no blood on their hands.

Porto Rico's Strenuous Campaign.

The Porto Ricans take their politics seriously. A campaign is now in progress throughout the island, and nearly every meeting thus far has been made the occasion for a fracas between adherents of the rival parties. Advices from San Juan indicate that the police are strictly neutral, holding aloof when trouble breaks loose and allowing the belligerents to fight it out. This inaction of the officers may be due to either cowardice or inability to decide which will be the winning side, but it was in striking contrast to the vigor which the strictly American police display under such circumstances.

It appears that the Porto Ricans are unusually mild-mannered in everything but politics, but when an election is pending their dispositions change and they resort to hair-pulling on the slightest provocation. Let it be remembered, however, that they are new in the business of politics on the American plan, and therefore prone to undue excitement. After they have become accustomed to a free ballot it is probable they will content themselves with orderly meetings and quiet voting, and let all the fighting be done by the rival candidates.

Corn to Burn.

According to a dispatch from Topeka many of the Kansas farmers will use corn as fuel in the coming winter, owing to the high price of coal. Those not conversant with conditions in Kansas will jump at the conclusion that such a disposition of one of nature's food products is not only wrong, but unnecessary, reasoning that a bushel of corn is worth at least a bushel of coal, and that therefore the coal should be bought and the corn devoted to the purpose of its growth, in assisting to sustain human and animal life.

Such reasoning is erroneous, however, for so great are the obstacles in the way of transportation and distribution that, under present conditions, corn in some parts of Kansas is really cheaper than coal as a fuel. Were it otherwise the cereal would not be used for heating purposes, for the Kansas farmers are fully as shrewd as those of other states in deriving profits from their crops. With proper facilities for distribution the price of a bushel of corn would largely overbalance that of a bushel of coal, and these articles of food and fuel would be exchangeable commodities, with profits for both the corn raiser and the coal operator. But Kansas, as well as some other western states, is sadly lacking in railway facilities, and therefore a large crop of corn and a shortage of coal result in the use of a portion of the grain as fuel. It is a pity that a food product should thus be diverted from its natural purpose, but it is a consolation to the Kansas farmers that they have corn to burn when coal is dear and scarce.

An Interesting Comparison.

An analysis of the bureau of industrial statistics of Pennsylvania is before us, presenting a most interesting comparison between the value of manufactured products for 1894 and 1901. In the matter of pig iron, 13 establishments considered, the increase in output was from $5,580,847 to $13,645,721, or $8,064,874. Thirty-two rolling mills show an increase of $124,880,737 in output, or 173.3 per cent. Throughout the list there are similar increases. Likewise in the number of persons employed the increases run from 7 per cent to 166 per cent, and the average of wages paid has risen 35 per cent in the production of pig iron and 36 per cent in rolling mills, and so on.

In 1894 the affairs of the state were administered by Robert E. Pattison and those of the nation by Grover Cleveland. The people of the state expressed their opinion of conditions by electing a Republican to succeed Gov. Pattison by the largest majority ever given any candidate for governor in any state. They were feeling the stress of Democratic rule. Yet this year Robert E. Pattison is again a candidate for governor on a platform of "purely state issues." He probably hopes the people have forgotten 1894 and the unanimity with which they turned again to the Republican party.

The official comparison of work, wages and product comes very timely as a reminder. The Democracy that is seeking to get a small hold on "purely state issues" is a part of the same old free trade, free silver and hard times Democracy so vigorously repudiated by Pennsylvania in 1894.

Our Neighbor on the North.

We are hearing a great deal nowadays of Canada's fitness for war. Not long ago a special writer told of the dreadful things that Canadian sharpshooters could do to United States troops in the event of a conflict between Uncle Sam and Our Lady of the Snows. He said that the Boer war had stimulated interest in marksmanship; that in every Canadian town there is a rifle range which is kept reasonably occupied, and that consequently the Dominion is full of men who can shoot straight and who would make United States soldiers exceedingly uncomfortable if it became necessary to use them as targets.

Later than this report comes an account from London of what Col. Ferrers Townsend saw in his inspection of the Dominion in behalf of the British war office. The colonel inspected the forts along the American-Canadian frontier and he was dissatisfied with the condition of those on the northern side of the line. Col. Townsend says the British fortifications are inefficient, while the American forts are well equipped. It is his opinion that in the event of war between Great Britain and the United States, Americans could easily march over the frontier and seize Canada before anything could be done to resist them.

Col. Townsend does not seem to place much reliance on the sharpshooters. Perhaps he hadn't heard of them. Perhaps the advantage given to Canada by her marksmen is compensated for by the superiority of the American forts. On this side of the line we refuse to become very deeply interested in the possible results of a war with Great Britain, because such a conflict is too remote for present consideration. We are more deeply concerned in the statement just prepared by the Dominion's customs department, which shows that Canada's trade last year with the United States was $33,500,000 larger than with Great Britain. It aggregated almost half of her entire foreign commerce, going almost to $200,000,000 and showing a remarkable increase over any preceding year. America is Canada's purchasing market. The new preferential tariff on British manufactures has failed to disturb the Dominion's predilection for American goods. We have no desire to quarrel with so good a customer.

Devery Victory Instructive.

William S. Devery, widely known as the "Big Chief," has won his fight for the Tammany leadership in the Ninth assembly district after a picturesque campaign. He has triumphed over "Blue-Eyed Willie" Sheehan and Goodwin and declares if he is given a "cold seat in Tammany hall he will make it hot enough for them." He will, no doubt. He is that kind of man.

While the Devery campaign was a source of much amusement, it has instructive features as well. It has terminated as any one might have expected considering the lines on which it was conducted and the character of the district. The first instructive phase in the portrayal of the ideals of a district that has its similars in other great cities of the country—a district where a "money campaign" is popularly approved and the promise of "jobs for de boys" is regarded as the highest standard of statesmanship. It has been instructive in the opportunity afforded for a study of the man. Grossly illiterate and devoid of the higher ideals, Devery has disclosed himself to be a shrewd student of human nature, particularly on its baser side. He is a man of natural ability, great force of character, brute courage and a coarse sense of right.

Finally, the result is instructive. While there are districts like the Ninth of New York, and while there is a liberal sprinkling of the same sort of people in other districts, politics cannot become ideally pure. The Deverys will cater to that element, for they are a part of it. The other fellows must cater to it in some measure if they want to get the vote. That is why the practical work of politics is so often shunned by those who ought to be in politics, and that is why there are Deverys in positions of responsibility and profit. A stream rises no higher than its source, and a heavy burden is laid upon the people of finer instincts to keep the general current above the Ninth district level.

Speaker Henderson Is Firm.

Speaker Henderson refuses to reconsider his decision to decline the unanimous renomination for congress from the Third Iowa district. Interest naturally increases in his specific reasons. As Secretary Shaw explains, it is not because Gen. Henderson is not in full sympathy with the Iowa state platform, because he has fully indorsed the tariff and trust planks of that document. It is not because he disagrees with the policies of President Roosevelt, who has gone so far as to ask the speaker to reconsider his declination.

There is but one reasonable assumption, pending Gen. Henderson's fuller explanation. That is that Speaker Henderson has concluded his constituents do not construe the state platform according to its plain terms. Even that is unsatisfactory, for it is impossible that he can have obtained the views of a majority, and it is difficult to understand why he should give such importance to the views of a few individuals.

As the speaker adheres to his intention to not be a candidate there will be a rather warm campaign for the speakership of the next house. It will begin during the short session of the expiring congress, no doubt. And just here it is worth remembering that Pennsylvania has a very available candidate in the person of John Dalzell of the Thirtieth district, one of the foremost leaders in the house.

Free Trade Is Not the Remedy.

One of the resolutions adopted by the British Trades Union congress, lately held in London, bears a strong resemblance to language seen in Democratic platforms and heard in Democratic oratory. The resolution is subjoined:

> In the opinion of this congress, the growth of gigantic capitalistic trusts, with their enormous power of controlling production, is injurious to the advancement of the working classes, and by such combinations the prices of commodities are raised, the standard of comfort of the people is reduced, the workingmen's freedom endangered, and the national prosperity menaced.

Attention is called to this expression of opinion solely because it is a point of Democratic doctrine that trusts in the United States are produced by the protective tariff, and that the removal of protective duties would destroy the trusts. It would appear there is something erroneous about this notion if trusts are so prevalent in England. No one accuses the United Kingdom of maintaining a protective tariff. This being the case, free trade is not the remedy for the evils in the trusts.

Though the deadlock in the Twenty-third congressional district was long and tedious, it happily concluded in harmony and the nomination of a very worthy candidate. Mr. A. F. Cooper is not widely known in public life, but he is an able attorney and a man of excellent repute in his home county. Moreover, he is a consistent Republican.

A concession of 10 per cent increase in wages and an eight-hour day has been made by the Llewellyn colliery, but the strikers will not permit miners to work at those terms. That is a wholly unwarranted interference on the part of the union with the rights of the public suffering for want of coal. It is unjustifiable on any ground.

The writers of the various Tolstoy obituaries that have appeared in this country are sure to feel somewhat aggrieved over the news that the Russian author has formed a habit of taking a long stroll through the woods these days.

Col. Henry Clews says Cuba is ready for annexation. Not quite. Not until it has been made self-sustaining by the meting out of commercial justice. Cuba must not come in under coercion of any kind.

New Hampshire, Connecticut and Alabama Republicans have fallen in line with indorsements of President Roosevelt's policies and another term in the white house.

Mr. Bryan has consented to become a star performer in the Johnson circus. Of course, everybody knew Mr. Bryan could not keep out of a show like Johnson's.

Should the Hon. "Bill" Devery get to congress, the brilliant editors of the Congressional Record will have to buy several new fonts of type.

That consignment of Pennsylvania plows to South Africa ought to keep the Missouri mules down that way from getting lonesome.

King Leopold doubtless changed his mind about coming to America after reading some of those Watterson attacks upon the "400."

Pennsylvanians will now have a chance to get better acquainted with their next governor. The Pennypacker tour has commenced.

That Skagway bank robber who kindly blew himself up with dynamite is well gotten rid of at the cost of $1,000 in gold dust.

Explorer Peary is evidently going to bring a very hot fight for some of his critics when he gets back from the land of ice.

President Castro has struck the toboggan this time with every appearance of a man who had secured a through ticket.

No doubt the kaiser was greatly relieved when he learned that Gen. Corbin thoroughly approves of his army.

If Col. Watterson is really looking for a national issue, why doesn't he tackle the lynching habit?

We are rapidly approaching the season when the coal price joke will be hardly a laughing subject.

The trust smashing so far has been confined to the merely vocal stage of the campaign.

In the case of "Boss" Devery the laugh is distinctly on the other people.

JOLLIFICATION GOES AT PUMP

Red Fire Lights Up Whole Ninth District and Devery Is Happy.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, Sept. 17.

Eighth avenue showed today that there had been "something doing" the night before. Besides the flags and other decorations which have made the Ninth district gay for a month there were all kinds of litter that told of much riotous rejoicing. Devery owns the district, body, beer, barbecue and breeches. In the gutters were rocket cases, scraps of small flags, cigar butts, all kinds of printed proclamations which had been used as ammunition in the great battle of the votes, and here and there an empty whisky flask. White wings got around early and cleared the streets of rubbish, but the atmosphere of fighting and victory remained. Devery's home in Twenty-eighth street, a decorous four-story and basement residence, with gilt railings at the area windows and handsome curtains at the parlor casements, is draped almost from the eaves down with immense flags, on which the Stars and Stripes show forth bravely. The indications are that "Big Bill" took success for granted, and he had his house decorated beforehand. Just around the corner from his house in Eighth avenue there is the great banner which has hung there for some weeks, with a gigantic picture of Devery and an inscription telling us that he is everybody's friend. Tonight when Devery showed himself at the famous "pump" red fire lighted up the banner, and Devery, too, so that there was double glory shed upon the features of this new power in Tammany Hall. That Devery's victory is popular there can be no doubt. While many persons contemptuously speak of him as a buffoon and loud-mouthed demagogue, he has won the hearts of the people. That is shown by the comfortable majority he rolled up in his own district. Sentiment about the "pump" tonight is that everything in the district is as it should be, and that Devery has acquired only what is his by heaven-endowed right.

Power Costs Pretty Sum.

That it costs money to carry a district in New York city Devery's experience shows. It is estimated, conservatively, that he has spent $35,000 in excursions, theatrical entertainments and individual charity. Devery himself says he has spent a great deal of cash, and he is proud of it. He sets forth that he gave the money to persons that needed it and that he did not leave out anyone in the district, whether he had a vote or not. There are those that say Devery bought his seat in the Tammany executive committee, but no one says that he did not spend his money judiciously. All that "Big Bill" says is that it is nobody's business.

Will Push Murphy Forward.

The Tammany executive committee means to make the most of its time before the new committee takes its seat. A meeting is called for Friday of this week, at which it is understood Charles F. Murphy, one of the triumvirate favored by Croker as leader of the organization, will be chosen for that position. Devery called Murphy "Sport," but that is not such an opprobrious epithet as either of those bestowed upon his associates, "Two Spot" and "Joke," and Murphy never seemed to mind being regarded as a sport. If Murphy should be chosen as leader of Tammany Hall "Big Bill" will find a foeman worthy of his steel when the battle for the leadership comes on later.

There was a good opportunity for ferryboat passengers on the North river today to note the progress making in ocean steamship building. Side by side in their slips were the great North German Lloyd steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm, which has just broken the westward record in speed, and the reliable old Cunarder, Umbria. The German seemed to be half as long again as the Britisher, while its four bug-colored smokestacks towered far above the two modest red-and-black chimneys in the smaller ship. Everything that can make a ship imposing and speedy is said to have been utilized on the Kronprinz Wilhelm, and it looks it. The Umbria is a stanch ship and has given a good account of herself in many a fierce hurricane in mid-ocean, but it looked downright insignificant in the shadow of its immense neighbor today.

Will Hereafter Carry Club.

"Is it true," asked a smart Alec of a Broadwayite of a Pittsburgher this morning, "that every Pittsburgher habitually carries a damp sponge hanging to the top button of his coat?" "Not that I know, why?" asked the Pittsburgher, suspiciously. "I am told that when two Pittsburghers meet in the streets of their own city, each wipes the soot off the other's face before he can recognize him for certain. That's all." "Now, what do you think of that for impertinence?" groaned the Pittsburgher as the Broadwayite moved blithely but hurriedly up the street.

Celebration Goes Up in Smoke.

There was a fierce fire in the conduit of the electric car line in Eighth avenue, near Devery's four corners, this morning. Some rubbish from last night's jollification had caught fire from a spark from the channel rail. As the flames shot on high one of the observers remarked, thoughtfully: "Well, we all know the chief has been raising hades for six months, but he might have shut it off before he went to bed."

Turkey's Side Partner Cheap.

With Thanksgiving Day a good two months away it is still pleasant to know that cranberries are cheap in the New York market. Dealers say that this will be a great year for cranberries. They will be plentiful and therefore low priced, and their quality will be higher than for some years. Turkeys are going along steadily toward their doom in November, and it is the irony of fate that makes a turkey regard a ripe cranberry as rather a dainty tidbit.

Back to Alcoholic Ward.

Poor Bettina Girard is again in Bellevue hospital. She is in the alcoholic ward, of course. A few weeks ago she was appearing at one of the continuous theaters, bright, sprightly and handsome. Today she is a wreck, and it may be that she will never appear on the stage again. The beseting weakness which has dragged her down from the high social position she held in Washington as daughter of Gen. Ordway and wife of Arthur Padelford seems to be unconquerable.

Seventh Invades Pennsylvania.

In the great armory of the Seventh regiment, the swell national guard regiment of this city, there are busy notes of preparation tonight. The regiment will go to Gettysburg as escort of the society of the Army of the Potomac, which will hold its 23d reunion on the famous old battle field on Friday and Saturday. An advance guard of the regiment departed tonight, but the main body will go tomorrow. The bustle as one party went away and the other paid attention to its accouterments and uniforms was so great that one might have thought the soldiers were preparing to repel a night attack by a foreign enemy. The Seventh regiment was rather under a cloud at the time of the Spanish war on account of a real or supposed reluctance to go to the front, the public generally refusing to accept as valid the technical objection of the regiment that it could not bring itself to fight for the old flag as part of Uncle Sam's regular army. The regiment has pretty well regained its old popularity, however, and when the advance guard started for Gettysburg tonight it was cheered as heartily as any military heart could desire.

Wall Ties Up Old Baldy.

One of the diversions of Wall street is to set free long streamers of ticker tape and allow the vargrant breezes to carry it whither it will. The streets in the financial district are always well littered with tape by the time the stock exchange gong proclaims the close of the market. The ticker tape costs something, but not enough to prevent young brokers and messenger boys having lots of fun with it. By a vagary of the winds today some scores of yards of tape wrapped itself around the American eagle on top of the United States treasury building and the bird of freedom looked as if he were in a new style strait-jacket.

And It All Proved False.

Someone on the Kronprinz Wilhelm played a low-down joke on a fellow passenger. The latter has an artificial arm, and the joker whispered to the customs officials that the arm was hollow and used as a receptacle for a quantity of diamonds, which the wearer of the arm was trying to smuggle into the United States. Nothing would do but that the unfortunate must remove his coat, roll up his shirt sleeve and allow the arm to be unscrewed, protesting wildly all the time. No jewels were found, except a few jewels of speech from the owner of the arm that were full of fiery brilliance.

Dead Awakened to Vote.

Amid the howls of "fraud" that are inseparable from a Tammany primary election, the most persistent comes from Queens county that names have been taken from tombstones in Calvary cemetery for the use of "repeaters." It saves a lot of truble in inventing names when they can be taken from the graves of men that have passed away, particularly when the deceased have been good Tammany men in their time. There will be considerable investigation in the next few days, for it is declared that some of the free and independent voters of Queens cast ballots five times apiece in various districts.

Ferryboatmen Ask More Money.

Engineers and pilots on ferryboats in the waters of Greater New York feel that their services are not sufficiently recompensed. The engineers get $100 a month as a rule, but they want $120. The pilots, on whose shoulders rests mainly the responsibility for the safety of the passengers, get more, but in their opinion, not enough. Whether there will be a general increase in wages for these two classes of men cannot be said now, but the ferry companies concerned say positively that there is not likely to be a strike, so the inference is that the request for higher wages will be considered in a way satisfactory to the men. The idea of a strike is repugnant to most people in this city. They have seen enough of the inconvenience of it in the Pennsylvania anthracite coal regions.

Pitcairn and Cameron Arrive.

"Don" Cameron, formerly United States senator from Pennsylvania, and Robert Pitcairn of Pittsburgh were passengers on the steamship Oceanic, which arrived at New York today, with a broken record to her credit. She had made the voyage from Liverpool in one hour and ten minutes better time than her own best previous showing.

Making the Stroller Move On.

Herald square looks better than it has for many months. The wooden barrier that has surrounded the sidewalk in front of Macy's big new store has been removed, and the pedestrian has the whole promenade from Thirty-third to Thirty-fifth streets quite free now. The two stores of Saks and Macy begin to look as if they soon might open for business. Mingling with the painters, plasterers and other building trades workmen are a great many neat young women, who are preparing the shelves and show cases for the reception of goods, and it would not surprise anyone if both places were to bloom forth any morning in a riot of feminine laces, ribbons, silks, lingerie and other daintinesses of distracting loveliness. Before the end of October it is expected that this new drygoods district will be in full feather, with the actor, the "rounder," teh horseman and the unclassable Rialto lounger driven still further up town. The shopper will be queen of Herald square when that time comes.

Call for Girls Is Heard.

The cry from Lynn, Mass., for girls has caused a flutter in the flats and tenements of this city. New York has a great many girls, and many of them make good wages in the factories and other establishments of the city. Now the question with them is whether it would pay them to go to Lynn to take advantage of the higher wages that are offered. The complaint in Lynn is that the girls who work at stitching shoes in the winter like to spend the summer as waitresses in the country, and are in no hurry to return to the factories. Therefore, any girl that cares to go to Lynn will be set to work at increased pay. The offer is tempting, but New York girls generally think there is no place like their own city, and it is not likely that many of them will take the bait from the famous shoe town.

OUR STRANGE LANGUAGE.

"When the English tongue we speak
Why is 'break' not rhymed with 'freak?'
Will you tell me why it's true
We say 'sew,' but likewise 'few;'
And the maker of a verse
Cannot cap his 'horse' with 'worse?'
'Beard' sounds not the same as 'heard;'
'Cord' is different from 'word;'
'Cow' is cow, but 'low' is low;
'Shoe' is never rhymed with 'foe.'
Think of 'hose' and 'dose' and 'lose;'
And of 'goose'—and yet of 'choose.'
Think of 'comb' and 'tomb' and 'bomb;'
'Doll' and 'roll;' and 'home' and 'some.'
And since 'pay' is rhymed with 'say,'
Why not 'paid' with 'said,' I pray?
We have 'blood' and 'food' and 'good;'
'Mould' is not pronounced like 'could.'
Wherefore 'done,' but 'gone' and 'lone?'
Is there any reason known?
And, in short, it seems to me
Sound and letters disagree."

GRIEF CONSOLED BY KIND LETTER

Mrs. Roosevelt Writes Words of Cheer to Bereaved New York Cook.

Joseph Erichs is an oyster cook in the Astor house. Yesterday he received a letter from Oyster Bay, addressed to him by Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, says the New York Times. The cook showed the letter to the other employes of the hotel, not in a spirit of boastfulness, but with great pride and appreciation of the kindly courtesy of the chief lady of the land.

Not long ago the cook lost the most precious treasure in the world to him, his little girl. His grief was pathetic. Those who work with him could do nothing to console the bereaved man. At every idle moment he would draw from his pocket the picture of a dainty little maid with a head covered with golden curls, a smile on her lips and her little feet crossed as she leaned in her white frock against the stage properties of the photographer.

At last he put his grief into verses. This he read to his friends in the hot kitchen. They liked them and told the waiters about them. The story came to the ears of Howard H. Scott, who often dines in the rotunda. He set the song to music. The first verse is as follows:

Come, my little darling, come,
'List to what I have to say,
Kneel down by your little bedside,
And I'll teach you how to pray.
Clasp your little hands like mine,
Raise your eyes as I have done,
And my prayer shall always be;
Angels guide my little one.

As it is costly to have music printed and the cook did not have money enough to pay for the publication of the song, his fellows in the employ of the hotel raised among them a fund to pay the publisher. The cook sent the first copy of his sad song to Mrs. Roosevelt with a short note explaining the circumstances under which it had been written.

Erichs refused yesterday to show her letter in answer for publication. He showed the envelope and the signature and said that it would not be proper to disclose the contents of the communication, but added that it had touched his heart and had made him more reconciled in his bereavement.

When Christopher Warren was editing a rural newspaper in a rough neighborhood, he offended a native, and was promptly invited, by a ready "second," to fight with shotguns, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. Warren sent to the general store to inquire the price of shot and powder, and then wrote as follows to the challenger:

Dear Jim:

Yours rec'd. I'd be glad to accommodate you; but I learn that shot is 30c a pound and powder 60c, and I can't invest that amount of money in 'em these hard times. If, however, you will lend me 90c, I will secure you with a mortgage on the paper and accommodate you with a few loads in any region you may suggest. I believe, however, it would take three pounds of buckshot to kill you. Send me the money, and you can make out your will while I go over to the store and get the goods.

The second did not return to Warren with an answer.

The story of a Scotchman who attended a funeral which lasted two days, is told by Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, in the New York Times. On the second day, having imbibed too freely, he rose and proposed the health of the bride and groom.

A friend urged him to sit down, saying, "This is not a wedding; it is a funeral."

"Well," retorted the Scotchman, "whatever it is, it's a grand success."

A youth in one of the London board schools as little appreciated the talents of his teacher as the teacher appreciated those of his pupil, says the London Sun. The lesson was on the circulation of the blood.

"If I stand on my head," said the teacher, by way of illustration, "the blood all rushes to my head, doesn't it?"

Nobody contradicted him.

"Now," he continued, "when I stand on my feet, why doesn't the blood rush into my feet?"

"Because," replied the daring youth aforesaid, "your feet ain't empty."

PERSONALS.

"The people of West Virginia are very much interested in the improvement of the Ohio river," remarked A. J. Davis at the Hotel Lincoln last night. "If the Ohio is slackwatered it will give them an outlet all the year around, and the products of the state can be sent not only to southern but eastern ports." Mr. Davis is connected with the Davis, Price Company of New Cumberland, W. Va., and the Mean's Foundry and Machine Company of Steubenville. "We want the Ohio valley to be as busy as the valley of the Monongahela, and if they give us transportation facilities we will make it such. During six months of the year the valley is almost closed up. We have no transportation by water, and very little by rail. The completion of the Wabash railroad will relieve us somewhat, but we want the river opened. The new Wabash line when completed will open up much of the virgin coal fields of West Virginia, and will develop Jefferson county, where the coal veins are the thickest in the state. These fields have been dormant for many years, but the new line will be the means for their development. The work on the extension of the Wabash in West Virginia is being pushed by the contractors. A survey is now being made from Steubenville to Toronto, a distance of eight miles, and will be a continuation of the extension of the old Wheeling & Lake Erie route. This branch of the Wabash will tap the sewer pipe industry in Toronto."

The annual Pennsylvania Field Convention of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, which has been in session at the Monongahela house for three days, closed with a banquet last night. The reports read showed that the company was in a prosperous condition, and that the last dividends were far in advance of those hitherto paid. When the convention opened on Monday the address of welcome was made by Director J. Guy McCandless. After routine business was finished the members of the convention visited points of interest in the city. At the banquet last night the toastmaster was F. M. Wheaton and the toasts were as follows: "Loyalty," G. W. Halliwell; "Getting There," R. L. Townley; "Fidelity," L. G. Fouse; "Opportunity," W. N. Multer; "Underwriting," J. E. Niemond; "Security," H. O. Carleton, "Enthusiasm," H. C. Orth.

Edward Schwab, a brother of Charles M. Schwab, and Frank S. Schwab, Charles S. Schwab and William Wagner, nephews of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, returned last night from a three months' tour of Europe. The young men are students at Notre Dame university and will resume their studies at once. Mr. Wagoner is at his home in Braddock. The other members of the party reside at Loretta, Pa.

Col. Samuel Moody of the Pennsylvania lines west went to Philadelphia last night.

Some Deductive Reasoning.

From the Chicago Inter Ocean.

The price of cattle is declining, and if the price of meat is affected by the price of cattle, which is held to be the case in some quarters, the price of that commodity ought to respond. This seems reasonable, but it does not necessarily follow that it is conclusive.

THE DEATH ROLL.

John Paul.

John Paul, who represented the Thirty-second ward in Pittsburgh councils for many years, and was one of the best known business men in the city, died suddenly yesterday morning at 2:15 o'clock at his home, Boggs avenue and Smith way, Mt. Washington. Mr. Paul was 78 years old, and his death was due to a general breaking down. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. T. R. Donehoo, who resides in Locust street. Last summer Mr. Paul spent some time at Atlantic City, in the hope of regaining his health. On his return to Pittsburgh he seemed much improved and again took an active interest in his business and in politics. Mr. Paul was attacked by a cold a few days ago and his death followed. Mr. Paul was born in Ireland and came to the United States with his parents in 1835. He was apprenticed to the father of the late C. L. Magee, who at one time was the leading hat and fur manufacturer in Western Pennsylvania. After Mr. Paul served his apprenticeship he left Pittsburgh for a short time. Upon his return, in 1856, he secured a position with Mr. Magee at his establishment in Smithfield street. In 1862 Mr. Magee died and Mr. Paul succeeded him in the business, having for 40 years conducted the business at the old store, No. 202 Smithfield street. Mr. Paul was closely associated with the Magee family and easily gained an entrance into politics. He was appointed one of the commissioners charged with the erection of the Pennsylvania Reform school at Huntingdon, about 1870. At about the same time he was elected to select council from the Thirty-second ward. During his life in councils he fathered much legislation and until the time of his death was a recognized leader in the upper branch. Mr. Paul also took an active interest in business affairs in Pittsburgh. For years he was a director on the board of the Freehold bank, now merged with the Colonial Trust Company. He was also identified with many other financial and industrial enterprises. He was a member of the Mt. Washington Methodist Episcopal church, and some time ago when the church was cleared of debt, Mr. Paul, owing to his long membership and active interest in bringing the church to the front, was accorded the honor of applying the match to the last mortgage. Mr. Paul was also a member of a number of benevolent organizations, and a member of lodge No. 45, F. and A. M.

Capt. Charles H. Bryson.

The body of Capt. Charles H. Bryson will be brought to Pittsburgh tomorrow morning, and will be buried at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon from the Butler Street chapel of the Allegheny cemetery. Capt. Bryson died Tuesday afternoon in Toledo, O., aged 76 years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. K. Ebbert. Capt. Bryson for many years was a prominent figure on the South Side. He was a veteran of two wars, having served in the Jackson Independent Blues, a company of the First Pennsylvania volunteers, in the war with Mexico, and as captain of Company F, Sixty-first Pennsylvania volunteers, in the war of the Rebellion. He was a glassworker. The funeral will be attended by Col. O. H. Rippey post No. 41, G. A. R., and local union No. 4, American Flint Glassworkers' union.

Mrs. B. F. Leitch.

Mrs. B. F. Leitch, aged 64, died at the home of her brother-in-law, Albert Keister, at Scottdale, Pa., last evening. She was well known in church and mission circles in Allegheny, where she made her home for many years. She was the widow of B. F. Leitch, a contractor of Allegheny, who died in 1895. Mrs. Leitch had been connected with the United Presbyterian hospital in Allegheny for a number of years. The following brothers and sisters survive her: Mrs. Albert Keister, Scottdale; Mrs. Howard Humphreys, West Newton; the Rev. Charles Fraser, Jeanette; Drs. John and George Fraser, Cleveland, O.; T. W. and W. C. Fraser, Wellsville, O., and Duncan Fraser of Kansas.

Funeral of F. V. Casibon.

The funeral services over the remains of Frederick V. Casibon, who was shot on Monday by his father at the family home in the West End, and who died the following day, will be held this afternoon at the undertaking rooms of James B. Fullerton in Ninth street. The Harris quartet will furnish the music. Interment will be at Uniondale cemetery. Samuel J. Dee, who was yesterday appointed executor of Casibon's estate, has charge of the funeral.

Christina Sohn, aged 24, died Tuesday night at the home of her mother in Shady park, North Braddock, after a long illness. The deceased had lived the greater part of her life in North Braddock and was prominently connected with the German Lutheran church.

Mrs. Bridget Lundergas, 75 years old, wife of Patrick Lundergas, is dead at the family home in Washington street, Dravosburg. She was a member of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, McKeesport, and besides her husband, is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert Harvisty of Dravosburg.

William B. Southworth, 78 years old, for 51 years a resident of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, is dead at his late home, No. 1100 Locust street, Allegheny. During the civil war he was employed as an expert machinist on Union gunboats running between Pittsburgh and Cairo. Six children survive him.

Losing Interest in Enterprise.

From the Brownsville Monitor.

We have ceased to wonder and trouble our head about it, but the fact remains that when a public spirited man gets up an enterprise that will be very profitable to himself, and incidentally help the country which has been so fortunate as to give him birth, he gives the newspaper man, who has speace to sell at so much per sell, the broad hint that here is an opening where he can do something for his country by pushing some particular boat along. The printer man has long ceased to take an interest in the missionary who has a lotion that will prove a boon to humanity, or the man with the book to sell, or the spellbinder who places stock. For verily the wise man hath said if the song is not interesting enough for the singer to shed his wealth in ink, why should he who can't even whistle the chorus hold the bag?

Maine the Index Finger.

From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

There will be one uniform showing in the elections this year, and Maine points the way. Increased majorities everywhere for the Republican ticket are certain. There is no section of the country where discontent with the Republican party or with the results of the policies that it stands for and has carried out can be discovered.

THE SNAKE CROP.

Enoch Hyre captured a horned snake. snake, a rare species, with several inches of the tail being composed of a hard, bonelike substance.—Wheeling Register.

Miss Ruth Carle, a young lady employed as a clerk in Smith's confectionery store, killed a four-foot rattlesnake at Horse Creek on Sunday. The snake was of the bright yellow and black variety, and when its skin is tanned will make a most attractive belt, which is the purpose to which Miss Carle will devote it.—Oil City Derrick.

George McLean and Worth Silliman killed 16 copperhead snakes at the foot of Fourth street, Chester, Saturday. The Silliman family lived in the country until recently, where there were so many snakes that they concluded to move to town, but Chester is not devoid of serpents.—East Liverpool Tribune.

So far as we have been able to collect the data there hasn't been a snake killed near Blairsville this year that has been less than seven feet long—which provokes the suspicion that there have either been several new kinds of snakes running around, or that the tribe of liars has abnormally increased.—Blairsville Courier.

'Squire LeRoy Kinsey of the First ward, had an experience that sent the cold shills down his back and he has hardly recovered from the shock yet. He was walking along Eighth street, and stopped in the grass at the edge of the walk to speak to an acquaintance. When he started away he thought he had a wire around his foot and leg. He kicked several times, and as it did not come off, he looked down to see what it was. Imagine his horror when he found a house snake about three feet long coiled around his leg. He gave a yell and a vicious kick and the snake flew off into the grass. The 'squire attempted to kill the reptile, but it escaped under a house. It almost turned LeRoy's hair white.—Franklin News.

STRATTON'S LUCK WAS CLEVER WORK

Studied Subject and Toiled Faithfully for Many Years.

"PEOPLE all over the country are inclined to talk of 'Stratton's Luck,'" said a Coloradoan yesterday in a discussion of the career of W. S. Stratton, the bonanza king, who died at Colorado Springs Sunday evening. "Stratton had less luck than the average mining man who has finally 'made his pile.' He was undoubtedly the wealthiest man in Colorado at the time of his death. His fortune was made in the mountains, in the hills of Cripple Creek, where his independence mine has proved one of the greatest gold producers the world has ever known. But his fortune was augmented by a clear head for business and judicious investments until he piled up a fortune of fully $50,000,000.

"Talk of 'Stratton's luck' always brings a smile to one who knows the story of his life long struggle. His luck consisted of hard work and a determination that was bound to bring success in any walk of life. When Stratton arrived in Colorado he knew nothing about mining. He realized that ignorance was a bar to success, and he had the nerve to begin at the bottom. He was a carpenter, and he worked at his trade in the summer to earn the money to attend the Colorado state school of Mines at Golden. There he studied metalurgy and everything else that would assist him when the time came for him to take to the hills as a prospector. Unlike the majority of people who go west to become prospectors, he was unwilling to depend wholly upon luck. Men who cannot tell gold ore from iron pyrites wander over the hills and declare luck is against them, when perhaps they have missed millions through ignorance. Stratton realized this, and started in to learn before attempting to win wealth from the mother rock.

"After gaining all the knowledge he could from books, Stratton started out with his burro loaded with the effects of the average prospector. He wandered through the hills summer after summer, but always landed in Colorado Springs in the winter to earn his grub stake for the coming season. For nearly 20 years he alternated between carpentering in winter and prospecting in summer. It was a hard life, and only the most persistent gold seeker would stick it out. But he did, and at last he won. Other men have become rich in the gold mines by luck, but when any one quotes 'Strattons' luck' to you, tell him that his luck was all work.

"Fortune never changed the character of a man less than that of Stratton. When he was a prospector he was quiet, taciturn, some say morose. Thus he remained to the end. But cold as his manner, his heart was ever warm. He gave away millions to charity with a want of ostentation that was proof even against gratitude. He was a carpenter when he made his fortune and he never forgot the union of which he was a member. I remember being in Colorado Springs a few years ago on Labor Day, and there I saw marching in the carpenters' division of the parade this man of millions, who still kept up his union dues and was as much a carpenter as he was millionaire.

"Undoubtedly Stratton had his faults—he was human—but the many tales that are always told of the man who comes suddenly to riches can never be told of him. While he was generous and let go of his money without a drag he was never a 'Coal Oil Johnny.' He was liberal in every thing that helped Colorado and Colorado Springs, and many people will tell you he made that city what it is today, one of the most beautiful and prosperous in the great west."

* * *

"THE hens," said a man at breakfast in a Pittsburgh restaurant, as he ate his "two soft," "are not only laying fewer eggs, but they are laying smaller eggs."

"And also stale eggs, judging by those I got," added the second man, who was evidently something of a pessimist. "But do you know what the remedy is for small eggs?"

"Can't say that I do. What is the remedy?"

"The remedy, sir, is a change in the method of buying and selling eggs. So long as eggs are sold by the dozen, and little eggs fetch as much money as the big, so long as there is no inducement for chicken raisers to produce large eggs. Small hens law small eggs, and it costs less to keep them, because they consume less food. If eggs were bought and sold by the pound you would find poultry raisers endeavoring to produce bigger eggs than those which now satisfy their ambition. They might also send the largest to market and keep the smallest for home use."

FACTIONS MEET IN ELECTION OF KINGSLEY HOUSE

Old Board of Directors Opposed by Champions of Miss M. B. Lippincott.

RELIGION IS SECONDARY IN IMPORTANCE

The Contest Centered in Effort to Retain Present Head Resident of Institution—Will Be Decided Today.

The election of directors of the Kingsley House association for the year is in doubt. The sharp opposition between two factions of the association culminated yesterday when the vote was taken, and the poll was so heavy that the meeting was adjourned until 5 o'clock this afternoon, when the names of the victorious candidates will be announced.

The issues have many complications. It was declared that an effort was being made by the Episcopalian members, who belong to Calvary Protestant Episcopal church, to get control of the institution.

Beneath the church controversy, however, ran a current of feeling which is the prime factor that led to so much opposition. Among the members of the present board are some who are opposed to the administration of Miss Mary B. Lippincott as head resident of Kingsley house, and the animus of the opposition to the re-election of the old board is seen in a chivalrous rally to retain Miss Lippincott in the office she has filled so long.

Attendance Was Large.

Few members were absent. An hour before the time set for the meeting a long string of carriages lined Fulton street in front of Kingsley house and a score of partisans were busily at work electioneering. There was an exceptionally large attendance of women, and among the fair sex political feeling ran high, many showing themselves to be most capable politicians. H. D. W. English, president of the association, led those favoring the "regular" ticket, while William McConway guided the workers of the opposition.

The meeting convened at 4 o'clock and Daniel C. Ripley was called to the chair. The little assembly room was crowded and one-half the members were obliged to stand in the hall and the rooms adjoining. The routine business and the reading of the reports of the officers was endured with manifest impatience.

When the election was taken up the "regular" ticket placed in nomination, with 15 to elect, was as follows: Mrs. William H. Black, C. E. E. Childers, H. D. W. English, Joseph F. Guffey, Miss Alice Holdship, William Speer Kuhn, Mrs. H. Lee Mason, Jr., J. J. Hiller, the Rev. J. H. McIlvaine, D. D., Mrs. Gilbert Rafferty, David A. Reed, Miss Minnie Sellers, Mrs. Persifor F. Smith, Charles L. Taylor, the Rev. John H. Wightman.

The following were nominated in opposition: Levi DeWolf, S. J. Wainwright, Jr., S. C. Mason, R. D. McGonigle, J. C. Dilworth, E. M. Grove, Dr. Lawrence Litchfield, Mrs. H. P. Allen.

It developed that the opposition had made a shrewd move toward clinching the election by nominating only eight candidates, since through the system of cumulative voting each ballot in opposition to the 15 would count one and seven-eighths votes. By this scheme it is thought the entire opposition ticket will be elected and control of the board secured. E. Z. Smith was appointed judge of election, with C. S. Mitchell and George McCandless tellers.

Question Not Debatable.

When the balloting was about to take place D. L. Gillespie inquired why a discussion should not be taken up relative to the alleged opposition to the head resident. Mr. Gillespie was ruled out of order by Chairman Ripley. An appeal was taken, but the chair was sustained by a large majority.

A recess was taken and the voters gathered in the library to cast their ballots. One hundred and forty votes were polled in Judge Smith's new fall hat and the counting was ready to begin. Half the members of the association were crowded around the table where the election officers sat and it soon became evident that the voting was very much mixed.

The eligibility of a number of members was questioned and seven ballots were thrown out because the persons who had voted them had not been regularly elected to membership or through error or omission had not paid dues prior to the 10-day limit before the election. The "regulars" contended that their opponents were not entitled to a count of one and seven-eighths for each of their ballots.

When the tellers began their task it was getting late and the gas was lighted. The partisans suddenly remembered that it was past the dinner hour and an adjournment was taken until today. The election officers worked through the night unraveling the ballots.

H. C. Frick, who provided the association with its present substantial home, took no part in the controversy and did not attend the meeting. Mr. Frick is a stanch supporter of Miss Lippincott's administration and through the year has shown great interest in her work. Miss Lippincott is out of the city and her report was read by Miss Dunlap.

Aside from the factional feeling the association is enjoying the most encouraging prosperity. The reports of officers and Miss Lippincott show that the work is being extended along lines laid down last year.

WAS HELD FOR MURDER.

Mrs. Adelaide M. Wilkins Committed to Await Grand Jury Action for Killing Husband.

Mrs. Adelaide M. Wilkins was yesterday held by the coroner's jury to answer before the grand jury the charge of murdering her husband, William D. Wilkins, at their home, No. 813 Federal street, Allegheny, a week ago. Mrs. Wilkins was committed to jail on the advice of her attorney, F. G. Patterson. It is alleged that Mrs. Wilkins is a victim of the morphine habit, and although her friends wanted to release her on bail, her attorney advised against it, as he hopes her incarceration will cure her of the habit.

Throughout the inquest Mrs. Wilkins was pale and nervous, and during most of the time kept her face buried in her handkerchief. Policeman George McNemy, acting lieutenant on the morning of the tragedy, told of being called to the house and of finding Mr. Wilkins' body. He said Mrs. Wilkins told him she killed her husband while he was trying to prevent her from committing suicide. The jury took six minutes to decide on a verdict, and Mrs. Wilkins, who was prepared for the verdict, was composed when she heard it read.

During the inquest two brothers of the prisoner, Joseph and D. H. Hudson, and two sisters, Mrs. Wheeler of Allegheny and Mrs. J. K. Prevo of Greensburg were in the court room.

The exclusive use of the pavillion was secured and the many guests had a thoroughly good time. Twenty prizes, many of them very handsome, had been provided as trophies for the euchre game, which made the competition more eager. THE TREMENDOUS, MOST MARVELOUS is not more remarkable than the enormous number of sales that are being made. When people come to look at this property they buy! They buy because they can see where the tunnel lines are going to come through! Because one of the tunnel lines will pass the property and the other will be but one square away. They realize that property within is going to increase in value until it makes very many people rich. They can arrive at this truth without studying long, and know that lots at $250 to $600 on paved streets, lighted by electric lights, are bargains never before heard of. They also know that lots selling at $100 to $300 on the other streets in this plan are bargains which cannot be found anywhere else in the world.

RUSH FOR LOTS AT

Fetterman is a big proposition and a big opportunity. It's going to build another city to weld on to Pittsburgh.

Remember the terms on Fetterman lots are 5 per cent down, and balance is payable at the rate of 2½ per cent per month. So bring your money or check book with you, as these terms will not be deviated from and you may lose a chance that some one else will get, if you come unprepared.

If you desire to pay cash 10 per cent discount will be allowed any time within 60 days.

There will be no interest or taxes for you to pay, and the Title is insured by the Fidelity Title & Trust Company.

Also remember that purchaser will have many a dollar given free to him in the event that he calls at our city office and secures SPECIAL MONEY ORDER CERTIFICATE before going out to the property.

Be sure to take Mt. Lebanon Hill Top Cars at Union Depot or on Smithfield Street until the high speed tunnel lines are finished.

League Games Today.

When a ball team is out after a record there is no such thing as sympathy among the players, and no matter who makes up the opposing club they go after them just the same. That was the case yesterday, when the champions stacked up against Patsy Donovan's Cardinals and gave them a walloping to remember, the final score being 12 to 3 in favor of the champs.

When Donovan marshaled his force on the field in Exposition park at 3:30 there was a sort of a familiar look about the gang, a sort of a local coloring, as it were. First and foremost there was our old-time leader, Patsy himself; then at third base was Red Calhoun, an Allegheny boy. Out in left field was Posey Barclay, who used to do football stunts up at Greensburg, and on the pitcher's rubber was Alex Pearson, the pride of Beaver Falls, who has done duty for Homestead and other local teams. It was thought Patsy would save Pierson for Saturday in order that his fellow townsmen might do him honor, but he worked yesterday just the same.

Beaver Falls Rooters Routed.

It seems as though the Beaver Falls people sent a committee up to arrange the affair, but the delegates got in to late for a conference, so finding that their hero was slated to pitch, they went over to the park and tried to stir up noise enough to do for entire population of the Beaver valley. They occupied seats in the left field bleachers, and made their presence known by a wild shout of "He's all right. Whose's all right? Why, Alex Pearson of Beaver Falls!" This crowd had a delegation of Red Calhoun's friends to keep it company, and they got along in good shape until the four inning, when the champions chalked up three runs, as a result of five hits, and that settled the Beaver crowd and its shouting.

The Beaver Falls committee sneaked out a back gate, but the Calhoun supporters stuck long enough to see their idol presented with a handsome gold watch and chain, then they lapsed into silence. Pearson got the best kind of a start, and for two innings held the champions safe without a hit, much to the delight of the Beaver Falls committee, but with the start of the third inning it was all off, and friendships were forgotten. Clarke's crew just waded into those Beaver Falls curves and what they did to them was a plenty.

After That Century Record.

The champions are out after that century record of victories and believe that the sooner the things is over the done with the better, and that's why they worked yesterday afternoon. The gang certainly did put up a lively article of ball in the field, at bat and on the bases. Happy Jack Chesbro was on the firing line for them, and they always do things in a lively manner back of Happy. The support he got was a delight to the 1,654 spectators, and there was never room for a doubt as to where the honors would land.

The Cardinals also put up a neat article of ball, but they were out-classed from the start, and were lucky to get three runs. Their first tally was scored in the sixth inning, when, with one out Smoot singled to center, went to third on Barclay's single to right, and scored while Barclay was being put out by Ritchey, after an attempt to steal second. Their other two runs were obtained in the ninth, when, with one out, Barclay doubled to left and Nichols was given a base on balls. Then Oom Paul Kruger smashed the ball to the flag pole for three bases, scoring both runs.

Bunched Hits Worked Well.

The champions started things going in the fourth when Clarke led off with a single and hits by Leach, Bransfield and Conroy produced three tallies. Three more were scored in the fifth on a three-bagger by Sebring, a hit by pitcher to Clarke, a two-bagger by Wagner and a passed ball by Ryan. In the seventh a base on balls to Clarke, a successful bunt by Leach and a slashing two bagger by Bransfield produced two more. In the eighth singles by Chesbro, Sebring, Clarke, Leach and Wagner, together with a wild throw by Barclay, produced the last bunch of four runs. It was a case of bunching hits with a vengeance, and clever base running by the Pirates. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

In the first inning, while Smoot was at bat, a foul glanced off the bat, entered the grand stand and had force enough to splinter the back of a chair. The ball narrowly missed a spectator.

Wagner got a funny two-bagger in the fifth inning. Honus soaked the ball on the nose. Shortstop Kruger set himself for it, but just before it reached the shortstop the ball struck a pebble and bounded high in the air, going over Kruger's head and out into short left field.

In the first inning Barclay, after getting first on balls, went to second on Smoot's out at first, then tried to steal third, but was caught from Zimmer to Leach. The decision was a close one, and the St. Louis rooters in the left field bleachers got after Umpire O'Day, and gave him quite a roasting.

Manager Clarke had an odd record in yesterday's game. Although he was only officially at bat three times, he scored four runs. Freddy got to base once when Pearson pushed the ball into his ribs, and another time he waited for a pass. Another thing was that every time he reached first he scored.

Sebring only had one fielding chance yesterday, which was a long fly by Smoot in the ninth inning. It looked as though the newest Pirate was going to misjudge the ball, but he got it all right. At bat Sebring showed his worth by smashing out a single and a pretty three-bagger. He also scored two of the champions' 12 runs.

Chief Zimmer stole another base yesterday. His slide was clean cut and ended up with a pretty head-first slide to the bag. It happened in the third inning after the Chief had been passed to first by Pearson. The crowd cheered the veteran catcher until he was forced to doff his cap. The Chief, like good whisky, seems to improve with age.

Patsy Donovan, besides having the O'Neill brothers battery has another attraction in the shape of the tallest battery in the country, which he intends to spring on the Pirates today. The newest battery is Hackett and Weaver, each over six foot tall. The battery is called "the sky-scrapers" in St. Louis. The catcher looks like a second edition of Connie Mack.

Patsy Donovan had a tiring experience in the second inning. He was the first batter and reached first on an infield hit. He signaled for the hit and run game. Nichols tried to work it but was not a success, sending out five successive fouls. Each time Donovan sprinted for second, but had to go back to first. Nichols finally fouled out; then Donovan tried to steal, but was nailed from Zimmer to Conroy.

When Red Calhoun made his first appearance at bat in the third inning Umpire O'Day chucked his breast pad and mask to one side, dug down in his hip pocket and produced a fancy case, which contained a handsome gold watch and chain. These were a present to Calhoun from his Allegheny friends, and a handsome present they made. Red tried hard for a hit, but the best he could do was an infield fly, which Bransfield took care of.

MOORHEAD AND COSTER WON TENNIS MATCH

Final Contest in Doubles to Be Played Saturday Against Beale and Dickson.

The final match for the double honors in the tennis tournament of the Pittsburgh Field club tournament will be played on Saturday afternoon, with S. W. B. Moorhead and M. K. Coster opposed to Beale and Dickson. Moorhead and Coster won their semi-final match yesterday afternoon from Hockley and Canfield after the playing of some excellent tennis. Hockley and Canfield started off with a rush and took the first set by a score of 6—2. The second set, which was warmly contested, went to Moorhead and Coster, 8—6, after some long games in which deuce score figured as high as six times in a game. In the last set Moorhead and Coster played fast tennis at the start and had the score 3 love, then 4—1. It was then 4—2, 5—2, and 5—3, 6—3.

Beale and Dickson, in winning their place in the final, defeated Dr. T. W. Stephens, the new Western Pennsylvania champion, in single, and Clinton L. Childs, the retiring champion, by scores of 7—5, 3—6 and 6—3. The final match in doubles has been postponed till Saturday, as three sets out of five are necessary, and it is almost impossible for all of the contestants to report early enough in the afternoon to finish before dusk.

GLOVE FIGHTS NOT BRUTAL.

That is the Deposition In the Corbett McGovern Case.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 17.—Depositions were taken today for use in the proceedings tomorrow before Judge Emmett Field for an injunction to prevent the schedule contest between Terry McGovern and Young Corbett from taking place here. C. E. Lumbertson, sporting editor of a Cincinnati paper, denied that such contests as the one proposed are brutal. He states that the claim to the featherweight championship did not hinge on the contest as both men are over the featherweight limit. Samuel Harris, manager for McGovern, said the fighters would be paid $5,000 each.

LIVELY HOCKEY SEASON AHEAD

LEAGUE WANTS DREYFUSS FOR PRESIDENT.

Skaters Figure on Four Clubs, Though Two Old Managers Declare Themselves Out.

The frost on the pumpkins has been a sure sign of preparations for the winter season of hockey ever since the introduction of the popular Canadian game here, and this year is no exception. Already the numerous stars of the ice game who secured jobs in this city on the strength of their skates, and are now bona fide residents, are casting around as to the prospects of a league and the number of clubs which will form it.

In spite of the impression which became firmly rooted in some quarters of the popular mind that there would be opera at Duquesne garden all winter instead of ice skating, the winter palace will open as usual November 1, according to present plans. As to the league itself, the most interesting rumor is to the effect that Barney Dreyfuss, the president of the champion ball club, will assume the leadership of a new hockey league. The Pirates' chief is an ardent enthusiast of the ice sport and was in attendance at nearly all the games last winter.

There is general desire for a four-club league as offering a more advantageous schedule, but what clubs will form the organization is still a matter of speculation. Keystone can be banked on to be in again good and strong, but the managers of the old Bankers and P. A. C. sevens are sorely disgusted with the business of running hockey teams, owing to the large deficits which it was necessary to go down in their pockets for last season.

Charles Miller, the president of the Western Pennsylvania league and old manager of the P. A. C.'s, has stated most positively that he is done with hockey for good and all. Such is also the verdict of James Barr, who was back of the Bankers.

The management of Duquesne garden is looking forward, however, to one of the most successful seasons ever experienced here. Little doubt is entertained but that there will be teams enough and managers enough to make the sport interesting when the time comes for the freezing of the ice.

FASTEST HEATS EVER TROTTED TO THE WAGON

Lord Derby and The Monk Put Up a Very Exciting Race.

FINISHES DREW GREAT APPLAUSE

Race Was Won by Lord Derby Who Was Favorite—There Was a Big Surprise in the 2:16 Trot, Which Was Won by Invader.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 17.—The racing was decidedly exciting at the Empire City track today. The weather was perfect, the track fast and speculation brisk.

In the grand special between Lord Derby, 2:05¾, and The Monk, with the same record, the former was the choice at 100 to 50. The Monk had the pole and C. K. G. Billings lost no time in sending him to the front. He led by two lengths up to the top of the stretch, when Smathers sent Lord Derby for one of those electric finishes for which he has become famous. He was just a little too late, however, and though The Monk was tiring, he just managed to win by a nose. The finish brought the occupants of the grandstand to their feet and both horses were loudly cheered as they returned to the judges' stand.

Lord Derby the Favorite.

The betting was now 100 to 75 on Lord Derby. The Monk again led to within 50 yards of the wire when Lord Derby in a superb drive won by a neck. Pools now sold 50 to 20 on Lord Derby and the pair got a perfect start, going like a team to the backstretch, where The Monk broke, and Lord Derby came on and won by five lengths. This is the fastest race of three heats to wagon ever trotted, the time in the second and third heats being 2:06 and in the first heat 2:06½.

In the 2:09 pace, mile heats, two in three, Don Riley sold favorite at 100 to 60 for the field. Lou Vaughan had the pole, but soon lost it to the roan gelding Albert, who led all the way to the wire, though the favorite made a determined rush in the stretch and was defeated by a length. Albert was now the choice at 2 to 1 and he led to the half, with Effie Powers on his wheel and Don Riley lapped. In the stretch Don Riley came with a grand burst of speed and won by half a length, Home Circle getting the place by a head from Effie Powers. In the third heat it was 2 to 1 on Don Riley. Effie Powers led to the distance, when the favorite in a most exciting finish won on the wire by a neck.

There Was a Big Surprise.

There was a big surprise in the 2:16 trot, for which Prince Selma was sold at even money against the field. Invader by Jay Bird had the pole and he led off with such spirit that he was never headed. Prince Selma was a good second to the three-quarter pole, when he broke and fell back to last. Invader was now the choice and won by half a length in a most exciting finish from Prince Selma. Scott Hudson then requested the judges to allow Geers to drive Prince Selma. The change did no good, as the horse broke in the back stretch and ran all the way home. Invader won the heat, Prince Selma distanced for running.

For the 2:19 pace Miss Willamont was a hot favorite and won in straight heats with quite a little in hand. Summaries:

CUBANS TOOK THE RUBBER

Jones Pitched Fine Ball But Errors Allowed Colored Team Runs.

The Cuban X Giants took the rubber from the H. L. A. C. yesterday at Steel Works park through errors. Jones pitched for the Steelworkers and should have been credited with a shutout contest, but errors by Nagle and McClosky in the fourth inning allowed two runs in that inning without a hit. In the sixth the Giants got another run on an error. Grant hit for three bases and went home on McChesney's drop after a long, hard run. Homestead's only run was secured in the first inning, when Nagle, the first man to the bat, made a home run. Nothing was obtained after that. Swissvale plays at Steel Works park today. Score:

COURT REFUSED TO ABIDE BY THE JURY'S DECISION

Judge Collier Sentenced Man Who Was Acquitted of Carrying a Gun.

HIS INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW

Police Are Trying to Do Away With the Cutsom of Men Carrying Concealed Weapons, Many Cases on the Dockets.

When John Bean, an Italian, was called in criminal court yesterday to have his case disposed of after he had been acquitted of a charge of carrying weapons, Judge Collier sentenced him to give security in the sum of $300 to insure good conduct for a year. The case was apparently one for conviction in the court's mind, for he had charged the jury that he could see no reason why a man should be allowed to carry a revolver with intention to use it if he got into trouble. After being out but a short time the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The court called Bean before him and said:

"My conscience makes me do my duty even if the jury did not. I sentence you to give good security in the sum of $300 to insure your good behavior for one year."

The defendant was arrested on August 23 by Detective Richard Kelly on suspicion that he knew something about the murder of William Curren at Federal on May 30, 1901. Curren was killed during a fight between foreigners and Americans at that place, and Bean's brother is wanted for the crime. As the defendant bears a striking resemblance to his brother he was arrested on suspicion. When he arrested him Detective Kelly said Bean put his hand to his hip pocket as if to draw a gun, but Kelly was too quick and a revolver was taken from Bean.

Judge Collier told the jury that the act of assembly dealing with the charge of carrying concealed weapons does not protect a man who carries a revolver to use if he gets into trouble, but that it is intended to lessen the number of homicides.

Other sentences were imposed as follows: Morris Neiman, carrying concealed weapons, four months in the workhouse; John Williams, concealed weapon, six months in the workhouse; Robert Smith, pointing a revolver, four months in the workhouse; Charles Mullin, larceny, 30 days in the workhouse; Martin Lucas, wounding Nicholas Interiere, two years in the penitentiary.

BYERS FILES DEMURRER.

Alleges Bill in Equity Was Not Sworn to By His Uncle—New Question Raised.

The equity case of Jacob Byers of Greensburg against his nephew, William S. Byers, and the Fidelity Title and Trust Company to recover money and valuable stocks in the vault of the trust company, will not be determined as soon as was expected.

The delay will result from a demurrer filed in behalf of the defendants yesterday.

It is alleged that the bill does not purport to be signed by the plaintiff; that it is not sworn to by him, and does not direct any power to C. F. Fener to sign it. It is said the bill is multifarious and that there is now pending in the Westmoreland county court an action to recover the identical sums of money described in the bill.

It is alleged the bill was served on the defendant at Greensburg, and that the property is not within the jurisdiction of the courts of this county. It is also stated there is a criminal charge pending against the defendant, and the question is raised as to whether or not the defendant should make answer until the grand jury acts upon the bills in the case.

Young Man Said to Have Been Shot By His Father, Forgets Him In His Will.

The will of Fred V. Casibon, who died at the Homeopathic hospital from a bullet wound from a revolver alleged to have been fired by his father, John Casibon, was filed for probate in the register's office. The will was made last Saturday and Casibon died Tuesday.

No mention is made of Casibon's parents in the will. His entire estate, which consists of property in the Thirty-sixth ward, is bequeathed to his friend, John J. Dee. The latter is directed to see that the testator is properly buried and is left the balance owing to the many acts of kindness shown the decedent.

The will of Charles F. Nevin of Sewickley gives his entire estate to his widow, Elizabeth A. Nevin.

An inventory and appraisment of the estate of John B. Duplevy shows a valuation of $14,035 27. Decrees in distribution were made as follows: Estate of Paul Herlhy, $408; Christopher Weldon, $1,150; Catherine Leonard, $761; John Fullerton, $10,669.

POLICE CALLED DOWN.

Judge Brown Makes Significant Statement During Trial of an Officer for Reckless Shooting.

"A police officer has no right to shoot a man on the street simply because he may be a worthless character," declared Judge Brown in common pleas court No. 1 yesterday. This remark was made during the trial of the case of John Morrow against Andrew Coyle. The latter was formerly a police officer and one night in the Lawrenceville district he shot the plaintiff on the leg when he ran as he was being placed under arrest.

Attorney A. C. Robertson endeavored to show the plaintiff's bad record, but the judge would not allow it.

Judge Brown said that it would be entirely different had the defendant carried a warrant for Morrow's arrest.

PIATT TAKES ACTION.

Asks Court for New Trial Alleging Verdict Was Against Weight of Evidence.

Application was made yesterday for a new trial in the quo warranto proceedings against James W. Piatt, in which case the jury found he could not represent the Second ward in select council on account of being a non-resident of that ward.

It is charged that the verdict is against the weight of evidence, and that there was no evidence to show that the defendant had removed from the Second ward or intended to at the time of his election.

In the United States district court a petition in bankruptcy was filed against S. K. Spears & Son, of DuBois, by creditors who allege that the company permitted judgment to be filed against it with intent to prefer creditors.

Judge Frazer yesterday held a hearing in the attachment proceedings again Frank Moore, accused of disposing of his goods to defraud his creditors, one of them being C. Holing & Sons. Moore said the property disposed of belonged to his mother.

NEXT WEEK'S PLAYS.

One Play New to Pittsburgh and Several Interesting Revivals.

As lover, fighter, imbecile monarch, jealous husband and self-sacrificing hero Mr. William Ingersoll will have a chance to show unlimited versatility next week, when he will appear in the dual role of Rudolph and the King in Anthony Hope's own dramatization of his celebrated story, "Rupert of Hentzau," which the Grand will present on a scale of unusual scenic splendor. This will be the first presentation of this play on any stage in Pittsburgh. Manager Davis thus has the privilege of giving Pittsburgh theatergoers their first view of a play that enjoys the distinction of being the best example of purely romantic drama that is known to the English-speaking stage today.

The cast of "The Henrietta," that comes to the Alvin next week, shows the same general strength as always characterizes the Robson productions. Edwin Holt will portray Nicholas Vanalstyne, "old Nick in the street;" Adolph Jackson plays Dr. Parke Wainwright, and Charles A. Lane will appear as Nicholas Vanalstyne, Jr.; Clifford Leigh, the celebrated English actor, will play Lord Arthur Trelawney, "another lamb;" Eleanor Barry appears as the Widow Opdyke, Frances Mayo as the wife of Vanalstyne, Jr., while Victoria Addison will play the part of her sister, Agnes, who is in love with Bertie. Lady Mary Trelawney is played by Laura Thompson. Joseph P. Keefe appears as the Rev. Dr. Murray Hilton, Cecil Kingston as Murgrave, the old clerk, and Walter Pennington as Watson Flint, the broker.

The great spectacular production, "The Evil Eye," rejuvenated and with new songs, dances, etc., comes to the Bijou next week, opening on Monday afternoon. The piece has so far scored even a greater hit than before, and that is saying a great deal. It deals with the many funny situations in which two little fellows, "Nid" and "Nod," find themselves in trying to evade the Evil Eye, an individual of very uninviting personality. "The Evil Eye" is the result of so augmenting and increasing the entertaining qualities of the performance that one can only wonder how it could be accomplished, and yet the best of the old features have been retained, especially all of the wonderfully wierdly antics of those two great little people, "Nid" and "Nod."

"Two Little Waifs," Lincoln J. Carter's greatest triumph, is conceded to be the prettiest scenic accomplishment and the greatest dramatic effort that has ever emanated from this fertile author's brain. The cast is probably the best Mr. Carter has ever had in one of his productions. It includes the Lamb children, who have gained an enviable reputation throughout the entire season. The scenery and accessories are the best and most complete ever handled with an attraction of this kind. "Two Little Waifs" will appear at the Empire theater for one week beginning next Monday.

The Merry Maidens Burlesque company are underlined for next week at the Academy. This company is one of the favorite shows that visit this city. It is under the management of James Lawry of this city. The company is headed by Jolly Nellie Hanly.

RESIDENCE IN ALDER STREET BRINGS $25,000

It Belonged to John W. Moore and Was Bought for Investment.

BUSINESS CORNER GOES FOR $21,000

Two Penn Avenue Houses Sold for $15,000—A $60,000 East End Residence—Homes for Sewickley—Building Permits.

Henry J. P. Diehl, who lately removed his real estate office from No. 6206 Penn avenue to the Arrott building, has the articles of agreement signed in the sale of a handsome residence property in Alder street, Twentieth ward. The consideration is $25,000. The property formerly belonged to John W. Moore of the East End and was purchased by a prominent downtown business man, who intends to hold it for an investment. The lot has a frontage of 40 feet on the northeast side of the street, near Highland avenue, and runs back 140 feet to an alley. The residence is a colonial brick, containing 14 rooms. It is finished throughout in hardwood and is provided with three bath rooms and all the conveniences that belong to the modern house.

The fact that the buyer already has a number of houses of this character which he rents to desirable tenants is proof that he considers high class dwellings a good investment, even at present prices.

Mellons Sell a Corner Lot.

The property at the southwest corner of Collins avenue and Kirkwood street, Nineteenth ward, has been sold for $21,000. Title to the property is said to have been taken by John A. Young, and the deal was handled by James B. Lawler. Mr. Young's purchase is said to have been made in the interest of a leading caterer of the East End, whose name is withheld pending the closing of the deal. The property was secured from T. A. and J. R. Mellon. The lot measures 45x40 feet, and has erected on it a two-story frame building. It is reported that the new owner will erect a good business block within two years.

This is the second sale by the Mellons in this locality since June 1, the property at the northwest corner having been sold to a contractor several weeks ago for something over $30,000.

Clothier Buys in Penn Avenue.

Maurice Arnfeld, the clothier, has purchased from John H. Armstrong the properties at Nos. 1902-1904 Penn avenue for $15,000. Armstrong secured title to the lots last week from W. H. Lutton. They are located on the south side of the avenue, near Nineteenth street, and have a frontage of 50 feet with a depth of 100 feet. A two-story brick house stands on the front of the lot and a one-story brick dwelling in the rear. Mr. Arnfeld bought the property for an investment. Since last spring a number of produce firms have left Commission Row in Liberty street and located in this vicinity, and it is said that a general movement of the commission men to this point, which is contemplated, is bringing up the price of property.

Handsome Home for D. P. Black.

Architects McClure and Spahr have awarded the contract to A. and S. Wilson for the erection of the residence of David P. Black, president of the Real Estate Company. The site is at the corner of Penn and Murtland avenues, Twenty-first ward, and was bought by Mr. Black only a few weeks ago. The proposed residence is to be one of the most elaborate houses in the East End and will cost $60,000. This amount, which is the contract price, is exclusive of heating, lighting and plumbing, which will add a considerable amount to the figure. The walls are to be brick and stone, with terra cotta trimmings, and the entire interior will have a hard wood finish.

It is reported that Gov. William A. Stone has closed a deal for a residence site in Beacon street, Squirrel Hill. The consideration named is $35,00 and the deal is credited to the United Realty Trust Company. The site is to be improved, it is said, with a $50,000 residence.

George N. Powell and William M. Cooper, the latter of the Gordon-Smith Comany, returned yesterday from a 10 days trip to Nottoway county, Va., where they have been rusticating on the tobacco plantation which Mr. Powell recently bought. Mr. Powell has arranged to devote much of his attention to stock raising and has already placed on the plantation about 100 head of blooded cattle and horses. Pittsburgh investors are turning their attention to the southern plantations and a Fourth avenue firm now has under way two deals for large tracts of land in Virginia.

Two Sewickley Home Sites.

Two more good residences are to be built in Sewickley on sites purchased through the agency of Joseph P. Rankin & Co. Both properties are locted in Thorne street, First ward, and were bought from the heirs of John Thompson. The larger purchase was made by Clarence D. Bevington, assistant cashier of the Columbia National bank, who secured a lot, 11x160 feet, for $5,000. He will improve it at once with a brick house to cost $10,000. The other property, a lot 50x160 feet, was sold to Frank E. Schlumpf of the firm of McClure and Way, stock brokers, for $2,500. The residence which Mr. Schlumpf will build is estimated to cost $8,000.

Through the agency of John Kane, James Foster has sold to John Sheran a modern 10 room brick house in Amber street, East End, for $10,000. The lot measures 40x110 feet. The purchaser will occupy the proerty as a home.

Maine Makes Contract Speed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The official report of the trial of the battleship Maine has been received at the navy department. Her uncorrected speed was 17.9. Her tidal allowance brought the speed up to 17.98, but the board found other conditions which warranted it in fixing her speed at 18 knots, which is her contract speed.

Nothing Out of the Ordinary Characterized Yesterday's Session of Allegheny Select Council.

Upon the call of wards the following ordinances were introduced and referred:

Authorizing the Western Bridge Company to erect a bridge, with approaches, over the Ohio river from a point in Preble avenue 590 feet north of Wilkins street, thence westerly along Edison street to the right-of-way of the Pittsburgh & Western Railway Company and across the Ohio river to McKees Rocks borough; authorizing the issue of $147,202 Brighton road bonds for the grading, paving and curbing of the Brighton road, from Washington avenue to the city line; authorizing the vacation of Scott street to a width of 20 feet, from a point 111 feet north of Lacock street to the property of the West Penn Railway Company; authorizing the grading, paving and curbing of Fleming avenue and Friendship alley.

Hair-Vain?

Why not? A little vanity is a good thing. Perhaps you can't be hair-vain, your hair is so thin, so short, so gray. Then use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stops falling of the hair, makes the hair grow, and always restores color to gray hair.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over 40 years. I am now in my 81st year and have an abundance of soft brown hair, which I attribute to the use of your preparation."—Mrs. Mary A. Keith, Belleville, Ill.

THE ROUNDHEAD ATTACK CARRIED CARNEGIE TOWN

THE WARTIME STORIES WERE RETOLD

Meeting of the Survivors of That Famous Fighting Organization Proved a Complete Success. Pathetic Incidents.

With ageing forms bent lower and with heads grown whiter since they last appeared, the thinning ranks of the famous old Roundheads, survivors of the old One Hundredth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers, gathered for their thirty-seventh reunion in Carnegie yesterday. About 120 of the hardy old warriors answered the peaceful reveille, and while their slackened steps and the deep furrows in their cheeks bore witness of the flight of time, the bowed figures straightened with the remnants of the martial spirit that inspired them long ago, and the dimming eyes flashed as of old as their comrades in reminiscent mood recounted the valorous deeds credited to them at bloody Antietam and other famous battlefields.

Carnegie was dressed in bunting and the people made great efforts to give the old soldiers the best time of their lives, and they succeeded. The ladies' executive committee, composed of Mrs. E. G. Husler, chairman; Mrs. William Hill, treasurer; Mrs. W. S. Bryan, secretary; Mesdames Lea, Hays, Dittmer, Walker, Heisel, Snodgrass, Matthews, Carnahan and Miss Jessie Hardy, provided a sumptuous dinner and supper, and when the "Roundheads" and their guests from other regiments sat down they numbered 200 strong.

Old Songs Were Sung.

There was a business meeting at 1:30, though little business was done. At intervals the proceedings were interrupted by music and sweet feminine voices sang the airs that were favored when Yank chased Johnny off southern battlefields. As these songs brought to memory the happenings of the past, tears glistened in more than one old veteran's eye and the "Suawnee River" pictured again the scenes in the sunny south 40 years ago.

At 7:30 the old bugle that used to sound reveille and taps, or long roll on the eve of battle, sounded the assembly at the camp fire. The Rev. Dr. J. M. Duff made the invocation, and interspersed with more music addresses were made by Burgess E. G. Husler, Comrades W. H. H. Lea, J. P. Miller, N. C. Deane, the Rev. J. A. Snodgrass, the Rev. T. N. Boyle, the Rev. P. J. Quilter, the Rev. W. R. Wilson, George Z. Hosack and Judge John B. Blair of Indiana, Pa.

Many reminiscences were brought up of individual prowess and adventure under all sorts of conditions and brushes without limit with the Johnny Rebs in which the narrators came out best every time.

Johnny Reb Welcomed.

There was an enemy in camp in the person of a reb who fought with Stuart. He wandered out to the reunion early and a few minutes in the company of his erstwhile foes sufficed to swell him with importance that he hadn't felt since he carried dispatches through the Yankee lines for "Jeb."

He was taken in hand by the old cavaliers present and was much made of. A Grand Army badge showed red against the black of his coat and flashed as proudly there as upon any of the rest. He was taken in to dinner, and though he fought his battles over against great odds he said he was used to that and held his own in the fierce engagements of the rebellion that were fought again across the festal board.

Little incidents happened every minute. One old veteran with a wooden leg in the place of the one that was taken off by a rebel shell at South Mountain met an old comrade that he had not seen since the muster out. Each thought the other dead, and their greeting had in it an element of peculiar pathos. "Really you, John! I haven't seen you since the war, and I thought you had long ago crossed over the river." "And I thought you had discarded that peg leg of yours these many years and joined the rest of the boys that left us before we came home," was the reply. Then they hugged each other and unbidden tears coursed freely down the furrows in their cheeks.

Praise for the Dead.

During the business meeting, after Secretary Stevenson had read the mortuary report, he remarked that there was not a single name there from Company M, and that there hadn't been a death in that company in three years. "I don't wonder!" yelled a grizzled old veteran, "they were the toughest in the regiment, and they just couldn't die. You couldn't kill 'em with an ax!"

Just after the names of those departed comrades not down on the list had been sent up, Mr. Stevenson read in a voice broken with emotion the following tribute to the dead:

"To these comrades we do not today extend the cordial grasp of hands, but tender to their memory the tribute of reverence due the dead. We bear testimony to their faithful, patriotic devotion and persistence in the face of peril and endurance of hardships for their country. The offering of their lives to the country was not accepted on the battlefield or among those who died in the hospitals during the great struggle. They were permitted to see years of prosperity and glory to the country they helped to reunite and save. Living, they served together, shoulder to shoulder with us in widely-divided fields. They died and sleep in many states of this union, but they helped to make it our common country, one and indivisible."

The Chaplain's Bravery.

In relating incidents characteristic of the deceased, several of the comrades who knew their chaplain intimately told several anecdotes illustrative of his fearlessness and devotion to duty. One old man related the following:

"It was at the battle of Chantilly that in my opinion Chaplain Audley Browne saved us from defeat. Our whole line was wavering and about to fall back, after we had failed to storm a battery, and Browne, seeing the danger, ran up and down the line exhorting the boys to stand firm, 'trust in God and keep their powder dry.' On the same occasion he was asked why he didn't dodge the bullets that were flying thick. The parson replied that he was a Presbyterian and believed in predestination, and therefore saw no use in dodging and running the risk of getting a bullet meant for some other fellow."

Ladies were much in evidence. In fact, according to the opinion expressed by one old "vet," the occasion would have been a flat failure without their presence. It was they who cared for every old soldier that presented himself, and the thanks they received proved the "Roundheads" gallant in more than the warlike sense.

It was agreed to hold the 38th reunion at Wampum, Lawrence county, Pa., on the third Wednesday of September next year. The election of officers followed. Those elected were: H. Ira Cunningham of Wampum, president; Henry Guy of Chootin, first vice president; William Smiley of Ellwood City, second vice president; J. C. Stevenson of New Castle, secretary; J. H. Stevenson of Pittsburgh, corresponding secretary; H. Ira Cunningham, secretary, and the Rev. A. M. Reed, chaplain.

COAL CONTRACTS SPLIT.

Two Big Concerns Divide the Allegheny Water Works Award.

The Peoples Coal Company has captured half of the contract for supplying the Allegheny water works with coal, the other half of the contract going to the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. The Peoples company is the largest competitor the coal combine has. The contract calls for the delivery of 500,000 bushels of slack.

The Jutte interests, of which the Peoples company is a part, has captured several snug contracts at Cincinnati and elsewhere, and when a rise comes in the river, it is said that C. Jutte & Co. will make the largest run of coal they have made since they entered the business. A member of the firm stated yesterday that he did not want to see a rise in the Ohio river for at least three weeks, for by that time they will be in excellent shape to handle their output. A good season is anticipated in the lower markets.

News of the Rivers.

The R. L. Aubrey has broken her shaft and will get a new one.

A new steel-hulled United States snagboat has just been completed at Savannah, Ga. She has been named Tugaloo.

Thomas Walker, who was with the Davidson Sand Company for a number of years, is now engineer of the towboat Mariner.

Maj. S. R. Crumbaugh, supervising inspector of steam vessels of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati district, left yesterday for Wheeling.

On account of the heavy fogs some of the boat owners are running behind schedule time. The fogs of the past week have been unusually heavy.

The new shaft being placed on the towboat G. W. Thomas is guaranteed to last a certain length of time. It not often happens that agreements of this kind are made.

Harry Gould, shore boss for the local sales department of the river coal combination, is reported to have resigned his position, the resignation taking effect October 1.

The members of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial association have not as yet elected officers. All of the members are busy at work and it is difficult to get a quorum together.

The towboat Lula Warren will be converted into a passenger steamer to run in the Paducah & Cumberland River trade. She was sold Saturday to Capt. John Barnes and Capt. Lon Barnes.

George Uhler, president of the National Marine Engineers' association, is expected to arrive in Pittsburgh this month on a visit to the local organization. He has been up in the northwest as far as Alaska.

Capt. R. W. Wise, superintendent of the Cincinnati, Memphis and New Orleans Packet Company, celebrated his birthday anniversary this week at Cincinnati. The captain acknowledged having been born in 1839.

The Elizabeth was delayed longer than expected in making her repairs, and the boat was still at the wharf last night. The boat will leave on her usual run today. The Gertrude was late in arriving, being held up by fog.

The towboat Relief, owned by the coal combination, which was wrecked last winter at Rising Sun and rebuilt, will be ready to raise steam Saturday. Parts of the boat's machinery are still being recovered from the sand where she turned turtle.

W. C. Jutte, who was to have left Liverpool, England, yesterday for Pittsburgh, has gained 24 pounds and is said to be the picture of health. The trip has done him a great amount of good and he is expected to get back into the business world again with renewed vigor.

The local steamboat inspectors, Capts. George H. Atkinson and Isaac B. Williams, have dismissed the charges brought by T. C. O'Donovan of Shousetown, against the owners of the steamer Mayflower, through James A. Dumont, the supervising inspector general of steam vessels, charging them with overloading the Mayflower.

BENNETT BROKE DOWN.

Butler County Fiend Lost Indifference When He Faced Penitentiary Walls.

James Bennett, whose fiendish crime against little Theema Wagner in Butler last Saturday was the cause of the gathering of a mob to lynch him, was placed on a train early yesterday morning and brought to the Western penitentiary to begin serving the 15-year sentence imposed upon him. A crowd witnessed his departure from the Butler station, but there was no disorder. Fearing that there might be, Sheriff Hoon had his prisoner conveyed to the station in a closed carriage.

On his arrival in Allegheny, Bennett, who had preserved a stolid indifference to all that had transpired, broke down completely and shed tears at sight of the penitentiary walls.

A DOCTOR'S EXPERIENCE.

Medicine Not Needed in This Case.

It is hard to convince some people that coffee does them an injury! They lay their bad feelings to almost every cause but the true and unsuspected one.

But the doctor knows; his wide experience has proven to him that to some systems coffee is an insidious poison that undermines the health.

Ask the doctor if coffee is the cause of constipation, stomach and nervous troubles.

"I have been a coffee drinker all my life. I am now 42 years old and when taken sick two years ago with nervous prostration my doctor said that my nervous system was broken down and that I would have to give up coffee. I got so weak and shaky I could not work, and reading your advertisement of Postum Food Coffee, I asked my grocer if he had any of it. He said, 'Yes,' and that he used it in his family and it was all it claimed to be.

"So I quit coffee and commenced to use Postum steadily and found in about two weeks' time I could sleep soundly at night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and well. In about two months I began to gain flesh. I only weighed 146 pounds when I commenced on Postum and now I weigh 167 and feel better than I did at 20 years of age.

"I am working every day and sleep well at night. My two children were great coffee drinkers, but they have not drank any since Postum came into the house, and are far more healthy than they were before."—Stewart M. Hall, Fairfield, W. Va.

TIN PRODUCTION OF LAST SEASON GLUTS MARKET

No Extensive Resumption of Mills Is Expected for Number of Weeks.

MONEY MARKET EASIER IN WALL STREET.

No Setback Expected in Country's Prosperity Possible Unless Public Confidence Is Shaken.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 17.—It is estimated by competent trade authorities here that 100 tin mills in different parts of the country are now idle. Conditions are beginning to improve somewhat owing to the circumstances that the canning season is just now at its height, but the outlook is not particularly promising. In any case there can be no extensive resumption of tin mill activity for a number of weeks, according to the reports that have been reaching New York offices.

Manufacturing interests were greatly disappointed when the tin plate workmen refused to accept reductions in wages so that American producers might compete with foreign mills. This attitude on the part of the workmen has cost the manufacturers the loss of business that would have amounted to at least 1,500,000 boxes of tin a year. This much can be figured; how much more it might be is a matter for speculation. It is estimated that if the manufacturers had been able to book that business in competition with foreign rivals the mills of this country could be running steadily on an average of 10 months a year. As it is, the domestic market is suffering from an overproduction, variously estimated at from 15 to 20 per cent.

The explanation of this surplus production is not far to seek. The American Can Company is the largest consumer of tin plate in this country. Last year it stocked up heavily with tin. It was a very poor season and a large percentage of that tin had to be carried over to the current season. Now this season, too, has fallen below expectations. The salmon catch has been lean and the pea crop is short. While the American Can Company is slowly working off its surplus of tin the demand for the product is light, hence the present condition of the tin plate industry.

The American Can Company has been peculiarly unfortunate in having fallen across two lean seasons—the first two of its existence. It has experienced more independent opposition perhaps than any other combine with the entire scope of industries grouped under the general heading of "iron and steel." Many small independent companies lately have sprung up at the points abandoned by the American Can Company in pursuance of its policy of concentration. Opinion is inclining strongly to the belief that the ultimate fate of the American Can Company will be its absorption by the United States Steel Corporation.

Combination Is Unknown.

Nothing is known here of an alleged combination of New York bankers formed for the purpose of urging upon the secretary of the treasury the expediency of accepting state or municipal bonds as security for government deposits. Individual representations along these lines have been made to Secretary Shaw, and he has flatly refused to entertain them; but as for any concerted effort on the part of New York bankers to bring about such an innovation that is probably confined to the imagination. The question comes up every time Wall street has a monetary stringency. A banker who is in close touch with J. P. Morgan & Co. today said:

"The prosperity of the country is unprecedented. No setback can occur unless public confidence be shaken. With mills and factories running to the maximum of their capacity and good grain and cotton crops practically assured, a serious disturbance on account of money or through any other cause is out of the question. There is money enough to go around, and the situation will right itself in a very short time. It is proper that there should be a temporary abatement of speculation. I do not perceive, however, that there has been any liquidation for the account of important interests."

Money Now Looks Easier.

The monetary situation gave evidence today of easing. The average rate for call loans was eight er cent. The highest rate was 10 per cent.. In the afternoon the rate was beaten down to six per cent. The demand for accommodations was perceptibly smaller. It is believed that weak speculative accounts have been pretty thoroughly combed out. Various bull pools resumed work today in a small way, and speculative confidence seemed to be succeeding the appremension under which values have been declining for several days.

In some of the recent writings on the subject of monetary relief from the United States treasury there has been an apparent confusion of the distinction, if such there be, between the security for circulation and the security for government deposits. The law is specific in providing that National bank circulation must be secured by government bonds, but the law governing deposits has been variously construed. Certain government officials in the past have read it to mean that the secretary of the treasury may accept against government deposits any manner of security he seems fit and proper receipts for baled hay if he should see fit to do it. The unbroken tradition of the treasury, of course, is against accepting any security other than government bonds, and a secretary would have to be more than ordinarily indifferent to public opinion who would depart from the rule. Other authorities have interpreted the law of government deposits to be quite as specific as that governing circulation in requiring government bonds exclusively as security.

Clearing Up Hocking Coal.

It is said by interests that have a right to know that the mysteries investing the affairs of the Columbus and Hocking Coal and Iron Company are in a fair way of being cleared. A decision by the Ohio courts on the merits of the opposition party's case will be forthcoming about October 1. The opposition, it will be remembered, appeared at the recent annual meeting with a clear majority of the stock in its possession, but was denied control on technicalities, with the immediate result that the row was taken into court, where it now rests.

Colorado Fuel Looks Better.

Professional opinion is that the speculative possibilities of Colorado Fuel and Iron lies to the long side of the stock. Its sharp rise to 82½ was a feature of the late trading today. McIntyre and Marshall, a firm that is supposed to manage large accounts for the Osgood party, bought freely on the advance.

Iron Men Hold Meeting.

The Nut and Bolt association met in this city today and considered prices and output. It was said that no changes of importance were made in the existing price lists. The bar iron association held its regular meeting in the Waldrof-Astoria today. Prices for bar iron were not changed.

May Enter Packing Trust.

It was reported today that the American Cotton Oil Company might be taken over by the talked of packing combination. It was claimed that as the cotton oil company is a large manufacturer of substitutes for lard and other animal fats. The control by the meat combine would limit competition in a profitable line of products. Officers of the company gave emphatic denial to the rumor, adding that the question of entering the packing combination had at no time been suggested by any of the directors or stockholders.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the Seattle assay office today's official records show that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $11,595. Total thus paid since Friday, $229,958, against $295,925 for the same period a week ago. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $3,273,000. Payment by banks to government, $3,943,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $670,000, paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $1,631,000, against $4,651,000 similarly paid for the corresponding period a week ago.

GOLD IMPORTS GIVE CHANCE FOR HIGHER PRICES

Notwithstanding This the Buying Demand Was Not Large.

INTERIOR DEMANDS TOO GREAT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Sept. 17.—Speculative sentiment was further improved in Wall street today and prices of stocks enjoyed additional recovery. The relief of the acute uneasiness over the money situation by the large engagements of gold for import checked the liquidation in the stock market and made it easier to mark up prices again. The volume of the actual buying demand was light, however, and the number of shares dealt in was no larger than yesterday. The movement hitherward of some $7,650,000 in gold from various quarters gives some feeling of assurance that relief will be at hand when the coming additional requirements of currency by the interior will make it urgently needed. The nervous feeling early in the week was as much due to fear of this future contingency as to the then present exigency for money. The receipt of gold which has been started toward this center will be in occasional parcels during the next three or four weeks.

Shipments Too Small.

Over $400,000 of the Australian receipts which arrived in San Francisco yesterday were made immediately available to the local market by telegraphic transfer through the sub-treasury today. The $1,000,000 which started from England today will be available at the end of the trans-Atlantic voyage. Of the remainder there will be one parcel of $500,000 which is not due to arrive in San Francisco until October 10. It will be seen therefore that there is no actual present relief from the present process of depletion of New York bank reserves. The anticipatory payment of government interest does not keep pace with the transfers of currency to the interior through the sub-treasury, which again amounts today to over $500,000, of which about two-thirds went to New Orleans and the remainder to Chicago. The requirements of the large customs meantime continues to drain funds from the New York banks into the sub-treasury, the balance of receipts by that institution at the expense of the market having amounted already since last Friday to $1,631,000.

Confident of the Future.

The comparative quiet in the money market is therefore due rather to a sentiment of greater assurance for the future than to actual present relief. The restriction of the speculation is a testimony to the continued scarcity of funds. Call money touched 10 per cent only momentarily this morning and ruled generally below that. There was a notable rebound in the foreign exchange rate, demand and 60 days sterling bills recovering to a half cent above the level at which the gold imports were arranged. This corroborates the opinion that the gold import point was slightly forced by those engagements. London sold stocks here today on balance discounts hardened in London and Paris, increasing the demand for sterling, and the supply of commercial exchange bills continued very scarce. Quite a number of prominent stocks both among railroad and specialties were from 1 to 2 points over last night at one time today, but the prices were not held. The market closed about steady. The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $2,708,000.

Talked About in Wall Street

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Herald this (Thursday) morning says:

The stock market of yesterday was little more than a continuance of the preceding day's session. Prices ruled firm and recovered still further, but the dealings were of a purely professional character, with activity curtailed. The cautionary policy upon the part of important banking interests, who are seeking to discourage operators until the money situation is cleared up, continued in force, and, while prices were maintained and advanced, there was no inclination for business except on the part of the trading element. There were no signs of liquidation and the prevailing sentiment in the marekt appeared to be, if not of confidence, at least one of hopefulness.

Money showed an easier tendency, but it was generally recognized that this was due more to the dullness of speculation and to purely sentimental considerations, based on the gold engagements, actual and prospective, than anything else. The actual improvement in the money market, except such as arise from the liquidation of stock early in the week, is admittedly very slight up to the present time, and is not of a nature as yet, to greatly encourage a belief in an immediate resumption of speculative operations for the advance. This was rather clearly shown by the recovery in the call rate at the close, to the ruling figure of the day, when trading operations became more active. The advance at the close was an entire reversal of the course of money in recent days.

More than usual interest attends the announcement that the controller of the currency has called for the condition of the national banks at the close of business on Monday, September 15. The bank statement of Saturday, September 13, was highly unfavorable, and the situation is not believed to have undergone any material change on Saturday or on Monday last. A comparison of the banks' statements made to the clearing house on Saturday, and those made to the controller at the close of business on Monday will be examined with interest. The condition of the banks of the country at this time, in view of the high rate of money, will, it is thought, throw a great deal of light on the general monetary situation.

London prices came variably lower, with some improvement as the trading progressed. Foreigners sold moderately, but without much effect on the local market. Cable advices reported stagnant markets abroad, due largely to the reported gold engagements from America, and the influence that these operations had on the money markets of London, Paris and Berlin, where discounts have hardened.

News from The Mines

[BY LEASED WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Colorado capitalists have invested largely at Erie, B. C., the scene of recent placer finds in East Kootenay. The river has been panned for several miles and showed values running from 5 cents to 50 cents a pan.

A 100-ton stamp mill will be erected soon on the Watseka at Rochester, Mont., which is one of the richest mines in the county.

Chicago and Ohio stockholders have been examining the Bismarck-Nugget near Sheridan, Mont., and express themselves well pleased with the outlook. Additional machinery has been ordered and development work is to be pushed.

Except from the Bunker Hill and Sullivan, which ships to its own smelter at Tacoma, no ore is going out of the Couer d'Alenes. All the mines at Mullan are closed and those up the canyon are contemplating a shut-down until the differences between the owners and the smelter trust are settled. It is rumored again that independent smelters will be established at Spokane and Denver.

There is an ample supply of water at Telluride, Col., to run the mills all winter. The Keystone placer will be able to run two shifts later than usual.

An Eldora, Col., correspondent reports a boom in that district. Considerable eastern capital has gone in and active development is proceeding rapidly on old and new claims. An encouraging feature of the situation is that values become richer and the leads look more permanent with depth.

All the stamps of the Briganza in Yavapai county, Arizona, are kept dropping on good ore, 70 men being employed in the mine and mill. The gold and copper company is to install a 50-ton cyanide plant in the spring.

Late advices from Virginia, Nev., state that the attempt to boom the Black Rock country has proven abortive. The mining press denounces the so-called sensational strike there as untrue, the Camp Donnelly "excitement" being a pure and unadulterated fake.

J. J. Hill of the Great Northern tells an interviewer that Republic, Wash., is all right, and that a city will spring up there. Mr. Hill says he spent $20,000 in getting the views of the best mining experts in the country as to the merits of the camp before he decided to build in a railroad to handle its ores.

The Metal Market.

Sales of 30,000 pounds of electrolytic copper for November delivery at $11 60 were reported in the local market, which was generally weak and lower. Standard closed at $11 00@11 30; electrolytic at $11 60@11 65; casting at $11 50@11 60, and lake at $11 70@11 90. Copper in London also was weak, closing 6s 3d lower, with spot at £53 1s 3d and futures at £53 6s 3d. Tin was dull and weak in New York, with prices 15 to 25 points lower, at $26 35@26 55. The London market declined 10s, spot closing at £121 15s and futures at £117 15s. Lead was unchanged in London at £10 18s 9d and at 4⅛c in the local market. Spelter closed quiet and unchanged at 5½c here and at £19 7s 6d in London. The English iron markets were unchanged, with Glasgow at 58s 4d and Middlesboro at 53s 9d. In New York iron was quiet and unchanged. Warrants nominal. No. 1 foundry northern was quoted at $23 00@25 00; No. 2 foundry northern at $22 00@23 00; No. 1 foundry southern, $22 00@23 00, and No. 1 foundry southern, soft, $22 00@23 00.

CAN ISSUE $6,000,000 MORE.

City Is that Far Below Limit of Bonded Indebtedness.

Some time ago City Recorder J. O. Brown asked for information as to the amount of the city's bonded debt, and how much greater the bonded debt can be made before the legal limit is reached. The gross bonded debt of the city is $21,416,201 87. From this must be deducted the amount invested by the sinking fund, which is $5,987,963 14, and the cash in the sinking fund which is $463,315 29, which leaves the net, or legal debt, at the following figure: $15,428,238 73.

The city can have a bonded debt not greater than one-seventh of its taxable valuation, which is now about $147,000,000. The legal debt being slightly over $15,000,000 the city can issue bonds legally to the extent of $6,000,000. This information was furnished to Recorder Brown.

Changes in Grain Prices Were Small

GRAIN BROKERS AFRAID OF COLD SNAP TO COME

ABSENCE OF OUTSIDER A FACTOR

Much of the Time the Wheat Pit Was Deserted and Little Business Was Done—Same Talk About Corn.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, Sept. 17.—The general tone in grains today was firm. Predicted frosts to follow the recent mild weather was a potent factor. Trade, however, was still largely confined to the local crowd, especially in wheat and oats, and inasmuch as the pits ruled dull price changes in them were small. Corn felt the weather most and was active the better part of the session. At the close September wheat was ¼c lower, December wheat ⅛c up, December corn ⅜c higher. September corn ⅝c higher and December oats ⅛c up. Provisions felt the effect of a raid in October pork and closed 5c higher to 50c lower.

Rain in the northwest, with much colder weather predicted, was the cause of a higher opening in wheat. Cables were steady in the face of a depression here yesterday and were construed bullishly. The fact that the receipts northwest were much increased over last week and a year ago was offset by the expectation that in consequence of the rains the spring movement only would be curtailed.

Export Business Good.

Cables advanced a little as the session moved on, and the export business was good, both Duluth and New York reporting 20 loads taken and Buffalo 100,000 bushels. The fact that the outsider was not in the market worked against good gains. Much of the time the pit was almost deserted. Price fluctuations were extremely narrow and little business was done. September wheat sold between 73c and 72⅛c and closed easy ¼c off at 72⅝c. December sold from 69c to 69¼c, dipped to 68⅝c and closed steady ⅛c up at 69c. Local receipts were 200 cars, eight of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 756 cars, making a total for the three points of 956 cars, against 547 last week and 743 a year ago. Primary receipts were 1,453,000 bushels, compared to 1,514,000 bushels last year.

Frost talk was the principal bullish incentive in the corn market. Of late there has been fair selling in spasmodic turns because of talk of big crops. Many speculators believe that with the end of this month the drastic effect of last year's big crop shortage will have disappeared. That was one of the reasons for selling on hard spots.

Conditions Make Bears Cautious.

Many other traders, however, have been figuring on the big shortage now out, especially in December options, said to be 15,000,000 bushels. It is known that cribs along the country railroads are almost empty, and have been for nearly a year. Where there were 12,450,000 bushels in the visible supply a year ago there are but 2,000,000 bushels now. Chicago has practically the only corn supply and that amounts to about 1,500,000 bushels. Farmers are inclined to hold much of their better corn. Much of the receipts for some time to come are expected to be soft. All these conditions have made bears cautious and have induced conservative support. With hard frosts forecasted for tonight these factors once more become active. Most of the middle west today was wet. General and influential buying followed in December and May and good upturns resulted. September was not so active and at times showed a drooping tendency. The Washington crop bulletins reported much damage in the northern portions of the corn belt. Yet, notwithstanding the frost talk, there was all the time present a feeling that a big crop was forthcoming, and this put a check on the bullish enthusiasm.

December Corn Closed Firm.

December corn sold from 43⅝c to 44⅛c and closed firm ⅜c up at 43⅞@44c; September sold between 58@58½c and closed firm ⅝c higher at 58⅝c. Receipts were 162 cars, 32 of contract grade.

Oats ruled steady and showed no important changes in prices. There was some buying at times for manufacturers and fair support by a leader. The wet weather also had some effect, as did the strength in corn. December fluctuated ¼c and closed steady ⅛c up at 31⅛c. Receipts were 162 cars.

There was good activity in the provisions pit. Hogs were lower, having fallen off 30c in two days. This included some outside liquidation, but good support was under the market until late in the day. When support fell off there was a flood of offerings of October pork and prices in that product fell off from $16 67½ to $16 25. This worked against all other prices and October options all closed weak. Part of this action is thought to have been for the purpose of bringing nearby and distant options together.

Pork Makes a Gain.

At the close January pork was 5c higher at $15 05, while October closed 50c off at $16 25. October lard closed 5c down at $9 77½, and January lard 2½@5c higher at $8 55. October ribs were 20c lower at $10 05 and January ribs 2½c higher at $7 90.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 250; corn, 375; oats, 185 cars; hogs, 21,000 head.

Local Stocks Were Quite Dull and Irregular in Price

WINDOW GLASS RALLIED ON A FAIR DEMAND

Banking Shares Less Active, but Still Managed to Break Records.

REAL ESTATE TRUST CO. WAS $7 LOWER.

Westinghouse Electric Seconds Declined on Light Selling. Crucible Steels Were Easier and United States Steels Firm.

The market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was less active than it has been for some time, and also considerably quieter. The tone was irregular throughout the session, but finished about steady. The heaviest trading of the day was in American Window Glass common, which sold over 1,100 shares and closed quite firm at 61½, a gain of 1½. The advance was attributed to revived hopes of some sort of a trade agreement with its rivals that would prove a benefit to all concerned, but there was hardly anything more tangible upon which to base such a hope than there has been for weeks. A prominent broker is very skeptical regarding the outcome and says that judging from the past the chances rather favor a continuation of the old-time scraping. Still "harmony" for a while would be an interesting and novel experiment and may be given a trial. The preferred stock was $1 lower and dull at 90½.

There was less of the sensational in the banking group than for some days, though several members did manage to pull out new high records. In fact, four sold at new high prices, while four more attained that honor in the bids. The four selling at high records were Federal National at $146, closed $144¾; Merchants and Manufacturers National at $148 50, closed $145; North American Savings Co. at $115, and Pennsylvania Trust at $260. Allegheny National at $129 was 5½ higher bid; Fifth Avenue at $83 was $8 25 higher bid; Peoples National at $425 was $28 higher bid, and State bank at $71 was $5 higher bid, all being new high records. There was no accounting for any of the movements, though rumor associates the names of one or two banks as contemplating deals of some kind. It is, however, impossible to get anything definite and the officials are all more or less emphatic in their denials. Allegheny Trust declined ½ and American Trust closed with a loss of $3 at 122. Real Estate Trust opened firm at 315 and then weakened, closing finally at 308, with offers at 306½. The close was a loss of $7 for the day, and the decline gives the recent plungers on the stock something to think about. When it was going up $5, $10 and $20 a day they said it was advancing because the intrinsic value of the company justified it. Will they now assert that the Real Estate Trust Co. was worth $140,000 less yesterday afternoon than the day before? That was the shrinkage in the market value of the capital stock; but will the bulls assert it was also in the intrinsic value? It looks as if the shoe was on the other foot. Yet, if the stock was intrinsically worth $315 at the opening, was it not equally worth it at the close? Had anything happened in the four hours intervening to warrant such a change in price?

In the industrials Westinghouse Electric seconds declined 1¼ to 112½ on light trading. It is said by people in a pretty good position to know that insiders are trying to depress the stock, and it is also hinted that if a statement is made when the annual (?) meeting is held, it will be so "bookkeepered" as to make as bad a showing as possible. Yet a well-known and thoroughly posted broker of this city said yesterday that he would bet he could get $150 a share easily for a control, and probably $200 a share would be a conservative figure. It is understood that some men of national railroad prominence, whose names have never yet been associated with the Westinghouse Electric Co. have been picking up the stock and holding it as an investment with an early possibility of a large increase in its market value. Crucible Steels were easier and fractionally lower. United States Steels were dull but firm and higher. The coal stocks were dull but steady at immaterial changes. Bonds were dull.

FINANCIAL DRIFT.

Hall sold Manufacturers Light and Heat at 78¼.

Sproul & Co. were the only sellers of Window Glass preferred.

The treasury has gained net from banks $1,631,000 since Friday.

The movement in National Lead is based on the revival of consolidation rumors.

Manhattan was active and strong on the belief that the insiders had taken it in hand.

The first sale of the day was 10 Federal National bank at 145 and the last 100 Window Glass common at 61½.

The controller of the currency has issued a call for the condition of the National banks at the close of business Monday, September 15.

The strength in United States Steel issues in New York is taken to indicate actively bullish sentiment on the part of the Morgan interests.

Preston, Watt & Schoyer were buyers of National Fire Proofing preferred. They also bought Commonwealth Real Estate and Trust Company.

At the opening Miller was a large seller of Real Estate Trust Company and Hall a steady buyer throughout the day. Miller bought lightly on the decline.

J. P. Morgan & Co. announced that the time for depositing shares of the Southern Railway in approval of the continuation of the voting trust had been extended to October 1.

The sub-treasury at New York paid yesterday to Goldman, Sachs & Co. $440,000 on account of gold deposited at the San Francisco mint from Australia. The money was paid over the counter in gold certificates.

The report in New York that Secretary Shaw would probably take other collateral for deposits than government bonds, is so far incorrect that he has refused to do so for one New York bank, insisting on government bonds.

The following gold imports have been arranged for: Goldman, Sachs & Co., $1,250,000, from Australia; Ladenburg, Thalman & Co., $500,000, from Australia; J. & W. Seligman & Co., $1,250,000, from Australia, and the National City bank, $2,250,000, from South Africa.

A prominent New York broker wired yesterday: I look for continued dullness and a sagging tendency in the market and still advise selling on rallies, as I think stocks can be bought cheaper in the next few weeks. The buying in Manhattan yesterday was distinctly good and the stock showed great strength, which was more remarkable in view of the weakness in Manhattan. The movement looked more genuine than any that has yet taken place, and I firmly believe that Manhattan will be a leader should any bull movement take place. It looks now as if it might be used to steady and strengthen the general market.

Wall Street Brokers' "Tips."

The Goulds are pushing up St. Louis Southwestern and Western Union.

Buy Union Pacific common, Louisville & Nashville and New York Central.

I am very bullish on United States Steel. From what I hear I expect some activity and a decided movement in the stock in the near future.

I should sell on rallies like the present. I think the bulls are rather running against a stone wall in this money market. To be sure, the situation has been relieved, but I can't see how this relief is more than temporary.

Easier money conditions will soon prevail. St. Paul should be better than ever; Rockefellers talk 200 for it. Keep long on Atchisons, Union Pacific and Missouri, Kansas & Texas issues. Hold Eries and the soft coalers. Mr. Keene is steadily acquiring Southern Pacific and is a great believer in Manhattan. The tractions generally are in good shape to advance. Sugar, Peoples Gas, Pennsylvania and Denvers may safely be taken on at any slight recession. Prospects favor increased dividend on Pacific Coast.—Josephs.

One of the biggest theatrical hits ever recorded in New York was that of "Dolly Varden," in which Lulu Glaser was the star. A handsome picture of this popular Pittsburgh actress will be given free with next Sunday's Gazette.

Transportation Is Still the Great Factor

FURNACES ARE SUFFERING FOR COKE SUPPLIES

Congested Condition of Railroads Not Yet Sufficiently Relieved.

STEEL RAIL BUSINESS IS IMMENSE.

Producers of Structural Steel and Plate Iron Are Sold Away Ahead—Demand for Steel Bars Very Heavy.

The question of transportation continues to furnish the most concern for manufacturers of iron and steel, although the situation has experienced some little relief in the past few days. Delay in transit does not seem to be due so much to a lack of cars as to insufficient terminal facilities and want of track room. Producers are furnished cars with which to load finished material with a fair degree of promptness, but shipments are delayed in reaching destinations.

Probably the greatest sufferers are the Valley furnaces, where a hand to mouth policy is necessary on account of difficulty in securing coke. This has been the case for some time, and while the railroads are constantly adding to their equipment of rolling stock this does not seem to reach the root of the trouble.

Output Sold for Ahead.

In all lines business continues good, with the output sold away ahead for rails, structural steel and plates. Contracts have been booked for 1,400,000 tons of rails for shipment next year, which beats the record. Throughout the entire list of manufactured products the week has not brought about one change in quotations, all prices continuing the same as last reported, with figures holding up firmly. The amount of new business placed has not in every department been as heavy as for the preceding week, but this is due to the fact that large buying heretofore has occassioned a temporary lull, many wants having been covered.

Demand for Bessemer pig is about the same as it was a week ago, with quotations unchanged, quotations being on a basis of $21 75 per ton at the Valley furnaces, or $22 50 Pittsburgh delivery. Foundry iron is still quoted at $22. Forge iron is quiet, but quotations hold steady and unchanged at $20 75 to $21.

Steel Rail Market Active.

In the steel rail market conditions are satisfactory to producers, specifications on old contracts coming in freely, while there is a constant inflow of new orders. Prices remain $28 for lots of 200 tons and upwards; $29 for carload lots and $32 for less than carload lots; $38 for 30, 35 and 40-pound rails in less than carload lots; $39 for 25-pound, $40 for 20-pound, $42 for 16-pound and $45 for 12-pound. Girder and T rails for the use of traction companies are from $38 to $40 a ton. On special orders of open hearth forging billets prices last quoted were $38 a ton.

One large producer of structural steel is sold up for nearly six months ahead, and new business continues to be booked, the tonnage of new orders for the week amounting to 10,000 tons, with quotations steady to unchanged. Basic prices are as follows: Beams and channels, from 3 to 15-inch, $1 60 for 100 pounds; beams, 18 to 24-inch, $1 70 for 100 pounds; angles, 3 to 6-inch, $1 60 for 100 pounds; tees, 3 to 6-inch, $1 65 for 100 pounds.

Conditions in the plate iron market are unchanged, with the amount of new business received the same as for the preceding week, 10,000 tons. Premiums of $5 a ton are still offering for prompt shipment, 60 or 90 days. On tank plate, for small lots for prompt shipment, $2 25 a ton premium is offered. On forward business the prices remain as follows: $1 60 for 100 pounds of tank plate, ¼-inch and heavier and up to 100 inches wide; boiler plate, $1 70; ordinary firebox, $1 80; special firebox, $2 and upward; flange plates, $1 70; stillbottom, $1 90; circles, $1 80.

Heavy Steel Bar Tonnage.

Pittsburgh producers booked new orders for 6,000 tons of steel bars, being below the amount for the preceding week, but not less than a good week's business. Purchasing in this line has been quite heavy for some time, and the aggregate for the past few weeks is very large. On large lots the prices were $1 60 for 100 pounds for Bessemer bars, with a premium of $2 a ton for open hearth and the same on Bessemer bars on orders of less than 2,000 pounds in one size, and as high as $6 on contracts for less than 1,000 pounds in one size.

The sheet market is without special features. Orders are being received in satisfactory quantity and quotations are steady at figures last named. The minimum price of $3 for 100 pounds of No. 28 gauge is still maintained in carlots. By buying in very large lots discounts of 75 and 5 off the old lists can be obtained. Jobbers' prices are from 70 and 5 to 70 and 10 off on smaller lots from stock.

Tin plate is steady, but featureless. While there is a fairly good business going, the situation is not specially active, but quotations are unchanged. The price holds at $4 per 100-pound box at the mills, for standard coke plates. The price on steel hoops is $1 90 for 100 pounds in 200-ton lots; smaller lots cannot be had at less than $2.

Scrap Iron Continues Firm.

The scrap iron market is strong, governed by conditions ruling for several weeks, and figures at which sales are made hold firm. Prices are: No. 1 melting stock, $21, to $21 50; No. 1 cast scrap, $18 50@$19; No. 1 wrought scrap, $22 50 to $23; turnings, $15 50; borings, $12 to $12 50; old steel rails, $21 50; old iron rails, $26; steel rails for re-rolling, $24.

The largest producer of crucible steel reports a heavy volume of orders and business satisfactory. There has been no change in quotations for sometime and no immediate change is contemplated. The quotations remain: Tire steel, $1 80 for 100 pounds; toe calk, $2 25; spring steel, $2 25; plow slabs, $2 25; rolled lay steel, $2 50 to $2 75; tool steel, $7 and upward, according to quality; cold-rolled shafting, 42 and 47 per cent off the list.

Hardware Trade Is Growing.

Trade in the hardware line shows a continuing large volume of business and a considerable rate of growth as compared to the same period of last year. Reports from all sections indicate a large amount of business being done by retailers, and by jobbers. Many goods are being shipped into the stocks of retailers, and they in their turn are evidently disposing of large quantities, judging from early duplicate orders. A particularly strong movement is noted in many lines of cutlery goods, this line seeming to go into the hands of the trade earlier this year, and in larger volume, than for many years. This no doubt is due to the demand from consumers on the retailers for this line of goods, and is explained by the ability of the purchasing public to provide themselves with goods of this character. The better quality of goods are moving in preference to the cheaper quality. A continued large movement is also noted in builders' hardware and in carpenters' tools, prosperity showing itself in every direction. Window glass is moving out in much better volume than for some time past, owing to the feeling that stocks are not liable to be larger and sizes scarcer for the next two months, together with the understanding of higher wages to be paid glass workers, which will doubtless mean an advance in price. Prices in a general way are firmer than they have been on almost all lines.

The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations: Wire nails, $2 05, carlots; $2 15 base, less than carlots; cut nails, $2 05, carlots; $2 20 base, less than carlots; galvanized wire No. 9, $2 50, carlots; $2 60 base, less than carlots. Other sizes usual advances. Columbian pocket knives, discount of 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 50 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $9 50 a dozen; great wetern files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; window glass, discount 88 and 5 per cent in less than car lots, 88 per cent in carlots; sheet iron, base No. 28, $3 10 for 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 per cent.

SLOW DELIVERIES CAUSING STRAIN

Relief in Iron and Steel Situation Is Sought in Additional Importations from Abroad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The Iron Age will tomorrow say:

The strain of unsatisfactory deliveries of raw material has been growing, being particularly severe in coke, both for furnace and foundry use. The result has been that relief has been sought by additional importations on a very considerabel scale. In foundry pig iron the tidewater markets and dependent almost entirely on Scotch, English, German and Canadian iron for prompt and early deliveries, and even in Chicago, round lots are reported to have been sold during the past week.

For future delivery, in 1903, consumers are, however, purchasing only home irons, among the recent purchases being one of upwards of 10,000 tons by the largest melter of iron in the metropolitan district. Foreign iron is called for for distant delivery, only in exceptional cases.

An interesting development has been the buying of Bessemer pig for the central west, two lots of West Coast hematite, each of 10,000 tons, having been taken at about $21 50, Pittsburgh, with further business under negotiation. It is believed in the trade that leading interests in the steel trade are short of metal and may be forced to import.

The foreign steel market has been active. Among the sales effected is one lot of about 10,000 tons for a wire mill in Indiana on the basis of 72 shillings Antwerp, done about 10 days since, and a 10,000-ton lot for a large interest in the central west for shipment beginning in November. Negotiations for further lots are proceeding.

The majority of importers state that the market has decidedly hardened and that 75 to 76 shillings 6 pence Antwerp is now as low as can be done. The German sellers follow the policy of withdrawing as soon as they have a certain amount of tonnage assured, but are quick to re-enter the market when orders do not flow in at the higher asking price. The result is that the market shows rapid changes from softness in spots to hardness and a rising tendency.

Practically all the business in foreign steel is for early delivery. It is understood that the leading domestic producing interest has orders booked for Bessemer billets and for sheet bars which will require full work until February, 1903.

One feature which applies to all the heavy articles in the foreign trade is the upward tendency in freights, both to Atlantic and gulf ports. They have already risen and may advance further temporarily, it being believed, however, that they will recede when the cotton and grain export movement sets in heavily. As it is, delivered prices of pig iron and of steel reflect the advance, both in the price of the material at foreign mills and of the advance in freights.

Reports from the domestic markets reflect a continuance of the heavy consumption in all the heavy lines. Orders for rails, plates, structural material, etc., are coming steadily. In these branches the full capacity of the United States Steel Corporation is engaged to the middle of next year. The total tonnage of all products on the books is reported to be about 4,725,000 gross tons.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

Down on Big Knot run, Ritchie county, W. Va., the Keener gushers are getting down below the gushing point. Shooting the old wells only helps temporarily, and the failure of new wells to reach the producing formation on schedule time has caused quite a slump in the daily output of the pool. As shown by the last gauge, two of the 12 gushers on the Freeland farm have been dropped from the list. The aggregate of the remaining 10 was 1,430 barrels, or just about one-half the daily production a week ago. All but Mallery Bros. & Co.'s No. 1, John Freeland and the Three Joes Oil Company's No. 5, Elroy Wagner, have dropped below 200 barrels a day.

On Wolf Penn run Smith, Wilson & Co.'s No. 2 on the Dora Arnett farm, is holding up at 400 barrels a day. Considerable new work is starting in the district. Smith, Wilson & Co. are drilling No. 3 600 feet southwest of No. 2, Arnett, and northwest of the same well 400 feet; the Cleveland and Parkersburg Oil Company is drilling No. 5, Thomas E. Dye. The same company has the rig up for No. 4 on the same farm, located 400 feet southwest of No. 2, Henshaw farm.

An Enormous Shot.

In the old development on Rock run, Pleasant county, Mallory Bros. & Co. gave their No. 4, on the J. W. Gorrell farm, an enormous dose of glycerin yesterday, and the well responded by producing 30 barrels the first hour. This well was completed more than a year ago and since then has been shot a number of times, but the one given it yesterday consisted of 300 quarts (1,000 pounds), the equivalent in explosive force of more than a ton of gunpowder. While the force exerted at the bottom of the well must have been terrific, the disturbance was scarcely noticeable on the surface till the well began to flow.

On the South Fork of Hughes river, Ritchie county, the Cairo Oil Company has completed its No. 6 on the John Lyons farm and has a 10-barrel pumper in the salt sand.

In the new development on the same stream and 2,000 feet south of the producer on the J. B. Holland farm, the Carter Oil Company has drilled its test on the W. B. Holt farm into the salt sand and it is reported a 40-barrel producer. This makes the third producer and three dusters for this district.

In advance of developments in the Yellow Creek district, in Calhoun county, Townsend & Co. have drilled their test on the A. C. Fisher farm into the Berea grit and have a 10-barrel pumper. In the older part of the same development Mallory Bros. & Co. have completed their No. 2 on the Lewis C. Hamrick farm and have a 75-barrel producer in the same formation.

In the Burning Springs district the Bridgewater Gas Company has completed its No. 11 on the J. S. Swisher farm and has a 10-barrel pumper in the Big Injun. The Bridgewater Company has rigs up for Nos. 12, 13 and 14 on the same farm. The Bickle Oil Company also has the rig up for No. 6 on the George Nutler farm.

The Wetzel County Wells.

On the east side of the Folsum district, in Wetzel county, the Delmar Oil Company and Greenlee's test well on the Alva J. Ice farm has declined to 10 barrels an hour. The production for the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock yesterday morning was 240 barrels.

On Fallen Timber run the Philadelphia Oil Company and J. C. Trees' No. 1 on the Z. T. Francis farm is holding up at 195 barrels a day. In the north end of the Folsom district the South Penn Company's No. 1 on the L. N. Martin farm is still producing 100 barrels a day. In the Pine Grove district the same company has completed No. 1 on the Martin Delaney farm and has a 100-barrel producer.

On the Ohio side, in the Wolf creek district, Morgan county, the Octo Oil Company has completed its No. 6 on the Haas heirs' farm and has a duster in the shallow sand.

One mile north of development on Wolf creek, Pittsburgh parties have drilled in a test on the Mrs. Williams farm and have a natural producer good for 10 barrels a day. This well is located two miles south of Pennville and in territory that had not previously been tested. The oil was encountered at a depth of 184 feet.

In the Jackson Ridge district, Monroe county, the First Chance Oil Company decided to take another and last chance at its Keener sand duster on the Lewis Griffith farm and drilled down to the Big Injun and got a five-barrel well in that formation.

In the Scotown district, Washington county, the Carter Oil Company has completed its No. 4 on the John Tice farm and has a small pumper. The same company has completed No. 2 on the P. Graham farm and has a 15-barrel pumper in the Big Injun sand.

In the Rinards Mills district the Carter Oil Company's No. 1 on the Susanah Sears farm is holding up at 100 barrels a day. The same company's No. 2, Esan McVay, and the Southern Oil Company's No. 2, Zwick Bros.' farm, are each producing 50 barrels a day.

Near Port Homer, Jefferson county, H. C. DeSellen has completed No. 9 on his own farm and has a 15-barrel pumper.

MINSINGER IS SLATED TO FILL PAUL'S PLACE

Soffels Control the Thirty-Second Ward and He Is Their Friend.

KIRK BIGHAM WANTS IT, BUT WON'T GET IT.

Ring Politicians Who Are Fearful of What the Soffels May Do Hope to Placate Them in This Case—Election Date in Doubt.

Jacob Minsinger will likely be the next select councilman from the Thirty-second ward. Even before the friends and neighbors of Select Councilman John Paul had recovered from the shock of his sudden death yesterday morning the politicians were casting about for available timber. A deal is already projected to have the Soffels, who control the ward, agree to Minsinger. Kirk Q. Bigham wants the place, but it is believed that he is no longer a resident of the ward.

Recorder Brown has not decided whether a special election will be called. The new city charter makes no provision for filling seats in councils made vacant by death, and the act of 1867 still stands. This act provides that the mayor shall within 30 days, give notice of a special election at which the vacancy shall be filled, in case the death does not occur within 30 days of the annual city election. Ten days' notice must be given of the special election, and the recorder can thus wait for 30 days, then give 10 days' notice, which would bring an election at the end of 40 days.

Mayor Diehl Ignored the Law.

It may be that the act will be ignored, as it was in the case of the vacancy in the Fourteenth ward caused by the death of William McCleary. The vacancy caused by his death was not filled for four months, Mayor W. J. Diehl, who was in office at the time, simply ignoring the law as there was no especial reason why the vacancy had to be filled.

The situation is different at this time, as the complexion of select council may depend upon the filling of this vacancy. Recorder Brown will ask City Solicitor Carnahan on Monday for information as to what the law provides.

Peter Soffel is chairman of the Republican ward organization, but his son, Common Councilman Jacob Soffel, votes with the Citizens, and at machine headquarters the Soffels are marked up as Citizens.

The Soffels are in absolute control of the ward since they whipped Kirk Q. Bigham for common council, and any candidate to be elected must receive their support. Minsinger is friendly to the Soffels, and would have been a candidate for common councils at the primaries, against Bigham last spring, had not Jacob Soffel been the candidate. At that time it was arranged that Minsinger should get Paul's place when his term expired.

The machine candidates on the county ticket believe the Soffels are against them. They are willing to make a proposition. They will allow the Soffels to name the select councilman and put him on the Republican ticket. This will elect the candidate, and by reason of this concession the ring hopes that the Soffels will support the county ticket.

Uncle John Paul In Council.

John Paul was in Pittsburgh city councils continuously for 17 years. He was always on important committees and for a number of terms was chairman of the corporations committee, one of the most important in councils. He obtained his political following through Senator C. L. Magee and was always a Magee follower. He was related both to Senator Magee and Thomas S. Bigelow. He was familiarly known as "Uncle John," and about city hall was never called anything else. When select council changed its hour, and met at night, he did not attend. That was one of the reasons why the branch finally decided to hold its meetings in the afternoon at the customary time. He always voted with the machine.

The death of Councilman Paul, and the finding of a jury that James W. Platt, select councilman from the Second ward, is not a reasident of the ward, and consequently is not eligible to represent the ward in council, removes two votes from the machine side of the roll. It reduces the machine vote to 18, the same number the Citizens control.

Move to Oust George Fleming.

It was said yesterday that suit will be entered to have the seat of George S. Fleming declared vacant, as it is alleged that he does not live in the First ward, which he represents. The city directory gives his address as Juliet street, Fourteenth ward. Fleming votes with the Citizens. The machine hopes that it will be able to oust him.

A suit is pending against Peter J. Donahoe, select councilman from the Fourth ward, to oust him on the ground that he was not a resident of the city for five years prior to his election. The case is to have a hearing in common pleas court this week.

A special meeting of select council is to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon to take action on the death of Councilman Paul. The call for the meeting states that no other business can be transacted. President John S. Lambie stated yesterday that he hoped there would be a good attendance. The following committee on resolutions was appointed: John Benz, John Upperman, Samuel J. Wainwright, Jr., R. H. Douglas, John A. Murphy and J. W. Ruhlandt.

E. J. Martin, city clerk, was authorized to secure a floral tribute and to have Mr. Paul's desk draped in mouring.
